- We find no quarrel, with the splitting of the riding. It was made necessary in the maintenance of the representation by population prin-

Two things do, however, surprise us. One is the reason for not splitting the county in a straight vertical line rather than placing Acton In the Burlington riding along with the north edd of Esquesing township. The other is why the riding could not better be known as Hallon East and Halton West rather than by the names of Burlington and Oakville

The division of the county as suggested, was probably to maintain some population balance and perhaps our suggestion of a straight north south line would not have made that possible. It would, however, have made for less confusion in the minds at voters if in the next election the line had been on the existing municipal boundaries

In the second problem, that of naming the and Halton West. He noted recently he had re- Chicago school fire

The fact that Acton can boast of one of the most efficient and safety-conscious Volunteer Fire Departments in the Province and that homeowners enjoy one of the lowest insurance rates because of the well trained and fast acting group of Frefighters is taken for granted by most citizens es normal routine

Perhaps what is not known to most people is the many tireless hours each of the volunteers spends practising or studying the latest fire tighting techniques or stressing fire Prevention riethods to the public

Monday evening was a typical example of ridings, we understand George Keef has already public apathy toward the Fire Department. A egreed to look into this.
