Davidson; first vice-president, Robert O'Hara; second vice-president, Mrs. Fred McCutcheon; secretary, Mrs. Donald Reed; assistant secretary, Mrs. James Rolston; treasurer, Mrs. Campbell Winn; assistant treasurer, Mrs. R. L. Davidson; pianists, Mrs. George Simpson, Mrs. James Broadshaw.

Conveners appointed for committees were: program, Charles Mason, Mrs. Fryer, welcoming, George Simpson, Mrs. Charles Mason; maintenance, John Ford, Percy Woods; visiting, James Rolston, Mrs. McAuley, Mrs. Paul, Mrs. Nelson Lambert; cards, Miss Annie Akins; games, Mrs. Donald Kennedy, Mrs. James Wild; lunch, Mrs. Wilder.

Given Wallet

Mr. Davidson took the chair and asked Mr. Rolston to come forward. Mr. Hargrove, on behalf of the members, presented Mr. Rolston with a wallet as a token of appreciation and friendship from the club which he had worked so hard for. Mrs. Reed read the accompanying verse.

DEAR FRIEND

We truly know your worth
And proudly call you "Friend".
You tackled a hard year,
Which comes now to an end.

Time's swift passing flight,
Brings skies not always blue,
But you have earned friendships warm
And welded friendships new.

Golden Age has garnered something,

Green youth has set to learn,
And the worth of true friendship
Is a value we all discern.

This year has brought many things,
And most of them were good.
So please accept this token
Of the members' gratitude.

—Elsie Reed

Mr. Rolston was visibly touched and thanked the club for the gift, their help and co-operation and wished them success in the new year. Mr. Matthews passed on to the new president the new membership cards, which had been printed and donated by the accorded by a youthful guest. Lunch and a social chitchat brought another pleasant evening to a close.

MENTAL HAZARDS

Have you ever been in a hurry or worried or angry, and then jumped on the tractor to get a job done? You probably have. What you likely didn't realize is that when you start to work at something, when you're emotionally upset, you're much more likely to have an accident! It might be a good plan to work off your anger or anxiety on some routine job before your inattention creates a problem.

Sheep Club

The Agricultural Representative H. J. Stanley and the 4-H Sheep Club leader Archie McKinnon presided at the monthly meeting Wednesday, February 10. Following a general review of sheep such as Merino, characteristics, setting age by teeth, registering and tattooing, members discussed lambing time and care of new-born lambs and mother, feeding, penning, docking and castrating. A short test concluded the meeting.
