Weekend Accidents On Slippery Roads

Last week's snow storms kept Acton police busy investigating a number of accidents caused by poor visibility on slippery roads. At 4:15 p.m. Friday, constable Bruce Kressler investigated an accident involving a car driven by James McArthur of R. R. 2, Rockwood, and one driven by Roger MacDougall of Eden Mills. The mishap occurred on Poplar Avenue, with an estimated $450 damage to each vehicle.
The same evening, constable Mervin Harness investigated an accident at the corner of Queen and Young Streets when damage to a taxi cab driven by owner Bill Hanna was estimated at $500 and a pickup truck driven by Hector Lebovic proprietor of Rosana Food Products, received $500 damage.
On Sunday, constable Ray Mason investigated an accident at the intersection of Church and Main Streets. A car driven by Garry Munday, Church Street, received an estimated $200 damage and another driven by Charles Saunders, Guelph, received $150 damage.

POET'S CORNER

THE POETESS
The dishes in the sink remind her,
The day's three meals are all being her,
But she, in sweet tranquility,
Must make a song of melody.
The dust on the unpolished floor,
Should pose an instantaneous chore,
But still, with an unseeing eye,
She lets the balls of fluff roll by.
Her bed is an untidy sight—
She makes it only for the night,
And, in the time of hunter's moon,
Arises not till nearly noon.
She lives in unreality,
Not cares what all her neighbors see,
I'm glad I'm not a lady poet,
These faults are mine; but then—
I know it — I feel Anderson.

FATAL TO DEER

Another North Halton deer met a quick end last week when it crossed Highway No. 25 at the wrong time. A car driven by an Etobicoke man was proceeding along the highway at the same time, and in the resulting collision, the deer was killed and $150 damage was done to the car.

The Lions Club practice for the western show was cancelled Tuesday because of the competing western—the opera.
