

Have Seven Guests of Honor At February Birthday Party

By Miss Marjorie Thompson
 Rev. Dr. Durston was the minister in charge of the church service on Sunday afternoon, February 21. Mr. R. Argall, who is on the staff of the Ontario School for the Deaf at Milton, was the organist and played with very fine expression. Dr. Durston read Psalm 42 and that portion of Chapter 8 of St. Luke's Gospel which contains the parable of the sower. Dr. Durston described this parable as being one of the greatest and best known of Christ's parables. The seed spoken of in this parable is God's word and the other analogies refer to the various kinds of hearts on which it falls. All the circumstances here can be related to our lives, as Christ Himself stated in this parable. Fifteen young ladies and young men who are members of the Young People's Group of Wellington Square United Church in Burlington conducted an informal evening for the residents on Sunday night, February 21. They were accompanied by Mrs. W. Pettit, who is the convener of Friendship and Visitation at the church.

Wayne Fraser, who is president of the group opened the program by playing Granada as a very fine accordion solo, and later on in the program he played another solo. Some Enchanted Evening. With Wayne leading the singing and Margaret McMillan playing the piano, a number of Latin hymns in the United Church hymnary were sung in unison by the visitors and the residents.

Laird Mackenzie gave the commentary and Frank Genesee ran the projector for the showing of some very interesting slides that depicted scenes in the American West. Laird had visited California in August 1941 when he went to "Cowboy" school with a group of scouts to this beautiful state. His views of the Grand Canyon, his husband and other lovely places on his route were very attractive.

The young girls of the group had been so kind as to make a wide variety of delicious cookies and other small confections and these were served with tea and coffee during a social hour in which these young people mingled with the residents and became better acquainted.

As each resident left the auditorium, he or she was presented with the gift of a bag of candy by the visitors. The gift was a nice remembrance of this group of friendly young men and women.

Seven residents were able to take their place at the head table in the afternoon of Wednesday, February 24, when the Burlington Women's Institute conducted the February birthday party.

The ladies of this Institute, which is the most northern in the County of Halton, have conducted several annual birthday parties at the Manor, and this party, like all the others, was very enjoyable. The president, Mrs. Leo Jamieson welcomed the audience and announced the program. Mrs. J. McEnery and Mrs. Jamieson were the program convener and Mrs. Frank Smith was the lunch convener. Mrs. Smith had made the attractive birthday cake.

The opening number on the program was the playing and singing of MacNair's Hand by a "hitchock orchestra" made up of the Institute members. After applause, an encore, This House was played and sung.

Two vocal duets were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shortill, with Mrs. E. McEnery as pianist. They sang the Sweetest Story Ever Told. Mrs. H. Sinclair and Mrs. E. McEnery sang In the Garden, for which

Mrs. McEnery also played her guitar. Mr. Shortill sang a solo, Asleep in the Deep.

Several humorous readings were given. Mrs. Jamieson read Mother's Little Broadcaster, and Mrs. Smith read Little Mary's Essay on Matrimony. Mrs. F. Snow played two Scottish records "Ramin' in the Gloomie" and "Will Ye No Come Back Again?" on her record player. Mr. J. McEnery entertained with several square dance tunes played on his fiddle and a little later on in the program, Mr. A. Leishman, a resident joined him with his fiddle to play several duets.
