

MARRIED IN TORONTO, Mr. and Mrs. John Charlton MacKenzie are living in Dennis, Cape Cod. The bride is the former Jane Ann Mason of Acton and Guelph.

Jane Mason, John MacKenzie Married in Toronto Church

In St. Thomas Church, Huron St., Toronto, Rev. C. A. Russell, Chaplain to University of Toronto, officiated at the marriage of Jane Ann Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mason of Guelph, formerly of Acton, and John Charlton MacKenzie, son of Mr. Donald MacKenzie and the late Doris MacKenzie of East Orleans, Massachusetts.

During the service selections from Bach were played by W. McNutt.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire styled floor length sheath of white Italian peau de soie with long-sleeved over-blowse of white lace outlined in white wool. She wore a white peau de soie pillbox with broderie with flowers of wool lace. Her headdress held a three-tiered veil of French tulle which fell to the hem of her cathedral train. She carried a cascade of yellow roses.

Her maid of honor was her twin sister, Judy Lee Mason, and her bridesmaids were Jennifer MacKenzie of Brewster, Mass., and Miss Susan Hanson of Montreal, Quebec. They were gowned alike in olive green delustered satin sleeveless sheaths with a large butterfly bow at the same material at the back waistline. They wore matching pillboxes and carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Daughters of Knox Prayer Day Service

The World Day of Prayer service conducted by the Daughters of Knox was held in Knox Presbyterian Church Sunday evening, March 7, conducted by the priest, Rev. B. Moore assisted by Mrs. J. A. Hansen and Mrs. W. T. Toth. The guest speaker was Mrs. A. T. Moore of Campbellville, mother-in-law of the group's president. Diligent members of the group took part in the service, rising from their seats in the congregation.

The junior choir sang under the direction of Mrs. Mann with Mrs. Moran as accompanist. Members of the C.G.I. with their leader, Mrs. D. Cleland, took the offering.

The Baptist service was with drawn but the evening due to the special service at Knox.

Friends, Fans

Former friends and turned fans following the news of Patty Surbey's pop music career in Vancouver. Several letters have already been sent following a story in last week's Free Press and an announcement at the high school. Fan mail always helps a career, and particularly a budding career such as hers. She has appeared on several TV shows seen in this area, the last Monday at 5.30. She was referred to then as "Miss Dynamic". Fan mail goes to Patty Surbey, c/o CBC-TV, Georgia St., Vancouver.

Every year, more than 300,000 hand made articles of clothing and bedding are shipped overseas to needy victims of disaster and strife by the Women's Work Committee of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Thornton-Gough Wedding Vows Said in Knox Church Saturday

In a double-ring ceremony in Knox Presbyterian Church on Saturday, March 13, Marjorie Florence Gough became the bride of Vincent Henry Thornton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gough, R.R. 4, Acton; and is a clerk-typist at Fiberglass Canada Ltd., in Guelph. The groom, who works at American Motors, Brampton, is the son of Mrs. Anna Thornton of La Salle, Ontario.

On their return from their honeymoon, the couple will make their home at 18 Brock St., Acton. The Rev. A. H. McKenzie conducted the wedding, with bows on the pews and pink and white gladiolus decorating the church. L. A. Hansen played the organ for the afternoon ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of brocade, falling into a slight train, with Empire bodice and long pointed sleeves.

A pearl-trimmed wedding ring headdress held her waist-length veil. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses, fern and Stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jon Hurst, a sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Miss Charlene Gough, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Harold Thornton, sister-in-law of the groom.

They were gowned alike in mint green silk crepe ballerina length dresses with rounded neck lines, cap sleeves, work belts and full skirts. They wore wedding ring headdresses and shoes to match, and carried bouquets of yellow and white carnations, fern and Stephanotis.

Groomsmen were Harold Thornton, brother of the groom, and others were Jon Hurst, brother-in-law of the bride and Fred Landy, a friend.

The reception was held in the Y.M.C.A., attended by friends and relatives from Guelph, Carlisle, Onaping, Georgetown, Detroit, Brampton, Windsor, La Salle, Cobourg, Alliston, Crystal Beach, Stratford, Kingsville, and Acton.

The bride's mother received wearing a gold metallic sheath with beige and brown accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. The groom's mother assisted wearing a blue linen sheath with lace overblouse, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The couple left on a trip to northern Ontario, the bride wearing a white double-knit dress with suede leather trim, brown accessories, fur jacket and a corsage of talisman roses.

Several showers were held in honor of the bride-to-be before her marriage. Miss Bert Halladay was hostess at a miscellaneous shower Feb. 9, Mrs. Bill Olson held a linen shower Feb. 12, Mrs. Olive Millen held a personal shower Feb. 17, Mrs. Doug Fishburn hosted a kitchen shower Feb. 18, Mrs. Don Lindsay and Mrs. Ed Norton had a miscellaneous shower Feb. 24 and Miss Ruth Clow held a cup and saucer shower Feb. 25. Harold Thornton held a party for the groom.

Lakeside I.O.D.E. Changes Meet

Meeting night of the Lakeside Chapter of the I.O.D.E. has been changed from the second Tuesday of the month to the second Thursday. Decision was made at the regular meeting last week. The change, it is felt, will suit more members. The next meeting, a joint meeting with the Duke of Devonshire chapter, will be the last on a Tuesday.

New officers were installed with Mrs. H. H. Hinton conducting the ceremony. Mrs. J. Jaque is again the regent.

Members will attend the Holy Week service April 11 in a body. The annual I.O.D.E. convention is in Hamilton April 7, 8 and 9. Mrs. G. Currie will take the standard and other members will attend.

Tables were decorated in Irish theme for the pot luck supper, winning prizes in an Irish hat contest were Mrs. R. Spielvogel and Mrs. C. Perkins.

THE ACTON NOVICE SQUAD, coached by Al Irwin, lost their first game to Milton then claimed the Novice Consolation round victory by doubling Fergus 5-2 in Saturday's four town tourney in Milton. Cliff Houston of Milton, left, referee in chief for the day's activities, presented the consolation championship crests to the team and captain Rodney Gibbons and the coach, right.

P. S. Carnival

Several district schools have been holding eliminations and practices for the Public School Carnival, Thursday, March 25. As well as the Robert Little and M. Z. Bennett schools, regular users of the arena, Speyside and Limehouse have been into town with Pineview booked next week. Many of the students are preparing costumes.

Knox Changes

Knox church renovations began Wednesday morning when Len Ariss Construction workmen began work there in both the basement and upstairs classrooms area. They have begun digging out the basement to deepen the entire area and are changing partitions upstairs.
