Esquering Speak-Off In Stewarttown Hall

On Wednesday evening, March 10, contestants from the schools of Esquering Township met in Stewarttown Hall for the speak-off to name three contestants to compete in the Inspectors' Finals. Students representing Pineview, Lamchouse, Stewarttown, Speyside, Norval, and Glen Williams were present.

Mr. Snoddy, a teacher in Glen Williams School, was chairman for the evening. He introduced the program with a brief outline of the rules governing the contest. He noted that contestants who win this preliminary would go to Wrigglesworth School where they compete with students from Mr. McDowell's inspectorate. They will then proceed to finals for the county also held in Wrigglesworth School.

From there they compete in zone finals held in Woodbridge, Ontario, and then the winner's will finally speak at the King Edward Hotel during the Easter week.

Georgetown. They chose as winners, Lou McNabb, a student at Stewarttown School, John McKeown and David Reynolds of Glen Williams were second and third, respectively. The three winners will compete at the inspectorate finals in Wrigglesworth School on March 19.

Mr. Dorow gave a very informative talk on the art of speaking in public, and brought the decision of the judges to the group. Ralph Cunningham presented the R. J. Cunningham trophy to the winner, Miss McNabb.

NEW VESSELS
Just as living plants grow new branches, the human arterial system may grow new blood vessels to take blood to the part of the heart injured by a heart attack or deprived of its normal blood supply, the Ontario Heart Foundation says.

Each year, the Canadian Red Cross enquires bureau processes about 6000 enquiries from countries around the world.
