Auction Sales, New Course

Mr. William Barragh of Guelph passed away last week and was buried in the Nassagaweya Cemetery. He lived for a number of years in Nassagaweya Township. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Mr. Grant Campbell held an auction sale last week of farm implements. The Ladies of Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church had a booth on the grounds and served coffee and pie. It was a very cold day and hot coffee was in demand.

On Saturday Mr. John Robertson held a clearing auction sale of farm implements and stock. A large crowd attended and the Nassagaweya Institute had a booth. They appeared to be kept quite busy. Mr. Robertson has sold his farm and will soon be moving to Milton. They will be missed in the district.

A number of local ladies have been taking Black Printing lessons from Mrs. J. Pyatt. She attended the Institute classes in Milton and then instructed the local class. The summary day is to be April 1 in Hutton Centennial Manor, where several Institutes will display their work.
