ACTON READERS RITE FAN MAIL

Dear Sir: I would like to thank you very sincerely for mentioning my name in your newspaper, The Acton Free Press. I really appreciate all of the publicity I can possibly get. A friend of mother's Mrs. Arbic sent me your newspaper. You also mentioned in your paper, about how much I really appreciate fan mail. These fan letters really make me happy, so I really appreciate as many as possible. Thanks again very much. I am enclosing a picture of the Stardust roller rink. The Canadian V.I.P.s and myself played at this roller rink. I am the one in the blue dress holding on to the microphone, just in case you were wondering. Because I guess you don't really know me too well. The Playboys also played there too, after us. Tom Northcut sure is a nice person. There were so many kids there that they changed it into a dance.

Well, I must thank you very much again, because I really appreciate all of your help. I hope you will like the picture, Thanks again.

Yours very sincerely, Patty Surbey.

Ed Note: The picture, a small colored print, wasn't suitable for newspaper reproduction. We hope to get another from the CBC later.

Legion Ladies Top

The Legion ladies 5-pin bowling team of Joyce Buchanan, Phyl Angell, Mary Cooney, Louise Toth, Rosemary Cook and Kay James qualified for the Legion Regional Championships to be bowled at Collingwood May 1 when they placed second out of 19 competing teams at Brampton Saturday. Four top teams qualified.

Georgetown Legion was first with a three game pinfall of 2964, then came Acton, 2843, Brampton 2799 and Port Credit 2664. Teams from Port Credit, Streetville, Milton, Acton, Cooksville, Georgetown and Oakville vied for the qualifying honors. Acton also won individual honors when Phyl Angell took high single for the day with a 273 and Mary Cooney came second for high triple with 659.

The weatherman was right again. He called for rain Tuesday with possible thunder showers. Shortly after midnight, April showers came with a vengeance. The sky was illuminated with lightning while homes shook with rumbling of thunder.

Town office employees have their work cut out for them. Tax bills are now being processed and will be mailed out as soon as they are completed.

The accumulation of sand on the roads is certainly causing a dust problem now that milder weather has arrived. The town street sweeper was out last week and is back on the streets this week.

The weekend warm spell combined with Tuesday's rain to take away a considerable amount of snow.

Read the merchants' ads in the Free Press to see what's new and special for Easter.

Saturday and Sunday were the first days with the warmth and pale sunshine of spring and here's what they brought out: many cars cruising; a woman sewing on her front porch in Nassagaweya; skipping ropes; shirt sleeves on extra-hardy males; bare knees on hardy girls; empty bottles and lost snow shoes appearing bit by bit from under the snowbanks; the first cucumbers in sheltered spots.

High school report cards went home Wednesday.

A photograph taken by the publicity manager from the Ontario Department of Transport at a recent high school board meeting appeared in the March issue of "Ontario Traffic Safety". It shows the board members listening to an explanation of high school driver instruction given by Don Edwards, accident prevention organizer from the department.

Wrong Menu

A typographical error which appeared in last week's issue indicated the Bannockburn W.I. enjoyed a "beer" dinner instead of a "beef" dinner. We regret any inconvenience caused the ladies by this error.
