French-Parker

St. David's Presbyterian Church in Campbellville was decorated with standards of pink and white flowers for the candlelight ceremony on April 15 that united Beatrice Donald Ann Parker and William Mervyn French in marriage. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ernest Parker of Campbellville and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Corbet French of Fergus.

Rev. John Schuel officiated at the ceremony and Mrs. Lloyd Crawford was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, bride wore a floor length, snow drop white dress featuring an overblouse effect bordered by a deep band of Swiss lace, short sleeves of Swiss lace, a sheath skirt and detachable chapel train with a band of Swiss lace above the hem and a bridal ring head-dress that held an elbow length veil. Her flowers were pink roses.

Friend Maid of Honor
 Miss Edna Marie McMillan, a friend of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a pale blue, floor length, empire line gown of chiffon over tulle with chiffon panels flowing from the shoulder. She wore a matching blue bridal ring headpiece and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Ralph French of Guelph, a brother of the groom was best man and Robert Burwell of Oakville, a friend of the groom and Doug las Parker of Campbellville, a brother of the bride, were ushers. A reception was held in the Sunday school room of St. David's Presbyterian Church, Campbellville. The groom, a graduate of McMaster University, holds a Bachelor of Arts degree. The bride is a graduate of Hamilton General Hospital's School of Nursing and the University of Toronto in Public Health Nursing. The young couple will reside in Georgetown.

For the honeymoon trip to the Georgia coast the bride chose a navy suit made from silk purchased in Thailand by the bride on a recent world tour. She chose black and white accessories with a white corsage.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at several showers and special events.

Miss Audrey Cairns gave a miscellaneous shower in Milton and Mrs. Leslie Gabor, a cousin of the bride, was hostess for a linen shower in Galt. Mrs. Orville Watson, an aunt of the bride, gave a miscellaneous shower in Burlington.

Miss Edna Marie McMillan, a friend of the bride, gave a dinner party in Burlington and Mrs. Rae West of Acton was hostess for a dinner party in Acton.

The bride also received a special presentation from some members of the staff of the Halton County Health Unit, where she is employed.

LET'S PLAY BRIDGE

By Bill Coats

The term "squeeze play" as used in contract bridge refers to a sequence of plays of the cards that forces an opponent to give up control of a suit. The majority of the time, it is declarer who executes the squeeze play on the defence.

However, in the hand I wish to show, the shoe is on the other foot. This is a hand where a tender squeezed declarer. The hand occurred at Acton Bridge Club last Monday night.

Dealer — West.
 North — South vulnerable.
 North — South vulnerable.

West — East
 S—J 6
 H—A J 9 7 2
 D—Q 5 4
 C—9 8 7

South — East
 S—A 10 5 4 2
 H—K Q 6
 D—J 10 7 6
 C—A K 6 3

The bidding:
 West North East South
 1C 1H 1S 1NT
 Dblc. Pass Pass Pass

The bidding is reasonable although North's overcall vulnerable is a bit light. West led the six of diamonds, with East playing the queen. Declarer held up his ace until the third round of diamonds. Declarer led a heart. West played low and the jack was played from dummy.

When this held, declarer led a club, covered by the ten, jack and king. West took the last diamond and led a low club. Declarer won in dummy and continued clubs, West winning. West led the heart king, won in dummy by the ace. Here the position with four cards left to play.

South called for the spade jack, East ducked and after a long pause, South also played low. West won with the queen of spades and declarer was dead. The heart queen squeezed declarer. If he discarded the queen of clubs, West's six is good. If he discards the spade, West leads to East's good spade. In fact, declarer discarded the club queen and the defence took a club, a heart and two spades.

Since East-West were using weak no trumps, a count would not reveal whether West has the ace or queen of spades.

Last week's winners were: first, Mike Lorusso and Duke Wilson; second, Mrs. Gloria Coats and George Soltz; third, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coats.

Sheep Tour
 Thursday the Halton 4-H Sheep Club travelled to the farm of George Genova, R.R. 3, Main Road, in Peel County, for a sheep shearing school. The day was organized by the Canadian Wool Growers' Co-Op and the Sunbeam Corporation. A professional shearer from Chicago was on hand to give guidance to anyone wishing instruction in the art of shearing sheep.

During the afternoon a demonstration on docking, castrating, hoof trimming and drenching was given for the benefit of 4-H members. The members also judged a class of sheep.

The day proved to be very worthwhile and who knows, we may now have 16 new professional shearers in Halton County?

BARN HAZARDS

Now that warm weather is on the way our younger farm children will be heading out to play in the barn and around the garage and driveway. Before they do, have you made sure that all potential hazards have been removed that your barn stairs have a guardrail, that there are no loose rings in the ladder to the mow and that the hay and straw chutes are properly covered? Protect your youngsters from these hazards.
