Limehouse, Silverwood Institutes Entertain

A program that was very appropriate for the Easter season was presented in the auditorium of the Manor on Thursday afternoon, April 22, when some 25 members of two Women's Institutes, Limehouse and Silverwood, joined forces to conduct the April birthday party.

The presidents of the Institutes, Mrs. S. Gaby of Limehouse and Mrs. G. Burt of Silverwood were present. The co-owners were Mrs. Ted Brown and Mrs. J. Roughley of Limehouse and Mrs. W. Norton and Mrs. F. Duffield of Silverwood. Mrs. D. Lindsay of Silverwood announced the programme.

The auditorium looked especially lovely with its Easter decorations. Hanging baskets filled with artificial flowers and pussy-willows had been suspended from the ceiling beams by means of silk streamers. Two baskets of large chrysanthemums and Easter lily blooms flanked a basket of beautiful red roses on the stage, and three bouquets of smaller mums and red roses graced the head table. The centre of attraction on the head table was a very cleverly fashioned Easter bunny surrounded by coloured eggs. This very life-like symbol of the Easter season had been made by Mrs. Jack Christen. There was also an attractive favor consisting of an orange and a tiny individual birthday cake, complete with candle at the place of each guest of honour.

After Mrs. Lindsay had extended greetings to the residents, she called on Betty Ann Brown and Mary Lou Brown to sing a duet. They had chosen the familiar song Easter Parade as the appropriate opening number. Later in the program they sang another lovely number, It Is No Secret. Susan Earle, who had won second prize in her class, ten years and under at the recent Davenport Music Festival sang a solo. A Child's Prayer in very appealing fashion.

Nine of the visitors took their places on the stage to sing two numbers, which were the Easter hymn, Christ Arose, and another hymn Whisper a Prayer. Led by these same nine singers, the other visitors and the residents sang a number of hymns in unison. The accompaniments for these musical numbers were played on the organ by Mrs. J. Roughley. During the refreshment hour selections were played on the organ by Mary Lou Brown.

The guests of honour were then called to the head table. These guests were six ladies and one gentleman: Mrs. C. Harris, Mrs. K. Metzger, Mrs. S. L. Everdell, Mrs. M. Neilson, Mrs. L. Sebrosky, Miss Martha Wilson and Wm. Donaghey.

The Happy Birthday Song was sung and a birthday card and a

Manor W.A. Seeking Name for New Home

The Women's Auxiliary of Halton Centennial Manor, Milton, is looking for suggestions of a name for the new home of the aged building which is now under construction adjacent to the present Manor.

A W.A. meeting was held May 5 at the Manor auditorium, with president Mrs. S. Allen in charge. It was decided to have a box in the auditorium on the day of the annual spring bazaar and tea, where suggestions can be left for a name for the new building. Mrs. A. Wilson is decorating the box.

The group was invited to visit the Evistide Home at Galt May 24. Final plans for the May bazaar were discussed and it was decided to hold a pot-luck dinner for the June meeting.

Mrs. S. Chikly and Mrs. R. Randall served tea and a delicious lunch at the close of the meeting.

FARM DRIVEWAYS

Now that Spring is with us and the leaves are covering the bare branches of winter, another hazard occasionally shows up throughout our farming areas, that of shrubs and bushes obstructing the view of the road from the farm driveway entrance. Check on your driveway the next time you go out with the car or tractor, and trim back some of the brush if your vision is obscured.

$1 bill were presented to each resident. The candles on the little individual birthday cakes were lighted. Delicious refreshments, sandwiches, tarts and cup cakes, donated by the visitors, and tea and coffee were served. During this social hour many old friendships were renewed and new friendships formed with these friendly and generous ladies of the two Institutes.

The inspiring message and the consequent joyousness of the Easter season were extended by one full week after Easter Sunday by two events that took place on Sunday April 25. These were the church service conducted in the chapel in the afternoon by Rev. J. K. McGown of Knox Church in Milton and an Easter Cantata presented by the choir of St. David's Presbyterian Church in Campbellville in the auditorium in the evening.

During the afternoon service, Mr. McGown read a series of Scripture passages that describe the death and Resurrection of Our Lord.

Having drawn attention to the fact that Christians observe the Sabbath as the first day of the week in honor of Christ's Resurrection, Mr. McGown said that for this reason alone we could observe Easter on every Sunday in the year. The importance of Easter is not solely the fact of its promise of eternal life but also the fact as to whether Jesus is our constant and steadfast companion in our life's journey here on earth. In comparison with the loud voices of other claimants of our attention, such as Capitalism and Communism, the voice of Jesus becomes very faint, but it is a voice that we must all recognize as the voice of the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords.

Mrs. John Mowatt was the organist. In the evening a lovely cantata, with the title An Easter Alleluia was sung by the choir from Campbellville. The 20 persons in the choir had been trained by their choir-leader and organist, Miss Shirley Chester, who played all the accompaniments on the piano, but Murray McPhail conducted the singing.

Rev. J. Schriell, the minister of St. David's Church greeted the residents and introduced the choir. The visitors and residents sang a hymn, In the Cross of Christ I glory, in unison and then Mr. Schriell read passages of Scripture from St. John's and St. Matthew's Gospels that describe the Crucifixion and the Resurrection. Before the singing of the cantata itself, a male quartette sang two selections, The Old Wayside Cross and Shall I Crucify My Saviour? These four gentlemen were Bill Elliott, Jack McPhail, Bob Elliott and Lloyd Early. In these numbers Bill Elliott and Lloyd Early sang solo parts.

The cantata contained alternating choral selections and quartette selections, all of which were sung in beautiful fashion. A quartette of female voices was especially lovely. The singers in this quartette were Mrs. L. Roberts, Mrs. H. Reed, Miss Joyce Chester and Miss S. Early. A mixed quartette, Mrs. L. Roberts, Miss J. Chester, and Bill Elliott and Lloyd Early sang the lovely hymn, Low in the Grave. A very appropriate hymn Christ the Lord is risen today brought this very inspiring and appealing cantata to a close.

The visitors had been so kind as to provide refreshments, delicious sandwiches, tarts and biscuits, which were served with tea and coffee.

It is worthy of note that this cantata was the first cantata ever to be presented at the Manor, and the residents would eagerly anticipate another by this fine group of musicians.
