

Dance Recital Western Theme

With dates unfortunately conflicting with the Lion show, the Carol Wharton's dance recital also has a western theme. It was back in the winter, unaware of what the Lions show was planning, that the popular young dancing teacher decided on the western touch for her annual recital here. By the time she learned of the conflict of dates she was unable to change her recital here to another day.

Parents and friends may attend the dress rehearsal of the Lion show Friday night, if they show their recital tickets at the door. Lions club officials decided this week.

Last Saturday was Carol's student's recital in Guelph, which filled all 800 seats in Ross Hall.

On TV Carol appears on Music Hop on channel 6 on Thursday, June 10 at 5.30, and then the family leaves for Chicago for the graduation of her brother from Moody Bible College there.

Various members of her family are known to her students and those who've seen her show in past years. Gary sang and played the accordion two years ago.

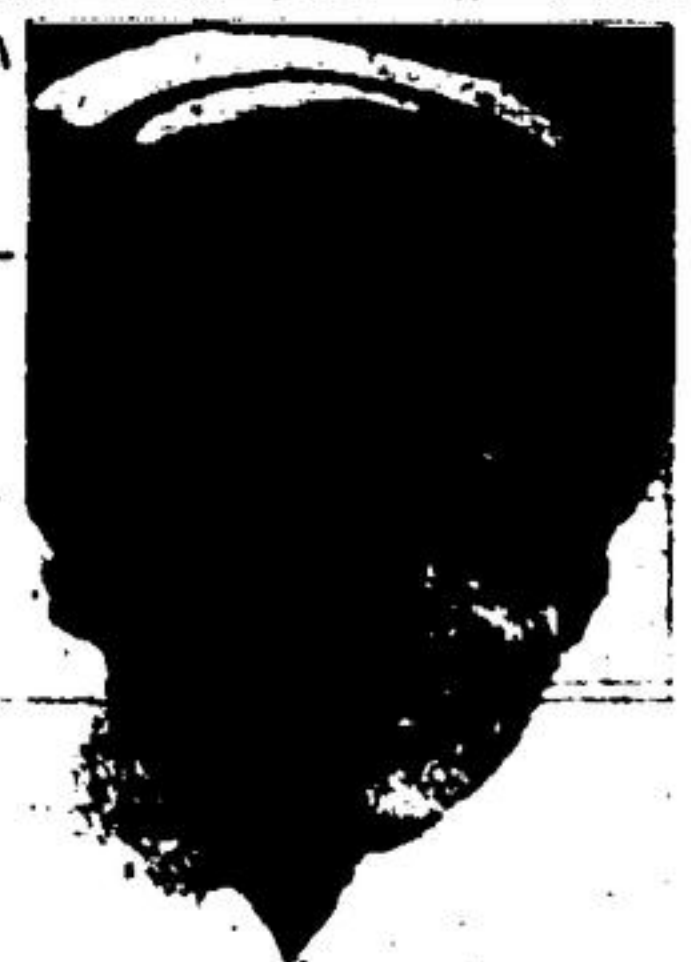

Her grandfather, who enjoys taking part, was to have sung this year too, but had a heart attack last week and is in an oxygen tent in hospital. However, rallying his strength and spirit he sang a few lines one day this week. Carol Wharton's mother, who always takes a very active part in the staging of the recitals, says her father's place here may be taken by a young Guelph man confined to a wheel chair who has been singing with Carol and a group who present programs to church groups.

Dress rehearsal here was Wednesday at the parish hall.

Form Plans For Centenary Year At Halton Music Festival Annual

Plans for a Centennial Project for the Halton Music Festival Association were discussed at the annual meeting of the Association held in the J. M. Denves School, Milton. Three suggestions were offered but members finally tentatively decided to present plaques, crests and shoulder flashes to participants in the 1967 Music Festivals.

Plans for presentation of Centennial awards would result in the North Division in the awarding of plaques to the top performers in each of the three divisions.

Wilson of the Hornby North Club, received their Provincial Honor certificates and pins upon the completion of the 12 projects. Visitors to the afternoon program enjoyed the exhibits, demonstrations and skits presented by each club. They also had an opportunity to examine the articles made by each of the girls in this project. These included decorated hat boxes, laundry bags, covered hangers, shoe packs and each girl's record book.

The 4-H Homemaking Clubs will be re-organized in September, with the beginning of the Fall project, "Working with wool". Any girl in the county who has reached her 12th birthday by September 1, and would like to join a 4-H Homemaking Club, is asked to telephone or write to the Home Economist at the Ontario Department of Agriculture office in Milton.

of the Festival, schools seven rooms and over, schools six rooms and under, and schools three rooms and under. In the South Division the plans would result in the presentation of plaques to the outstanding group of each day.

In addition to the awarding of plaques, each member of winning groups would receive a crest or medallion and all participants of every competition in both South and North Festivals would receive shoulder flashes. The Milton and Acton schools are included in the North Division.

These plans will be discussed at meetings of the North and South Divisions. The matter will then be decided at the November meeting of the Association.

A report on the North Division Festival was presented by W. J. Clow, principal of J. M. Denves School. The Festival was held in the Robert Little School Auditorium on April 13 and 14 with E. J. Ferguson of Borden as adjudicator. Over 1,800 pupils competed for the 24 trophies presented. A concert was provided by the winners. Tapes of the competition were made by Radio Station CHWO. These tapes are available to the schools through the Inspector's office.

Mrs. Charles Bragg presented a report on the South Halton Festival. Over 5,000 students competed for 62 trophies, 60 medals, and 45 pocket crests during the five-day Festival held from April 8th to 9th. Mr. John Wood of South Peel acted as adjudicator for the Festival.

The Association answered a request by the Limehouse W.I. for solo and duet classes to be considered as additions to the North Halton Festival. A reply was sent stating that due to heavy school population and the closing of the one-room schools, it is now impossible for the music supervisors to give individual instruction.

Evasive Release

Freight Service "Extension" For CN Customers in Acton

Rumors that the handling of the Canadian National Freight and Express service in Acton would undergo a change were confirmed this week. Details of the proposed change were not available at the local CN station, however a call to the public relations department in Toronto resulted in the receipt of the following press release.

"Canadian National announces the extension of Express Freight pick-up and delivery services to several southeastern Ontario communities.

"Extended service from Bramford to Paris will take effect June 21, 1965, and on the same date, CN pick-up and delivery service will be provided from Guelph to Acton. Extended service from Kitchener to New Hamburg will be operational June 14, this year."

Editor's Note: The press release is typical for its evasiveness. It calls the deletion of local service to be replaced by service from Guelph an "extension". If this is an extension what would a reduction be?

After June 30, Goy Transport, which has provided the express-freight delivery service for many years, will no longer act as agent of the railway. Instead a CN-owned trucking company will "serve" Acton customers from Guelph.

We have had the impression the railways were not interested

1965 Crop Negotiations

No Change in Wheat Prices

Price and terms of purchase and sale were negotiated in London between representatives of the Ontario Wheat Producers' Marketing Board, wheat dealers and processors for the 1965 winter wheat crop.

R. T. Bolton, R.R. 1, Seaforth, chairman of the marketing board and a member of the board's negotiating committee made the announcement advising that there will be no change from last year in the agreed minimum prices to be paid to producers.

Prices remain at $1.65 per bushel delivered for grade No. 1 and No. 2; $1.62 for grade No. 3 and $1.30 for grades nos. 4 and 5 and grade No. 1 and 2 mixed wheat and wheat grading lower due to excessive sprouting and low weight.

Under the escalator clause of the agreement, starting in October 1965, the minimum price will increase 2 cents per bushel per month up to and including the month of February 1966 for an increase of 10 cents per bushel over the basic $1.65.

The minimum will remain at the $1.75 level through March and April, then drop 5 cents per bushel in May and again in June, returning to $1.65.

The minimum price to the producer is subject to maximum moisture discounts set down in the agreement, a 1 cent per bushel licence fee and stabilization levy to be set by the board at a later date. (Last year the stabilization levy was 15 cents per bushel).

A. Roy Coulter of R.R. 3, Campbellville was a member of the Board's negotiating committee.

In the "non-profitable" passenger service. This indication we have of a curtailment of the freight and express services, leads us to believe the one thing in which they are still interested in is government subsidies.

It's hardly conceivable that subsidies will ever be referred to as non-profitable.
