OBITUARY

Mrs. Bertha Poole Funeral in Church

The sudden death of Bertha Mary Poole, widow of the late Rev. C. L. Poole, was a shock to many friends and neighbors, as well as her family in Toronto. Mrs. Poole was paying her daily visit Saturday at the home of neighbors Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Elliott when she was unexpectedly stricken. She was 78 years of age.

Her infectious good humour, spontaneous love of people and fine Christian example endeared her to many.

She lived at 68 Bower Ave., returning to Acton, where she had lived for many years previously, when her husband retired. Their beautiful home was a hospitable one, and their lovely garden was tended with great care. Mrs. Poole had been gardening already this spring and had been doing her regular tasks and household errands with her usual jaunty stride and cheery greeting to friends until her death.

She faithfully attended Acton United Church, the congregation to which her husband ministered from 1927 to 1935 in the building demolished five years ago.

She was a member of the United Church Women and of the Duke of Devonshire chapter of the I.O.D.E. The chapter's flag was placed at the head of the casket. Members attended the funeral service in a body. Just last week, she assisted in presenting I.O.D.E. Empire Day awards at the public schools.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Dwight Engel in the United church on Tuesday afternoon. George Elliott played the organ and the choir led in the singing of hymns. Interment was in Fairview cemetery. Pallbearers were Lyon Harris, William Middleton, R. H. Elliott, all of Acton; George Renwick, Frank Davidson and Thomas Barnes.

Many friends called at the Rumley - Shoemaker Funeral Home, which many years ago had been her home in Acton.

She was born in Guelph, July 21, 1886, daughter of William S. Smith and Honorah Bourne. She was employed as a bank clerk in Toronto, and while she lived there was a soprano soloist at Knox Presbyterian church, Toronto.

She was married October 17, 1929, in Toronto, to the Rev. C. L. Poole. He served at charges at Ridgeway and Moffat, retiring to Acton 15 years ago. A group from Ridgeway, all of whose had been married by Mr. Poole, visited them regularly each year and they had had a picnic at Welland May 8. Some attended the funeral from as far as Fort Erie and Buffalo.

She is survived by a son, George Poole, Toronto and a sister Winnifred (Mrs. Isaac Adams). Mr. and Mrs. George Poole and daughter Nancy, Mrs. Adams and her daughter Ruth were frequent visitors with Mrs. Poole.

Three brothers and one sister predeceased her.

OBITUARY

Robert L. Bingham Buried at Eramosa

Robert Louden Bingham, who had lived the past four and a half years with his daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Oakes, in Acton, passed away on Thursday, May 27 in Guelph General Hospital at the age of 82. He had been ill for two months.

Mrs. Bingham, the former Carrie May Powers of Eramosa, died 10 years ago, but he is survived by his daughter Betty, a brother Thomas E. Bingham, Toronto and sisters Hattie (Mrs. F. C. Hildenderfer) Seal Branch, California; Mary (Mrs. R. E. Hinchley), Brentwood Bay, B.C.; and Edna (Mrs. G. E. Wood) Alma, Ontario. He had four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

He was born in Erin Township in 1883, and went to school at Coningsby and Ospringe. He was married in 1912 in Calgary, Alberta. He was employed with the C.P.R. at Calgary from 1912 until 1930; then he farmed in Eramosa township until his retirement in Rockwood in 1950.

He was especially active in the choir and Sunday School work in Calgary United, Harris Hill United and Rockwood United Churches. He faithfully attended Acton United Church here. Recently he became a member of the Acton Golden Age Club.

He enjoyed sporting events. A great correspondent, at the time of his last illness he was working on a writing of history of the Bingham-Bennett family.

Funeral service was held at the Rumley Shoemaker funeral home on Saturday, May 29, conducted by the Rev. Dwight Engel, and interment was in Johnston's cemetery, Eramosa. Pallbearers were grandsons George Oakes, Etobicoke; Ernest Gregory, Hamilton; Russell Gardiner, Guelph; Paul Lawson, Bowmanville; nephews Douglas Bingham, Burlington; and Wesley Wood, Alma.
