Of Actonians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and of Visitors in Acton Homes

Mrs. George Withers is a patient in Guelph General Hospital. University student Susan Heard is working in Kitchener.

Young Paul Bray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bray, had his tonsils out this week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gohn of Mount Forest were visiting in town Sunday.

Mr. John Mowat and Mrs. Bert Mowat visited Mrs. J. A. Mowat at Clarkson on the occasion of her 95th birthday.

Bruce Andrews is home for the summer from Seton Hall, East Orange, New Jersey, after completing his third year.

Seven-year-old Paul Hansen is in Guelph General Hospital with a serious eye injury. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Middleton are back after a trip to the west coast. The "Citizen of the Year" is back at his duties now. They found a late spring in the west too, with few flowers out yet.

Esqueing Federation of Women Teachers is holding its dinner meeting tonight (Thursday) at Knox Church, Georgetown. Retired teachers are to be special guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Allan were in Kingston on Thursday and Friday of last week attending the graduation from the Royal Military College of their nephew, Sub-Lieutenant Gordon Brown, B.A., of Fergus.

Hutton County Museum curator and Acton art instructor Maj H. J. Newman was one of the guest speakers at the conference held by the Museum Association of America at Philadelphia last week. He also took part in a panel discussion. In his absence, his secretary, Mrs. Eira Brittain, took scheduled tours through the museum.

—Lions club members are all short of sleep this week.

—Acton Firefighters doused a blaze in a car owned by Mrs. Jack Gordon Saturday noon.

—The compressor in the ice-making equipment has been overhauled this week.

—The unseasonably cold weekend caused serious damage to some crops and tender plants.

—The Rangers will be helping the Ys Menettes serve at the bean feed after the Lions show.

—Anyone connected with the Lions Round Up show is full of enthusiasm. Can't we have a show like this for Centennial Year?

—Proof of the bad weather came in the fact the police, investigating a robbery, followed footprints showing in — of all things — frost.

—Young People of the Christian Reformed Church are taking instruction in the Save-A-Life program from the St. John Ambulance brigade. Those who pass the test receive crests.

—Today's high school assembly is planned to be especially "formal". Classes will enter together, sit and stand with precision. Exemptions will be given out, the uniform-type dress for next fall modelled and there'll be music.

Yush Foster, formerly of Churchill, now of Toronto, is recovering from a heart attack which he suffered three weeks ago. He is able to come downstairs once or twice daily. Friends are hoping his health keeps improving, so he can get out and around again.

Acton Lions had an entry in a three-hour long District "A" convention parade in St. Catharines on Saturday. The entry included poodles and the School Safety Patrol with the Elmer flag. Zane Chairman Al Lauder rode in state in a pony cart.

The Rev. R. McMurray of St. Alban's Anglican Church returned to Beamsville on Sunday to present the candidates prepared for communion there. The Rev. Rev Burwell took the services here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Elling of Amsterdam, Holland, are enjoying a seven-week visit at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Elling, 61 Nelson Court. Mr. Elling Sr. is postmaster at Amsterdam and will retire in another three years. Already the couple from Holland are planning a return visit to Canada. They have two other sons and one daughter all married in Holland.

Among those from out-of-town who attended the funeral of Mrs. C. L. Poole Tuesday were several who had been married by the late Rev. Poole when he was minister at Ridgeway. This group kept regularly in touch and visited the Pooles each year. From the farthest came Mr. and Mrs. George Fenwick of Buffalo, N.Y.; Mrs. Ewart Henderson of Fort Erie and Mrs. Walter J. Ryther of Fort Erie. Also at the funeral was a friend of George Poole, the Rev. Richard Newsham, Protestant Chaplain of the Hospital and Rehabilitation Centre of the Workmen's Compensation Board, who is able to walk only with the help of crutches.

—Young boys and girls of St. Joseph's church will take their first communion this Sunday.

—It's an unusually busy weekend coming up. Saturday sees the Acton Round Up culminating in the Lions show, a cubaree in Georgetown, St. John Ambulance program in Toronto and a dance recital, to name just the biggest events. Sunday is Decoration Day, first communion at St. Joseph's, park opening and band concert.

—Remind the children to enter the Round Up parade for costume prizes Saturday. Settlers, cowboys and Indians shouldn't be too hard to dress and the merchants would like to see plenty of entrants behind the band.

—If you're planning improvements to your home, be sure to make an entry in the Chamber of Commerce's Home Beautification contest! Support them in boosting the town!

—Rumors that the large, wooded Beardmore property on Church St. was being sold for apartment buildings have been denied by officials today (Wednesday). General Manager Norman Branda checked with realtors handling the sale of property and learned there was no truth in the rumors. The tennis court-bowling green property has not been sold, either.

Action Secretary For Summer School

Mrs. Laura Dittich of Acton has a new and very interesting position as secretary of the Hockley Valley Summer School. So far she is working two days a week at the popular school's offices in Toronto; once the summer term commences she will be at the school each day.

Mrs. Dittich would like very much to have some fellow-Actonians attend some of the fascinating courses there, and points out with pleasure that now she can readily assist anyone interested. She has folders, too, outlining the fees, accommodation and courses. This year's subjects include ballet, ceramics, creative drawing, furniture repairing, painting, spinning, wire making, and French conversation as well as others. There are special programs for children. Campers are specially accommodated.

This is the third summer term at Hockley Valley and between 300 and 400 students are expected for periods ranging from a weekend to a month.

Knox Ladies' Aid Meeting on Tuesday

Knox Ladies' Aid met at the Church on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. A. M. MacPherson presiding. Her thought for the day was "If you have castles in the air, put foundations under them". The worship service included the hymn, From Ocean unto Ocean Miss Jessie McGregor read the Scripture lesson from John, Chapter 14. Mrs. MacPherson concluded with prayer.

Mrs. Fred McCutcheon took charge for the business of the month. The treasurer reported several donations handed in in support of the kitchen project. Information was received regarding the lucky luncheon to be held late in the fall and two dates were chosen for their approval. Mrs. Griffin Spruel, convener for the month of June, asked for support for two weddings.

Mrs. Oliver Moran contributed two readings, Thomas Edison's tribute to his mother and another story of Mrs. Ewart, a mother who has contributed much to missionary work. The meeting closed with a hymn and the Mizpah benediction. A delightful luncheon was served downstairs. A contest on a variety of nuts was enjoyed.

Successful Canvass

Results of Knox Renovation Fund canvass held last week were tabulated at a board of managers meeting Wednesday. The canvass was considered very successful. Between 60 and 70 per cent of the total goal of $20,000 was reached through contributions and commitments.

LATE BIRTH

McHUGH — Mr. and Mrs. Bill McHugh (nee Elliott) are pleased to announce the arrival of their daughter Wendy Jill, June 1, 1965, weight 6 lbs. 5 1/2 ozs., at Northwestern Hospital in Toronto.

—Jack Carpenter was interviewed by Elaine Cole on Kitchener television Wednesday at noon, and the 10 youngsters in the "chorus line" danced their opening number.

—If you're planning improvements to your home, be sure to make an entry in the Chamber of Commerce's Home Beautification contest! Support them in boosting the town!

Eight Explorers Move to C.G.I.T.

Explorers of Knox Presbyterian Church enjoyed a lovely Mother and Daughter banquet Tuesday evening in the church. The leaders are Mrs. Brian Moore and Mrs. Mick Holmes. The dinner was sponsored by the Alert Evening Auxiliary of Knox church.

Eight girls graduated into C.G.I.T. at age of 12. Margie McKenzie accepted them into the C.G.I.T.

All eight girls received Achievement "E" pins for excellent work presented by Mrs. A. H. McKenzie.

The 17 girls in Explorers put on a program to end their year's work.

The girls proceeding to C.G.I.T. are Carol Patterson, Elizabeth Toebes, Marrie Maszler, Carol Maszler, Valerie Coles, Nancy

Loe, Karen Ashley and Jenale Ann Davidson. All the mothers and some grandmothers were guests.

Work continues on Queen and Young Sts. in preparation for the highway widening. Curbs have been laid along both sides of Mill St. to the C.J.R. tracks from Withers St., and along both sides of Young St. P.U. is being added and grading done.

Curbs Laid

Work continues on Queen and Young Sts. in preparation for the highway widening. Curbs have been laid along both sides of Mill St. to the C.J.R. tracks from Withers St., and along both sides of Young St. P.U. is being added and grading done.

Other students have been assisted in admission to trades courses and universities and seeking work.

Grad Place

The guidance department of Acton high school has been quite successful in placing students in jobs this year. This term's special grade 12 graduates — four boys and 10 girls — are all placed in positions.

Other students have been assisted in admission to trades courses and universities and seeking work.

Shuffleboard

Many inquiries have been received from the children and from the Golden Age Club. However, word seems to have leaked out that "blocks, guards and take-outs" all have their place in shuffleboard and inquiries are being received from curlers. Recreation director Harris Roe has shuffleboard on his planning agenda.
