CHURCHILL

The creek diversion program near Wallace Avenue is almost complete and water from the stream flowing through H. K. Porter land is beginning to flow into the new channel hampering workers.

—Town workmen are improving the drainage in the Warren Grove area. Driveway and culvert tile have been replaced and grading of ditches is almost complete.

—Time marches on everywhere but atop the old post office tower. The clock has registered a non-trivial five minutes to three for over a week.

—The graduation banquet for both public schools is being held next Monday at the Robert Little school.

—The two remaining pups which escaped from the barn fire at the home of Tom Shields recently, are recovering fine. One had to be destroyed.

—North Hutton Kart Club's weekly races have begun on the asphalt track on the fifth line south of Limehouse.

—Yosef Dreiners has pieces of sculpture included in the sculpture show on the back lawn of the Festival Theatre at Stratford. He's the owner of the former Rockwood Academy.

—For the first time, Milton has a Parks Board. Jim Dills, who has "pushed" its formation, was named by Milton council to the office this week. In their jurisdiction will be the mill pond area which is to be developed as a centennial project. Milton lacks a fine park like Acton's, maintained by our active parks board.

—John McNabb has joined the staff of the Free Press.

—Miss Acton Fair, Nettie Trysenar, is working at Rachlin's Jewellers.

—Framework is up for the two new houses in Lakeview subdivision.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Letich attended the Worgan-Shannon wedding on Saturday, June 20 in Humberdale United church, Toronto.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fulton McMorrin of Hamilton called on their niece Mrs. and Mr. Emmerson (Bud) Anderson on Saturday afternoon. A number of ladies from Churchill church accepted the kind invitation from Ballinadaf ladies and attended a picnic held on the manse lawn on Tuesday afternoon and reported a lovely time.

—School's out next Tuesday and lots of school news in next week's paper.

—The park was crowded on the weekend. The new peninsula made from the swampy area at the far end of the park will be a choice spot for picnics soon.

—Jim McIladrey and Jack Dennis are shingling the new band hall this week.

—Georgetown's police force is to be increased from eight to ten men.

—Monday evening during their regular practice time, firemen drove through town taking down posters advertising the Chamber of Commerce Home Beautification contest. Preventing them being torn down and blown about was a step toward beautifying the town itself.

—Souvenirs of his trips in his office as International president of the Y's Men's clubs have been put on display by principal G. W. McKenzie in one of the show cases at the Robert Little school. Dishes, flags, a pipe, fancy hats, foreign currency, a Dutch doll, Korean jewel box, wood carving and vases all intrigue his students, but one of their favorites is a big white whale's tooth. The youngsters have shown such an interest in his travels he decided this was a good way to let all of them see his souvenirs.

—The section at Acton Creamery formerly used as a salesroom for fresh fruit and vegetables has been converted into a fine main office for the bookkeeper.

Legion Notes

by George Ware
Sunday afternoon president Jim Gunn and yours truly attended a zone P.R.O. meeting, followed by a zone council meeting in the Brampton Legion.

The content of the P.R.O. meeting was mostly on the zone newspaper and the publisher was to have been in attendance to answer some of the branch P.R.O.'s questions. He didn't make it and the meeting dealt with what should be included in the paper and what shouldn't be in it.

The zone council meeting which followed attended to some of the business of the zone and following all were served a buffet lunch by the Brampton Legion Ladies.

Entertainment chairman Jack Pink informs us that there are still a few tickets left for the couples night this Friday evening in the auditorium. They can be purchased in the club rooms or from Jack Pink, Gord McCutcheon or Ivan Kilby. Tickets purchased at the door on Friday evening will NOT be eligible for the draws over they have started.

This should prove to be a very entertaining evening with Billy Meek as M.C. with many more fine acts such as Paul Brothers and Shirley and the Trisons midgets.

So, be sure and get your tickets early to avoid missing out on the cash prize draws that will take place all through the evening.
