Strawberry Social For Guernsey Club

About 40 members of the Halton-Peel Guernsey Club and their families attended the anpual strewberry social which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Swackhamer and family on Friday evening, July 2. The event, originally planned to be held on the lawn, was held indoors on account of rain.

Woodnide Raumion Another landmark has been vacated. A very happy reunion was held at Woodside school on July 3 on the occasion of the closing of the school. Many exstudents and teachers came for the afternoon and picnic. A dance was held in the evening with the Melody Men playing.

The prize for the earliest teacher was awarded to Miss Minnie Z. Bennett of Acton. Oldest student present was Miss Janet McLean and the person travelling the furthest was Dr. Andy Molozzi of Ottawa. Dr. Molozzi gave a speech on education and its importance in the future.
