

Carol Thomas, John Pasma Wed In Rockwood Church Ceremony

Rockwood United Church was decorated with bouquets of white gladi, mums and red carnations for the wedding of Carol Thomas and John Pasma. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Arthur Thomas, Rockwood, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sipke Pasma, Acton.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. F. Gardner and the soloist, Mrs. Charles Petty, sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer", accompanied by David Benham of Fergus.

For the reception at the church, the bride's mother received, wearing a pink chiffon sheath dress with flowing train matching picture hat and gloves and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

The groom's mother was in a jade silk A-line dress with matching jacket, beige accessories and she wore a yellow carnation corsage.

For a honeymoon to Montreal and the Laurentian Mountains, the bride wore a sky blue two-piece Alencon lace dress, white picture hat with blue chiffon trim and white accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses and stephanotis.

On their return, the newlyweds will reside at 118 Tondale Ave., Apt. 901, Toronto.

Out-of-town guests attended from Guelph, Acton, Listowel, Durham, Grand Rapids, Michigan, Toronto, Comber, Mount Forest, Atwood, Miller Lake, Ferris, Ancaster, London, Erin and Ajax.

Attendees in Blue: The maid of honor was Connie McKinnon of Guelph and the bridesmaids were Brenda Gordon, Guelph and Mary Dav, Ancaster, both cousins of the bride. They were gowned alike in powder blue, floor-length sheaths with empire waists and bodices trimmed with white lace. A wattleau panel flowed from a tiny bow at the back.

Their headdresses were of net petals with a rose at the back and tulle veiling in matching blue. They carried bouquets of white carnations with tulle of pink net and white ribbon.

The best man was William Oost, Grand Rapids, Michigan, and the ushers were Raymond

Paterson-Duby Wedding June 30 At St. Alban's Anglican Church

Two school teachers from Sarnia and Acton, who will both be teaching in Kapuskasing in September, were married on the first day of their summer holidays. At four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, June 30, in St. Alban's Anglican Church, Acton, Lesley Anne Doby became the bride of Edward Miché Paterson.

The bride, popular grade two teacher at the Robert Little school is the daughter of Mayor Leslie A. Doby and Mrs. Doby, 194 Churchill Road N., Acton. The groom, who has been living in Corunna and was a teacher with the Sarnia public school board, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Paterson, Port Elgin, Ontario.

After a short honeymoon in Muskoka, they returned to Guelph where the bride is attending summer school at the university. Then both will teach in Kapuskasing.

Brother Assisted: Rev. Ritchie M. Murray conducted the ceremony, assisted by the bride's brother Laurence Doby, a theology student at Trinity College, University of Toronto.

White snapdragon, red roses and white shasta mums decorated the church and Mrs. Frank Dukes played the organ.

Classic White Gown: The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length white silk taffeta sheath with a detachable train flowing from a bow at the low-back neckline. The gown had a bodice of French lace, rounded neckline and elbow sleeves. Her wedding ring held a cascade bouquet of sweetheart roses and white stephanotis with white streamers and ivy.

Single Attendant: Maid of honor was Elizabeth Force, a former classmate of the bride who now attends Michigan State University. She chose a cascading gown of blue organza fashioned with a low rounded neckline, cap sleeves and a white lace panel the length of the dress. She wore a blue feathered head dress and carried a cascade bouquet of red sweetheart roses, white stephanotis and ivy.

Groomsman was Ken Ball of Corunna and the ushers were James Ware, cousin of the bride and Alfred Doby, uncle of the bride.

Reception: The reception was held in Lutton Memorial Hall in the afternoon. Mrs. Doby wore for her daughter's marriage a two-piece ensemble of blue flowered nylon sheer over taffeta with a three-quarter length jacket, white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. Mrs. Paterson, mother of the groom, wore a mocha brown silk jersey with white accessories and a corsage

Flowers decorated the hall as the wedding party welcomed friends and relatives from Lansing, Michigan; Medicine Hat, Alberta; Meaford, Port Elgin, Corunna, Tara, Guelph, Rockwood, Long Branch, Streetsville, Georgetown, Eden Mills and Acton.

A small floral arrangement in pink and white topped the three-tiered wedding cake.

Three Grandmothers: Among the guests were three grandmothers of the young couple, and a great-aunt from Medicine Hat.

The couple left for Muskoka, the bride wearing a three-piece linen suit in powder blue with white accessories.

Before their marriage, the bride and groom were guests of honor at several presentations and showers.

Miscellaneous showers were held by Mrs. Herb Cook, Church Hill Road, for neighbors, and by Mrs. Gordon Cate, Rockwood, for the family. Presentations for the groom were made by St. Andrew's Presbyterian church choir, Corunna; First Corunna River Scouts; Errol Road public school staff, Sarnia, and the grade six and seven class at the school.

GOOD HABITS: Develop good outdoor habits. Leave a clean camp. Observe the game laws. Drive carefully. And remember only YOU can prevent forest fires.
