Will YOU?

Cancer patients, in need of drives to Hamilton or Toronto for treatments or check-ups, have had to be turned down by the Acton Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society, who right now are desperately short of drivers.

In the past, volunteers have been available to take local patients, but presently there's an soute shortage that has forcad the local group to refuse their narmal help in some

COASS. "It's heart-breaking to turn someone down," said one of the concerned members who called the Free Press to ask for an appeal for drivers. These drivers are paid; their expenses are amply covered. (The Branch also can pay bus Bare.) Sometimes patients must go to hamital each day for a certale length of time. The more drivers there are available, of course the less these eway for

Other patients just need to take one trip, for a regular eleck-up.

The the work of the local undertaken without funfare of publicity, has helped many in the past.

If you drive, won't you phone and say you'll halp take patients to Yoronto or Ham-Ston when you can? Ask about the expense payment. For further information or am offer to help, please call Mrs. Ray Arbic $33-8744 or Mrs. Bill Coats 853-2225.

SHARP SHOPPER

A woman with more money than brains decided to purchase some antiques. She went to an antique dealer who started off by showing her a beautiful vase. He held it up and exclaimed, "This vase is over 2,000 years

"Don't try to pull any fast tricks on me," snapped the wo-man. "It's only 1965 now."
