JANICE RALSTON and Richard Gammon were married by the groom's father at Acton Baptist Church, on July 31

At Baptist Church

Groom's Father Officiates At Gammon-Ralston Wedding

A double-ring ceremony at Acton Baptist Church conducted by the groom's father, the Rev. G. S. Gammon, united in marriage Janice Lynn Ralston and Richard Philip Gammon. The church was decorated with pink and white glads and carnations and tapers for the marriage at 3:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

The bride, a secretary at the W. C. Wood Co. Guelph, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ralston, 60 Mosbray Place. The groom, a draftsman at Wean Me. Kay of Canada Ltd., Galt, is the son of Acton Baptist church minister the Rev. G. S. Gammon and Mrs. Gammon, 144 Tuley Ave. At her a two-week honeymoon at a resort in Pennsylvania, the couple are making their home at 9 King St. Guelph.

Bride's Sister Soloist
Mrs. R. C. Leighton, Eslington was organist and Miss Linda Ralston, sister of the bride was soloist, singing O Perfect Love.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white nylon organza over silk tulle featuring a Chantilly lace trimmed bodice, three-quarter length sleeves and a bouffant skirt, a wide border of lace in an apron effect enhanced the front and the back of the skirt. A rose bow accented the waistline at the back. A cluster of pearls formed her headpiece and her hair fell in a veil of silk illusion. She carried white carnations, stephanotis and lilies.

Mrs. Murray Harrison, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, the bridesmaids were Miss Carol Ralston, cousin of the bride, Hespeler, and Miss Linda Ralston, sister of the bride, Acton. They were dressed alike in floor-length gowns of aqua silk organza over tulle, fashioned on princess lines with brief sleeves and fitted cummerbunds and bell-shaped skirts. A panel with Schiffli embroidery fell from a bow at the waistline. A cluster of roses with tulle veils formed their headpieces.

The flower girl was Miss Jan Slevater of Galt, young cousin of

Brownies Take Tests Enjoy Tour of Ranch

Some of the Brownies of the third Acton Pack had a day of test work at the home of Brown Owl Mrs. Syd Newton on Monday of this week.

The day started with a special treat. After gathering at the water tower at 9:30 they set off for a visit to a milk ranch belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Purty. Mrs. Purty was very happy to escort the eight Brownies around the beautiful modern buildings and tell them how milk are cared for. The girls saw how playful the precious little animals can be by being invited into the house to see the family pet.

The next thing was the half mile walk (scout's pace) to start on some testing. Tea and toast was the first order of the day watched over by Packie Cavell Marshall. Those Brownies on duty performed excellently.

Another group headed by helpful Guide Ann Watson took fire fighting, gathering their own sticks and doing the job in the good old Baden-Powell manner. The favorite test of all Brownies semaphore, was taken on by Brown Owl.

During the brief spell between duties they sat around the tent with their knitting, some learning and some old hands at the game. Lunch was made and served by a different little hand and the dishes washed all in good order and time.

For fun they were sent on a flower hunt around the garden and learned a few names of flowers they didn't know before. Brown Owl hopes they remember!

The Brownies taking part in this adventure were Debbie Papillon, Ann Marie Lutz, Hickey Bolter, Carolyn Duval, Diane De Vries, Joanne Hatch, Mary Watson and Muriel Holmes.

Earlier in the summer the full pack spent a day at Kelso dam with Guide Mrs. Elting and Brown Owl, Mrs. Newton, and helpful mothers Mrs. G. Ballard and Mrs. W. Sherratt, when the Brownies enjoyed a bounteous picnic, a visit to the museum and a swim to cool off.

Meetings will begin again Wednesday, September 15.

60 Lots Available None are Sold Yet

To date, none of the 60 serviced lots in Lakesview Heights subdivision have been sold. There have been several enquiries and a number have visited the site to view the lots.

Last week owners of the property, Long Term Investments Ltd., put the 60 lots up for sale to private individuals following several enquiries. Realtor G. Alder Johnson was named to handle sales and he reported quite a bit of activity and interest over the property but no definite sales made.

Georgetown Grad Ontario Scholar

Keith Allen, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Allen, Georgetown, and grandson of Mrs. W. Allen, Acton, was awarded a $400 Ontario scholarship with 80.2 per cent in best eight subjects in grade 13. A Georgetown high school graduate, he will enter the science course at the University of Waterloo. He has also been awarded a scholarship by the University of Waterloo—free tuition, having a total value of $2200.

—There was another band concert at the park Sunday evening.

—Acton WI has a bus trip to the C.N.E. today (Thursday) on Musk Day.

—Handbooks are being prepared at the high school for the grade nine students.

—The Free Press is sponsoring its jam and jelly contest at the fair again this year.

—The new sod beside the highway widening projects seems to have taken hold quite well despite the dry weather.

—Miss Judy Tong is working at the Exhibition in one of the exhibits of Chinese goods. Another Acton girl with a job there is Miss Janice Levland.

—Some Acton men are affected by the strike at Malton. Others are still out from American Motors at Brampton.

—More exhibits at Acton fair showing the products of Acton's industries would be much appreciated by the fair visitors. Few realize all the things that are produced in Acton. A good industrial display would give us much pride in our town.

—Schools open again Tuesday, September 7.

—Moulded wood tip-up seats have been installed in Georgetown arena, so sports fans can sit in solid comfort. They were purchased from a Toronto high school.
