Baby Show

Many of the babies of 1965 will be featured at the baby show which will be held in Acton on the 10th and 11th of the month.

Organized by the local ladies' auxiliary, the show is sponsored by local merchants. There will be five classes of babies.

The classes include boys and girls from one to six months, boys and girls from six to 12 months, boys and girls from 12 to 18 months, and boys and girls from 18 months to two years.

Prizes will be given for each class. The show will be held at the home of Mrs. J. K. Porter, 111 Main St., Acton.

Porter's on TV

A 15-week TV series on Channel 13 Kitchener is being sponsored by H. K. Porter Co. (Canada) Ltd. The weekly series, entitled "How To" depicts the busy lives of products manufactured in Acton by the company.

The program began June 28 and continues until September 18.

Beat Dailies

Not too often a small town newspaper offers the opportunity to copy large dailies and having magazines. The Acton Free Press has given this opportunity last week on the story on Style Acres Ranch.

School caretakers are busy with last minute details in preparation for school on Tuesday. They have worked all summer cleaning the schools.

Let $14,135.50 Contract For Mill St. West Paving

Acton council Tuesday evening at a special session awarded a $14,135.50 contract to Armstrong Brothers Construction, Brampton for widening and improving Mill Street West from the Mill-Main corner to the Mill-Park intersection.

When completed the road allowance will be increased approximately 10 feet, measuring 28 feet from curb to curb. This section has been under scrutiny of the road committee for some time and work is expected to begin as soon as possible.

Acton winners, repeated winners of contestants in the Chamber of Commerce Beauty Pageant contest this week. Contesting first place: Cheryl O'Brien and Ken Hodgson, at the door; Charles Mason, Willow Street.

World famous hair stylist, "Mr. Leonard" Lewis from London, England, shows his technique to Bruno Scilizzi and Mrs. Evelyn Hathaway, co-owners of Bruno's School of Hairdressing. The stylist is at Style Acres Ranch, north of Acton this week imparting his knowledge to leading hair stylists from North America. Martha Corbett of Toronto is the model with the latest hair style.

World Famous Stylist At Style Acres Ranch

Top hair stylist and hair cutter "Mr. Leonard" Lewis, of London, England, is at Style Acres Ranch, north of Acton this week, instructing top hair stylists from all over North America.

Mr. Leonard who is partner to "Mr. Raphael" who was at Style Acres last week is using professional models from Toronto.

Both men operate "Raphael and Leonard's House of Beauty" in the heart of London, England, and included in the 6,000 square foot building is everything for a woman's need such as slimming machines, sonar baths and latest clothes styles.

Although most of the patrons are women the two have cut hair for the Duke of Bedford, Lord Londonderry and David Bailey, one of the members of the famous musical group "Rolling Stones".

The Kennedy family often have their hair styled and cut when in London and Mr. Leonard is proud to have styled out Jacqueline Kennedy's hair. Other famous patrons include pop singers Sandy Shore and Sciler Black as well as Elizabeth Taylor and Lady Londonderry.

Styling by the two men is done to suit the individual's features and they always use scissors to cut. A large portion of the work done by Mr. Leonard is hair styling for fashion magazines and next week he leaves for India to fashion for American Vogue magazine.

Call for $95,600 Debenture Bids On $250,773 High School Addition

First step in paying for the $250,773 high school addition was taken at a special council meeting Tuesday evening when members approved calling bids on a debenture issue for $95,600 at a rate of six per cent interest.

Original estimates for the cost of the addition had totalled $285,000. Through a Federal-Provincial assistance program, the town can borrow $115,133, of which $38,732.25 is "forgiven". This leaves a balance of $116,349.75 which will be debentured by by-law through the Federal-Provincial program at a later date.

At a previous meeting ratepayers attended to object to the damage which they felt was being caused at their homes during blasting operations. The ratepayers made it clear to council at the time they were not attempting to curtail the operation of the quarry but were alarmed at the damage they argued was being caused by blasting.

One of the opinions of the dynamite could be lessened in each blast. Prior to the delegation appearing August 12, some members of council had visited several homes following blasts and soon cracks in plaster which homeowners stated were not there previously.

The delegates were told at the time council would take definite action and seek legal assistance. Committee members named to meet with company officials will hold meetings with the town solicitor to discuss the problem before meeting the company.

Included on the committee are Mayor Les Duby, Reeve H. H. Hinton and councillors Ray Arbc, Albert Irwin and Dr. F. G. Oakes. Council was also alarmed at possible damage which might be caused by underground services as a result of blasting.

Council to Meet Quarry Officials To Discuss Blasting Operations

Acton council Tuesday evening formed a committee to meet officials of Acton Limestone Quarries to discuss blasting operations following complaints from a recent delegation.

School Reunion

Former teachers and pupils of Greenock school have been invited back to the old school for a reunion on Saturday, September 4. Remember the date. Anecdotes are expected to highlight the afternoon program.

Other little red school houses in the area are expected to be registered (S. S. No. 8, Erin) one taught for a month in June, 1926.

Rev. John Waddie of London, a native Actonian, finished the term as supply teacher for the late Miss Maggie McDonald, who instructed township youngsters in the three R's from August 1904 to May 1926.

Greenock has gone the way of other little red school houses in the Acton district. Its bell tolled for classes, the last time in June when the doors closed on the final batch of scholars.

Erin township youngsters will be attending the new Central School in Ospringe under the supervision of principal Bruce Macpherson, a former Greenock teacher.

Teaching last term were Mrs. J. D. Dyer, Erin and Mrs. Bruce Wilkie (nee Gibb), married in July at living in Chilliwack, B.C.

Returns to Italy First in 45 Years

Retired from Beardmore and Co. Ltd. recently Severino Braida has had little time to tend to his garden or other chores around his home. He is acting as interpreter for Rockwood International Sales Ltd. at Georgetown, Ontario.

Mr. Braida expects to leave for his native Italy with company officials. This will be his first return trip since coming to Canada 45 years ago.

He will be a guest at the home of Italian cattle breeder A. Milan, who recently returned home after purchasing 500 head of choice cattle from Rockwood International.

In 1922 the groom started at Beardmore tannery and was employed there until his retirement in 1958. Both still enjoy good health. An avid Bingo fan, Mrs. Lazenby seldom misses Bingo games in the district but gave up her weekly appearance at the Le-

New Lawyer

C. F. Leatherland, O.C., announced the appointment this week of Bart J. Maydan, B.A., LL.B. to his law firm in Acton.

Mr. Maydan, formerly of Toronto, graduated and was called to the bar in Manitoba in 1957 and was called to the bar in Ontario in 1959. Since then, he worked in private practice for three years, after which he worked with the Farm Credit Corporation, Ontario Labor Relations Board and Industrial Development Bank.

He started his new duties in Acton Monday and is living at the home of Miss Emma Cole, Frederick St.

Argentina Visitor Guest At Rotary Club Work Bee

After spending the past four years in Fimat, Argentina, Gerry De Vries, a native of Amsterdam, Holland is enroute home. Tuesday night he was guest speaker at the Rotary club and showed colored slides of Argentina.

Mr. De Vries who has been in town the past three weeks visiting his brother Thom De Vries, worked for Nestle's Food Products as general production manager of the baby food division in Argentina. He noted that baby food in Argentina is much different than the product consumed here in Canada.

The guest speaker leaves Saturday for his homeland to visit parents and other relatives for a while. He would like to return to Canada with his wife and family to live and work as he thinks Canada is a fine place.

Rotary members met at the Scout Hall to continue their six week renovation program of the building. During the work parties, Rotarians don old clothes to paint and shingle the roof, foregoing their regular dinner meetings, members cook their own hot dogs or hamburgers right on the spot.

To date they have applied two coats of paint to the downstairs, painted trim and are presently engaged in re-shingling the roof. They also expect to construct a new ceiling in the kitchen area. This is the second year in a row the club has undertaken a work project at the Scout Hall.

Will YOU?

Cancer patients, in need of drives to Hamilton or Toronto for treatments or check-ups have had to be turned down by the Acton Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society, who right now are short of drivers.

Last year a total of 7,600 miles were covered between Hamilton and Toronto from Acton. In the past, volunteers have been available to take local patients, but presently there's been a shortage that has forced the local group to reduce their normal help to some cases.

"It's heart-breaking to turn someone down," said one of the concerned members who called the Free Press to ask for an appeal for drivers.

These drivers are paid; their expenses are simply covered. (The Branch also can pay bus fares.)

Sometimes patients must go to hospital each day for a certain length of time. The more drivers there are available, of course, the less time away for each individual volunteer.

Other patients just need to take one trip, for a regular check-up.

The fine work of the local group, undertaken without fanfare or publicity, has helped many in the past. If you drive, won't you please and say you'll help take patients to Toronto or Hamilton when you can? Ask about the expense involved.

For further information or an offer to help, please call Mrs. Ray Arbc 825-8944 or Mrs. M.M. Coats 825-2225.

The holiday season is just about over and most industries are back to a regular schedule. Of course, there are some out on strike.

Mayor Les Duby to Open Fair At Friday Night Performance

Acton Fall Fair is only 15 days away and directors have finalized plans for the Friday evening and all-day Saturday show.

Highlighting the Friday night show again this year will be the crowning of Miss Acton Fair. Entries are beginning to come in and committee members expect the largest number of entries to date before the contest closes.

Also on the evening program will be Cliff McKay and his variety all stars featuring comedian Jack McLean, dancer Zena Cheevers, ventriloquist Ted Rust, Jimmy Reynolds, Don Gordon and Reef McGarvey, musicians.

Mayor Les Duby will officially open the fair Friday evening show and welcome the audience to the 1965 fall fair. King Shows will provide the midway featuring many rides and refreshment booths and hall exhibits and commercial displays will be open for the public to view.

For the first time, a junior horse show will be held Saturday morning beginning at 10 a.m. This is a new class this year and the event is expected to draw a large number of entries.

Beginning at 1 p.m. a gigantic parade headed by the Royalaires Drum and Bugle band from Guelph will march through town to the park. Prizes will be given out for the best floats, best dressed float buggies, bicycles and tri-cycles. Acton Citizen's Band will also parade.

Another first for the Acton Fair will be a horseshoe pitching contest during the afternoon. The familiar soda cracker eating contest has been revived again this year and after an absence of several years a Baby Show will be held in the arena.

Vince Mountford will be on hand again this year as master of ceremonies to entertain the crowd with his wit and songs. The livestock show is expected to be the largest ever and the Fair Lady director's displays and commercial displays will have great interest to patrons.
