

Students for Milton School for Deaf Temporary Accommodation for Intermediates

The Acton Free Press, Thursday, September 2nd, 1965. The Milton School for Deaf, which is located in Milton, Ontario, is currently in the process of preparing temporary accommodations for its intermediate students. The school, which is a private institution, has been operating since 1911. It is a non-profit organization and is supported by the Ontario government. The school has a long history of providing education for deaf students. The current accommodations are being prepared in a building that was previously used for other purposes. The school is currently open for the school year. The accommodations are being prepared for the intermediate students. The school is currently open for the school year. The accommodations are being prepared for the intermediate students.

Another new staff member is Miss Mary W. Monette of West Hill, who will be assistant to Miss J. Fox in the pre-school teaching program. She has been doing pre-school work in public schools in Ontario. Superintendent D. E. Kennedy noted the pre-school work is increasing and there is a possibility of setting up a regular clinic for about 12 pre-schoolers in Kitchener, similar to one presently conducted at the Milton school. Parents and children are visited in the home, but where there is a concentration of deaf children in one area the school is empowered to set up a regular clinic for group work. Their program this year includes about 40 to 45 children. All of the new teachers, with the exception of one took 17-month courses at O.E.D. Belleville. This course, coupled with two years of classroom teaching and in-service training, leads to a specialist's certificate in teaching deaf children. Teacher Gary Busch has been named acting supervising teacher of the Intermediate School. His teachers will be Miss J. Bell, J. Etherington, V. Heaps and Nick Onychuk. Junior School Staff Teachers in the 25 Junior School classrooms will be M. Boyler, Mrs. J. Foley, Mrs. M. Elliot, Mrs. A.

15 Local Delegates Attend Jehovah's Witness Assembly

Acton was represented by 15 local delegates who attended the Sunday "Word of Truth" assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses at London's Western Fairgrounds, August 30 to 31. Mr. Schneider, presiding minister of the Acton congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses said the assembly had a record crowd of 14,000 persons. The focal point of the assembly was the Bible discourse on Sunday at 3 p.m. when Leo E. Greenlee, Canadian director of Jehovah's Witnesses, spoke on the subject "World Government on the Shoulder of the Prince of Peace". Mr. Greenlee told the large gathering, "World government for all mankind will mean only one supreme government over all the earth. It will be a symbol of the oneness of all the people in peaceful human brotherhood."

Mr. Schneider revealed that during the course of the assembly 27 different speakers appealed to reason and intellect, not emotions as is usual in religious rallies. All put the spotlight on God's Word of the Bible to enable the delegates to enhance their understanding of the Scriptures as well as strengthen their faith. Practical counsel for everyday living was discussed in detail. Parents and managers were reminded of their individual moral responsibilities especially now in this world of moral decay. New Bible References On the opening day conventioners enthusiastically applauded the release of a new 512-page Bible reference manual, "Make Sure of All Things - Hold Fast to What Is True." Practical utilization of scriptures and historical facts arranged under 123 main subject headings was demonstrated to the audience. The witnesses were told that the majority of Bible questions they encounter in their ministry could be answered by skillful use of the new book. "The convention also marked a new innovation in the teaching work of Jehovah's Witnesses," Mr. Schneider said. Since the release of the book "Let God be True" in 1946 its circulation has exceeded 194 million making it the world's second best seller, only being exceeded by the Holy Bible. With its use hundreds of thousands have been assisted to an accurate knowledge of the Word of Truth. The Saturday afternoon audience was, however, encouraged to begin immediate study of the new Bible study aid "Things In Which It Is Impossible For God to Lie". Sufficient copies were made available for all in attendance to begin immediate circulation of the publication upon their return home.

Fall Fair Dates

ACTON	Sept. 17, 18
Ancaster	Sept. 23, 24, 25
Arthur	Sept. 22, 23
Barrie	Sept. 29, 30, Oct. 1, 2
Bramsville	Sept. 9, 10, 11
Boston	Sept. 22, 23
Blairbrook	Sept. 17, 18
Bloxton	Sept. 24, 25
Brampton	Sept. 16, 17, 18
Caledon	Sept. 10, 11
Caledonia	Sept. 30, Oct. 1, 2
Chesley	Sept. 10, 11
Collingwood	Sept. 23, 24, 25
Drayton	Sept. 18 and 20
Durham	Sept. 24, 25
Elmira	Sept. 2, 4 and 6
Embro	Sept. 18 and 20
Erin	Oct. 9 and 11
Fergus	Sept. 17, 18
Galt	Sept. 9, 10, 11
Georgetown	Oct. 1, 2
Grand Valley	Oct. 1, 2
Hanover	Sept. 2, 3, 4
Harriston	Sept. 15, 16
Kincardine	Sept. 16, 17
Kitchener	Sept. 27 to Oct. 2
Lindsay	Sept. 2 to 25
Listowel	Sept. 7, 8
London	Sept. 10 to 18
Markdale	Sept. 16, 17
Markham	Sept. 30, Oct. 1, 2
MILTON	Sept. 24, 25
Mitchell	Sept. 24, 25
New Hamburg	Sept. 17, 18
Orangeville	Sept. 21, 22
Windsor	Oct. 25 to 30
Owen Sound	Oct. 6 to 9
Palmerston	Sept. 27, 28
Ridgton	Oct. 9 and 11
Shelburne	Sept. 24, 25
Stratford	Sept. 20, 21, 22
Tobewater	Sept. 24, 25
Royal	Nov. 12 to 29
Uxbridge	Sept. 21, 22
Walkerton	Oct. 20, 21
Wassonville	Sept. 18, 11
Welland	Sept. 14 to 18
Woodbridge	Oct. 8, 9 and 11
Int. Flowering Match	Oct. 13 to 16

Acton 4-H Grain Club Meet at Maplewood Farm

The members of the Acton 4-H Grain Club met at Maplewood Farm, R.R. 3, Acton, August 26 when Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Aitken played host for their fifth monthly meeting. Familiar Bits In his introduction of the host, club leader Nino Braida told the members that Maplewood Farm has been the site of many 4-H meetings during the past 10 years and expressed appreciation for the untiring support given to 4-H by Mr. Aitken and the members of his family. President Bruce Coles opened the meeting by leading the members in the recitation of the 4-H pledge and conducted the business portion. Secretary Bob Leslie read the minutes and called the roll. The instruction period consisted of a review of the material covered during the project in preparation for Quiz night on Sept. 8 which included discussion on the many phases of crop production. Summer assistant Bill Sinclair offered the members several constructive criticisms on their barley plots which he recently scored and briefed them on the preparation of their grain sample for Achievement Day. Judge Crops The members judged a class of seed oats and seed barley and oral reasons on their placings were scored. Mr. Braida advised the group that judging grain or livestock has a three-fold purpose: to give the exhibitor an appreciation of good seed stock, to sharpen their powers to observe and make quick, intelligent decisions on an extended period of Bible study with Jehovah's Witnesses. Onlookers were particularly impressed with the orderliness of the entire convention. Outstanding was the good behavior of the grandstand, six meals in the same cafeteria with whites and volunteered their services throughout 22 convention departments. Mr. Greenlee concluded the convention by asking all delegates to apply the counsel received during the four days of assembly. The audience was urged to make it apparent that all Jehovah's Witnesses are living God's Word of Truth.

Halton Princess Out in Preliminary

Halton's hopes of cashing in on the Ontario Dairy Princess title for 1965 were dashed last week as Halton's Princess Miss Margaret Hunter from Burlington lost out in the preliminary round. Competing against four other girls in one section of the Canadian National Exhibition preliminaries, she lost to a girl from Glangary County. Miss Hunter retains her Halton title for a year. She was awarded a $10 consolation prize and a maple leaf sash pin after last week's defeat.

Carbon Tetrachloride Digging Hazard

Do you know that the wires connected to your telephone may be buried in your yard? Your planting or fence building chores can not only result in a sore back but also cut off your phone service. If you want to play it safe, call the telephone company. They can't help much when it comes to aching muscles but they will show you where the wires are in your yard . . . and they do it for free. Just dial "114" and ask for Cable Locating Service. If there are wires under your lot they'll tell you. They'll also send a man out to your home to mark the location.

Buried Cables Digging Hazard

Do you know that the wires connected to your telephone may be buried in your yard? Your planting or fence building chores can not only result in a sore back but also cut off your phone service. If you want to play it safe, call the telephone company. They can't help much when it comes to aching muscles but they will show you where the wires are in your yard . . . and they do it for free. Just dial "114" and ask for Cable Locating Service. If there are wires under your lot they'll tell you. They'll also send a man out to your home to mark the location.

William Lyon Mackenzie's Paper Gives Political Story of 1860's

An old newspaper conjures up memories of times past, and an 1860 paper found by Ben Crisell of Milton is a glowing example. The paper, the Toronto Weekly Publisher, was edited by William Lyon Mackenzie, irregularly from 1833 to 1860. The issue found by Mr. Crisell carried a publishing date of January 7, 1860, and turned up 105 years later during some house renovations.

He also quoted the Montreal Manifesto for a Federal Union with the United States. "The bitter animosities of political parties and factions in Canada, often leading to violence and upon occasion to civil war, seem not to have abated with time; nor is there at the present moment, any prospect of diminution or accommodation. The aspect of parties becomes daily more threatening to each other and under the institutions and relations, little hope is discerned of a peaceful and prosperous administration of our affairs."

The six pages of the January 7 issue found by Mr. Crisell seem to represent a large paper with pages numbered 7 to 54. Each page carries two columns, for example pages 7 and 8 are actually one 9 by 4 inch or leaf-size page. Dates on news carried in the paper vary from 1849 to 1859.

McKenzie had been one of the three rebel leaders of the abortive 1837 Upper Canada Rebellion. He escaped to the United States and captured Navy Island in the Niagara River. Eventually he was caught and sentenced to 18 months in jail. However the Amnesty Act of 1849 freed him and he returned to Canadian politics.

Wayne Fox returns as Dean of Residence and Miss A. Blokland and Mrs. E. Braman will be supervising residence counsellors.

Residence counsellors are D. Brunetta, L. Gordon, Miss E. Hay, Mrs. K. Hunter, Miss D. Kowalski, Miss E. King, Miss C. Poggiani, Miss M. Vanstaalduin, Miss D. Walker in the boys' residence Miss G. Andison, Miss M. Coxe, Mrs. M. Deboer, Miss S. Forde, Miss J. Hulls, Mrs. L. Innes, Miss D. King, Mrs. R. McDonald and Miss J. Thompson in the girls' residence.

A. P. Fisher will be acting supervisor at the intermediate boys' residence assisted by G. Baird and T. Nye. Mrs. M. Elford is acting supervisor in the intermediate girls' residence with Mrs. M. Elliott, Miss B. Marshand, Miss W. Vandenberg assisting.

Supply counsellors are Mrs. C. Boyer, Mrs. M. Bundy, Mrs. B. Cross, Mrs. L. Hinchcliffe, Mrs. A. Hornell, Mrs. D. Jervis, Mrs. E. Joyce and Mrs. M. Scott.

During the 1837 Rebellion he was supported by John Stewart of the Scotch Block. Esquimaux Stewart had brought Mackenzie to Halton to speak previously. It is rumored that Mackenzie hid in caves south of Milton before he escaped to the United States. Stewart himself was caught and sentenced to life imprisonment in the penal colony in Tasmania. However he escaped from Fort Henry in Kingston where he was sent to await passage to Tasmania. He returned to the Scotch Block and continued farming until the end of the century.

Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

The main political question of Mackenzie's Toronto Weekly Publisher of 1860 indicates that Mackenzie was still involved in the politics of Canada. He said "Altho' often compelled to speak with severity of the class rulers of my native island, and their agents here, I have ever been true to the people. The Government may censure me but the British emigrant never can. To my pecuniary loss I shall continue to persevere in stating the truth in public affairs; in the hope that even my humble efforts may do some little towards making Canada the abode of happy millions when I have been forgotten."

TRAIN TO TORONTO

Ask about convenient departure and return times

FROM ACTON $1.65 ONE WAY WHITE HARE BLUE HARE $1.75

For information, phone the local CN Passenger Sales Office

Forever Yours

Present a distinctive line of Wedding Invitations

Let us assist you with your plans for that all important wedding day.

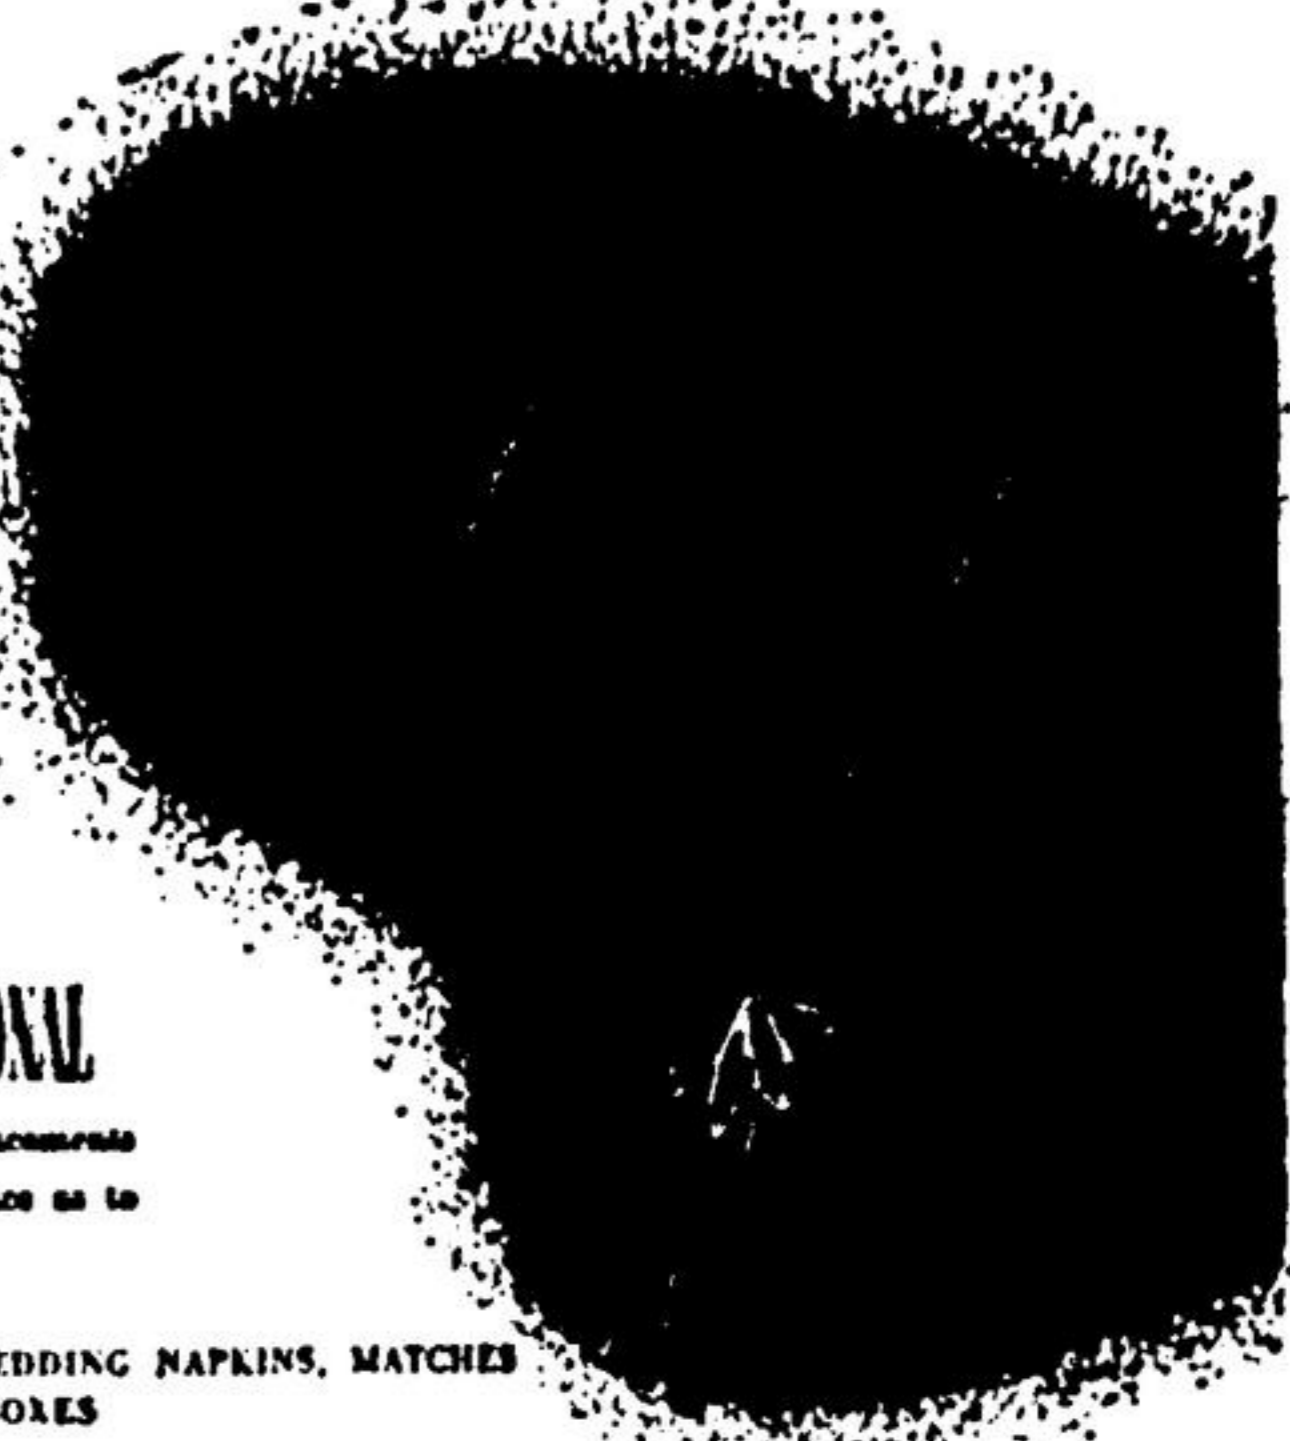

COME IN AND SEE OUR COMPLETE SELECTION OF

- INVITATIONS
- ANNOUNCEMENTS
- INFORMALS
- ACCESSORIES

Your choice of various paper stocks, type styles and sizes.

Select your wedding invitations, announcements and accessories with complete confidence as to quality and correctness of form.

WE ALSO HAVE PERSONALIZED WEDDING NAPKINS, MATCHES AND CAKE BOXES

DILLS STATIONERY

36 MILL ST. E. - ACTON TEL. 853-3650

It's Go - Go - . . . Back to School

But first a trip to Nielsen's Clothing for a school approved outfit, specially designed for you and incorporating styles used at Colleges all over this continent!

CARDIGAN PATCH POCKETS, CUSTOM MADE FOR Acton High

BOYS' AND GIRLS' ORLON or WOOL WORSTED	$7.98
STRIPED SHIRTS - ROLL-UP SLEEVE	$3.98
WHITE SHIRT - LONG SLEEVE	$3.98
WOOL WORSTED SKIRT - Petite and Regular - Box Pleated	$12.98
TERYLINNE & VISCOSE Wash and Wear - Box Pleated	$10.98
TERYLINNE & WOOL SKIRT - Wash and Wear	$11.98
THIS - SLIMS - PROM	$12.98
RED BLAZER - PROM	$29.98 - $39.98

All sizes from 5 - 20 in stock. If you have a problem in fit we will make your skirt up special for you at no extra cost.

CARDIGAN PATCH POCKETS, CUSTOM MADE FOR Acton High

BOYS & GIRLS ORLON OR WOOL WORSTED	$7.98
55% POLYESTER & 45% ACRYLIC WASH & WEAR PANTS - Continental Super Slim Size 10 - 18	$4.98
AMN'S SIZE 30 - 40 AS ABOVE	$7.98
ACRYLAM PANTS - WEAR DATED	$10.98
WOOL BLEND CONTINENTAL	$8.98
STRIPED OR WHITE - Tab Collar DRESS SHIRT - 14 - 16 1/2	$3.98
BLACK BLAZERS, With or Without Collars - From $16.98 - $29.98
THIS - SLIMS - READY-TO-WEAR	$11.98
GYM SHORTS	$7.98
GYM SQU.	$12.25
GYM JOCKS	$12.25
GYM T-SHIRTS	$11.00

PAUL NIELSEN'S CLOTHING

37-39 MILL ST. E. - Acton, Ont. Phone 853-2280

For Quality, Service and Satisfaction,
PLUS the Very Best in Meats

STAN'S MEATS

7 MILL STREET, ACTON DIAL 853-0180

It's "Back-to-School" Time Again!

... and may we suggest . . .

Start your children's school year off right . . . with an exciting new hair cut.

Trust to us to shape and cut their hair in a most becoming style.

Norm's

6 MILL ST. E. ACTON, ONT.

