Church Services Provided Residents

The first church service in August was provided for the residents, as had been the case with the July services, through the kindness of the Oakville-Milton Camp of Goodness International. The service took place on Sunday afternoon, August 1. The minister in charge was Rev. M. Christensen, minister of the Highway Gospel Church in Milton. Mrs. B. Crawford was the organist.

After the singing of several familiar hymns, Mr. Christensen delivered an appropriate and inspiring sermon based on Psalm 1, which he had read as the Scripture lesson.

Having explained that Psalm 1 is one of the Psalms of David, Mr. Christensen said that this entire Psalm is a contrast between the righteous and the wicked. As we communicate with God, we flourish and bring forth fruits of the spirit. This makes us a blessing to the world and to humanity in general.

During the service, Mrs. Crawford played a lovely organ solo, the hymn "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go".

Rev. M. Christensen came again to the Manor to deliver another rewarding sermon on Sunday afternoon, August 8. He brought with him four young ladies and one gentleman to provide the musical part of the service. Mrs. B. Crawford was the organist and Misses Ben Crawford, Mrs. Peter Crawford, Miss Carol Tippett and Peter Crawford sang as a quartet. Their lovely vocal number was "Glean Me, O Lord".

Miss Tippett, who is a Bible College student, read Psalm 42 as the Scripture lesson.

Mr. Christensen's sermon was based on verse 10, chapter 41, of Isaiah. He began with the words, "Fear thou not, for I am with thee," Mr. Christensen related the story of Elshah and the Assyrians as an example of God's help for those who call on Him.

Mr. Christensen connected the help that God gives to all Christians who seek it with the lives of the residents of the Manor, for God says to all of us, "Fear not." When we have faith in God, we lose our worries and become contented with our lot in life.

The residents are grateful to Iain Sillers of R. R. 6, Milton, for the donation of three hamsters of fresh beans for their meals.

It was a pleasure to welcome back to the church service on Sunday afternoon, August 15, several members of the Christian Missionary Alliance Church in Burlington. Pastor John A. Robb conducted the service and Webb Twinn was the organist. Mr. and Mrs. N. Johnston sang two fine duets, "Heaven Came Down" and "Why Did God Send Him".

Pastor Robb's Scripture lesson was Psalm 46. His sermon dealt with this Psalm. Having described this Psalm as one of the four best known of all the Psalms, Mr. Robb said that its teaching comes under three headings. Verses 1-3 describe God's power, verses 4-7 His presence, and verses 8-11 His peace.

Speaking of God's power, Mr. Robb said that it was available and accessible. Then speaking of God's presence, he said that it was assured for us in the words, "The Lord of Hosts is with us." Lastly, amid all the activities that our modern lives require of us, we can be still and know the peace that God gives us.

Once again the rose was the honored flower at the August birthday party held in the auditorium of the Manor on Wednesday afternoon, August 18.
