

Hold "Grandmothers" Program For September Institute Meet

Mrs. William Webb was hostess to the September meeting of the Campbellville Women's Institute on Wednesday evening when Mrs. John Wheelihan presided and opened with a poem, "What is a Mother," followed by the singing of the Institute Ode and repeating the Mary Stewart Collect in unison. The roll call was answered by 20 ladies naming the school their grandmother attended.

Mrs. Omar VanSickle gave the secretary-treasurer's report. Mrs. Lloyd Crawford and Mrs. George Inglis the cheer report, and Save the Children report of 20 boxes of clothing being accepted at Barbados, West Indies. Anyone interested from the community is asked to donate 25 cents a family per week for the month of November to the Mysore project for the preservation and serving of food in India.

Jams and jellies are asked for to be donated to the Milton District Hospital Auxiliary tea to be held on Saturday, September 11, at the residence of Mrs. Carl Martin. Donations are to be given to Mrs. J. Wheelihan, Mrs. Robert Elliott or Mrs. Omar VanSickle.

Mrs. Lloyd Crawford then took the chair for the "Grandmothers' blitz," and each member named something grandmother didn't have that we have. Mrs. J. K. Mahon gave current events. Mrs. Roy Parker conducted a panel discussion, with Mrs. Vera Cockram and Mrs. A. Peterson speaking on Education and short cuts in the home and buggy days.

Atomic Age
Mrs. Reginald Austen and Mrs. Lenard Andrews spoke on the new developments of the atomic age and its educational system. An open discussion followed. Mrs. L. Crawford then conducted the broom dance which was won by Mrs. Reginald Austen.

Mrs. Stewart Cramp will host the October meeting and Mrs. J. K. Mahon and Mrs. A. Y. Moore will convene the Historical Research and Current Events meeting.

Mrs. Wheelihan then thanked all those who took part in the meeting and the hostess. All joined in singing the Queen and WI

Grace and a social half hour followed.

Social Notes
Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace and family of Holt, Michigan, returned Misses Anne Wheelihan and Bonnie Inglis after a week's vacation, and spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Wheelihan.

Guests at the Quinlan Webb wedding at Newman Chapel, University of Toronto, last Saturday were Mrs. F. Wheelihan, Mrs. F. Quintan, Mrs. G. Paupst and Mr. and Mrs. J. Wheelihan.

Many from here attended the Steam Reunion in Milton last weekend, which was a huge success for the town and surrounding district.

School has resumed for the 1965-66 school year and enrollment is greater than any year yet in Nassagaweya township.

Bus Trip
The Women's Association of St. David's Presbyterian Church sponsored a bus trip for interested ladies last Wednesday to Kitchener.

IT'S BACK TO SCHOOL this week and Tuesday morning four high school students took time to scan the allocation list before heading for classes. Left to right are Harvey Taylor, Craig Perkins, Chris Kranendonk and Ken Owen. Many of the high school students wore the new uniform type of wearing apparel.

The lawn bowling season at Rockwood, where Acton players are welcome, was hampered by the cool weather.

Lakeside chapter of the I.O. D.E. will be meeting Thursday rather than Tuesdays, now.

There'll be many high school graduates in universities this fall. Please let us know the name of any who have been missed in the past few weeks.

Rotarians had another work bee at the scout hall Tuesday.

Date of the election was announced Tuesday... and Wednesday morning, M.P. Dr. Harry Harley was in town making arrangements.

Church services will resume their normal schedules. Changes are noted in the church notices.

Our newswoman to school asked what happened on the first day in kindergarten, admitted with a big smile, "I cried."

Many group meetings are being held this week. Be sure your club reports to the Free Press.

I.G.A. store is pleased with the numbers of people taking advantage of Thursday evening open shopping hours.

The classified page is usually full this week. There are several auction sales coming up.

A parks board has just been organized in Milton. One of the board's hopes is that one day, they might be able to have a full time director of recreation. And Acton, a smaller town, has both. Former Actonian Jim Dells is on the board, so knows what can be done.

The urban board is planning a combine ladies night and tour of Kitchener conservation area soon.

The high school students who are wearing the new uniform-type dress look very smart indeed.

Whatever happened to summer?

Milton county museum has received quite a few fine articles for display from Acton donors this summer. Among them is a sampler made by an eight-year-old girl in 1841; it's highly prized by museum director Major Newman.

The past season brought two new parks to the Acton area - Silver Spur ranch and Ross Lake. Actonians were among the many curious visitors to the interesting developments, although it wasn't a good summer for picnics.

A history of Greenock school, as read at the reunion there on Saturday, will be published in the Free Press next week.

Mrs. Campbell Winn Hostess to Institute

Acton Women's Institute held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Campbell Winn on September 1 with the president, Mrs. Roy Lindsay, in the chair. Roll call was a household chore I dislike doing.

The Institute presented Mr. and Mrs. George Lazenby with a paid blanket in honor of their 50th golden wedding on September 1.

Resolutions for the Convention being held at the O.A.C. on October 12-13 were read. John Hatch has rented the institute booth for the two days of the Fall Fair for $15.

A letter was sent to Miss Mary Hall from all the members wishing her a speedy recovery. The Institute sponsors were sold to members at $1 each. A baking sale and articles of aprons will be held at Simpsons Sears on October 1 at 2 p.m.

An auction sale will be held at the next meeting at Mrs. George Fryer's. Mrs. Mary Graham told about a firm in New Zealand and the production of butter and skim milk powder. Mrs. Davidson, Historical Research, described the Peace Gardens which have had 50,000 people visit the rose gardens and the new airstrip.

Miss Nora Kenney on Safety said that the parents can set the example of safety for their children by being careful themselves.

Mrs. Lambert on home economics said the Institute now have a membership of 50,000. Mrs. Anderson was to make arrangements for the Parish Hall

Collect Coppers
The Mental Health bags were collected from members saving coppers during the summer.

Delegates to the Area Convention to be held at the University of Guelph, October 12-13 will be Mrs. William Webb, Mrs. Reginald Austen, Mrs. Lloyd Crawford and Mrs. Roy Parker.

The final revenue from the last bake sale was $16.10.

It was decided to foster Kim Kong, the foster child with birthday and Christmas all included at $65.00 for another year. Tickets were sold to the Lucky Luncheon for $1.00. It is to be held November 3 at the Legion room in Milton.

Mrs. John Wheelihan reported held at the University of Guelph last May. Anyone interested in the farm beautification contest is asked to contact Mrs. J. Wheelihan.

Fair Display
Plans were made for the show-er display at the Milton Fair, with Mrs. Alfred Peterson and Mrs. Howson Lush in charge.

COFFEE AND PENNY SALE
for the eucry and penny sale in January.

Mrs. Lambert took over the program in a contest of funny sayings read by each member which were very humorous.

A game of know your numbers was won by Mrs. Mary Graham. A reading on registration day followed. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer and Grace.

A dainty lunch was served by conveners Mrs. Wilderspin, Mrs. Fryer, Mrs. Graham and Miss Kenney. A vote of thanks was given by Mrs. Roy Lindsay.

SLOPPY JOB

Fred was ordering a suit from Jack, and Jack told him it would be ready in four weeks.

"Four weeks," cried Fred, "why, the whole world was created in six days."

"True," said Jack, "but have you taken a look at it lately?"

Gordon Sinclair

"KEEP INFORMED..."

Some people disagree with "Sin," not many miss his tone daily against an injustice, hypocrisy and anything else that comes into the line of his nose. Sinclair calls 'em as he sees 'em and if you see 'em on... well, that's Sin. The comment you hear most about Sinclair is "I can't stand to miss his broadcast. I wonder how he's going to do next." He's heard at 11:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. (on 10 year's time) - and with his "Let's Be Personal" at 11:45 a.m. and "Show Business" at 5:45 p.m.
