

LEGION NOTES FOR BRANCH 197

By George Ware

As we now swing into the busier part of our season at the branch it's now possible to make a few weekly reports on the happenings in the club rooms.

The first and most important item on the agenda this week is the Red Cross blood clinic today (Thursday) in the auditorium.

The clinic is open in the afternoon from 2.00 to 4.30 p.m. and from 6.30 to 9.00 p.m. in the evening. This is a very worthy cause and it is hoped that you all realize the importance of having a good clinic. To make it good we need plenty of donors and remember each pint of blood may be a lifesaver! See you there!

This Friday evening four couples from the Acton branch will attend the Brampton Legion for the presentation of the charter to the newest branch in our zone, Branch 609, Bramalea. This will be a gala evening for all concerned and we wish the new branch all the success in their coming years.

A donation of $10.00 from the Acton branch was given to Zone B7 for the assistance in purchasing gavel, colors, etc. for Branch 609, Bramalea.

Friday night, September 24 will be the 20th anniversary of the Ladies' Auxiliary of our branch and a dinner and dance will be held in the auditorium. The men of the branch will serve dinner for the ladies.

Congratulations are due to the ladies on arriving at this milestone and for the terrific help they have provided the branch over the years.

The entertainment chairman has asked us to remind the general membership to keep the date of Friday, October 8 open so you can make arrangements to attend the combined Corn Roast and Saddle Hawkins dance in the auditorium.

It was decided at the last executive meeting that we try running these two nights as one big gala evening and make it as a hard times corn roast. We hope you will enjoy this new twist in club entertainment.

Admission for the evening will be $2.00 per couple with those in costume getting in for half price of $1.00.

Friday night cubs will commence on Friday, September 24. The steaks will be as big or bigger than last year, so come out and make a try for the meat. The bologna will be in attendance also.

At the general meeting Monday the decision was made, after considerable discussion, that after the election of officers in December and installation in January, these officers would continue in office for 18 months, until June 30, 1965 when the new officers elected in May and installed in June will take over. From this time forth all elections will

Guides Receive First Aid Awards At St. John Night in Auditorium

First aid awards to Girl Guides were presented Monday evening at "St. John Night" in the public school auditorium.

Robert Hart, Corps Officer, was Master of Ceremonies. He called upon Divisional Superintendent G. Hargrave to lead in prayer.

Mr. Hart introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Dr. Kingscott, who presented those present with an interesting, illustrated talk on "The Adventures of Spirit Valley". Divisional Officer Fred Cooley of Georgetown thanked the speaker.

The 1st Acton Girl Guide Company was presented with their first aid awards by Mrs. Manning, Superintendent of Nurses of Georgetown Hospital, assisted by Mrs. Hills, Guide Commissioner of Halton County. Those who received their certificates were Mrs. Ganger, Mrs. Lowrie, Nellie Van der Kooy, Margaret Slaven, JoAnne Pavli, Kathy Papillon, Linda Rose, Kathy Pevcha, Nancy McCutcheon, Carole McCutcheon, Beverly Norton, Mary Frances Marcoux, Susan Marchmont, Judy Lang, Bonnie Lang, Marie Holmes, Sharon Gordon, Betty Ganger, Mary Truher, Janis Franklin, Sonia Daigle, Judy Cameron, Karen Ashley, Kathy Ashley, Ellen Wissenz, Ann Watson.

A lot of folks would think they were getting ahead, if they could stay even.

Mrs. Manning congratulated the girls, followed by a few words to the group by Corps Cadet Officer, Mrs. Smuck. Mrs. Roughley, who is a nursing officer in the past for Acton Brigade, was presented with her medallion by Mrs. Crispo, and later Mrs. Hargrave, Cadet Superintendent, presented Mrs. Roughley with a brooch on behalf of the Cadets.

Mr. Hart made acknowledgements to the Girl Guides of Acton, the Acton School Board for their cooperation, the Red Cross of Georgetown, along with parents and friends.

CARE OF BULBS

Your spring flowering bulbs haven't been giving the large blooms you expect, then now is the time to do something about it. The bulbs should be divided and planted out separately to reduce competition next spring. It would also be a good idea to incorporate some organic matter and/or fertilizer into the soil at this time.

Divisional Superintendent G. Hargrave made several announcements to the brigade, and also announced to the public the start of a Senior First Aid Course, which will be starting on September 27.

The 77 people present were served a delicious luncheon by the Jades of the Brigade. Mrs. Roughley played the Queen at the close of the evening's activities.

DONNA KINGSBURY and Gary Bateman were married in Everton Christian Church. Both are public school teachers.

School Teachers Wed At Everton on August 7

Two public school teachers were married at Everton Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) Saturday afternoon, August 7, when Donna May Kingsbury became the bride of Gary Wayne Bateman. The bride and groom were both former Acton teachers. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kingsbury, R.R. 1, Acton, is now with the North York Board of Education and the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Bateman, 35 Caledonia St., Stratford, is now with the Etobicoke Board of Education.

The Rev. R. Legge officiated at the double-ring ceremony and Mrs. Norman McKenzie was organist. The church was decorated with white shasta daisies and pink gladiolus.

Soloist Brian Crabb sang For You Alone, The Lord's Prayer and I Love Thee.

Gifts of Groom

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white peau de soie with Empire waistline and a chapel train. A wedding ring headpiece held her chapel length lace veil. Her pearl necklace and earrings were the gift of the groom. She carried pink roses and snowdrift mums.

Trousseau Tea Showers Held

Blue carnations and white shasta daisies graced the lace-covered tea table as Mrs. Alex Kingsbury, R.R. 1, Acton, entertained for her daughter Donna May who was married to Gary Wayne Bateman, August 7.

Pouring tea at the trousseau were Mrs. Clifford McDougall, Mrs. Wilbert Brieve, Mrs. Duncan Kingsbury and Mrs. Norman McKenzie. Miss Marilyn Kingsbury, maid of honor, showed the wedding gifts and Miss Florence McDougall, bridesmaid, and Miss Catherine Kingsbury, (in absence of Miss Joan Bateman, bridesmaid) showed the trousseau. The groom's mother Mrs. Orval Bateman of Stratford and the bride's grandmother Mrs. Robert Kingsbury, Rockwood, assisted the hostess in receiving the guests.

Girl friends of the bride showered her with lovely jugs and cups and saucers at the home of the bride's aunt Mrs. Clifford McDougall, Rockwood. Hostesses for the evening were Miss Florence McDougall and Miss Marilyn Kingsbury.

Mrs. Orval Bateman and daughter Joan, Stratford, mother and sister of the groom held a miscellaneous shower for the bride-to-be with many friends and relatives attending.

Mrs. Clifford McDougall, aunt of the bride, surprised the guest of honor with a miscellaneous shower of gifts from relatives and the ladies of the Everton Christian Church were also hostesses at a miscellaneous shower.

Presentations were made by the groom's school staff, the bride's school staff and the Everton Christian Church congregation.

The Canada Pension Plan and its benefits

Here is what the Canada Pension Plan will do for people like Joe Costello; a 52-year-old unmarried labourer who earns $50 a week.

If Joe continues to work full time until age 65 he can look forward to retiring with a monthly pension of $54.16 from the Canada Pension Plan and $75 from Old Age Security—a total of $129.16. That's almost 60% of what he was earning.

If he is ill or out of work for as long as two years, or if his earnings for a period of up to two years are below his regular wage, he will receive the same pension at age 65. This is because under the Plan a certain number of months of low or no earnings do not affect the amount of the pension.

If Joe wishes to continue working between 65 and 70 and earns higher wages than previously he can improve his pension. For example, if he works until age 69 and earns $3,600 a year, his pension will be $61.74 a month instead of $54.16.

If Joe becomes disabled after 1970, having contributed for at least 5 years, he will get a disability pension of $65.62 a month until he gets both his retirement and Old Age Security pensions at age 65.

All benefits under the Plan will maintain their value. The actual benefits payable will probably be higher than those given here since benefits will be adjusted to meet changes in living costs and in wage levels before they are paid and changes in living costs after they become payable.

What will the Plan cost you?

If you, like Joe Costello, are employed and have earnings of $2,600 spread evenly over the year, you will pay at the rate of 69¢ a week. Your employer will pay the same amount.

This advertisement is one of a series which relates some of the important benefits of the Canada Pension Plan to individual circumstances.
