

Life Membership To Mrs. N. McLean

The Eden Mills Women's Institute monthly meeting was held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. Gilbertson as hostess.

Opening with a poem followed by the Mary Stewart Collect and Institute Ode, Mrs. Nora McLean was called forward by the president Mrs. R. Roy and received a surprise when she was presented with a Life Membership pin. Mrs. J. Gilbertson made the presentation.

Mrs. McLean thanked the ladies and said she would be proud to wear the Life Membership pin. The articles brought were auctioned off realizing a tidy sum for the flower fund. A current event was also given by each member. A reading "The World is Mine" was given by Mrs. J. Hamer and Mrs. R. Wright read an article on "Wife Price too High for Bachelors".

A contest was won by Mrs. H. Gilbertson. The articles brought were auctioned off realizing a tidy sum for the flower fund.

A bus trip has been planned from Eden Mills to attend Toronto Winter Fair and the gentlemen are invited. A social half hour followed.

We are proud of Miss Aloise Watson, a local girl, who has won three scholarships and is attending the Hamilton Teachers' College. The awards were South Wellington 4-H scholarships; Federated Women's Teacher's Association bursary; and Dominion Provincial bursary.

Elect Officers At 4-H Meeting

The first meeting of the fall season of the 4-H Homemaking club was held at Mrs. G. Henderson's on Saturday, Sept. 18 with a good attendance. The new officers are as follows:

President, Mary Lou Brown; vice-president, Willy Post; secretary, Eleanor Karm; treasurer, Diane Baxter; press reporter, Laura Henderson; telephone convener, Janet Henderson; Marjot Ruddell; attendance recorder, Sheila Campbell; courtesy conveners, Irene Kier, Linda Tjart, Kathy Tjart, Sandra Tjart, Joyce Graham, Jo-Ann McKeown.

The theme this fall is wool and the members are making skirts or jumpers.

To Be Demonstrated October 2 is going to be a rare treat as the girls are going to visit and see Mrs. Hoey carding and spinning wool from her own sheep.

Mrs. Henderson discussed 'wool the fibre' and 'wool the fabric'. Mrs. Marchington showed the girls how to test if the fabric is all wool or what per cent, first by burning a fibre, second by boiling a sample in lye and water.

The meeting closed with lunch. The Silverwood residents won many points at the flower show Wednesday evening, September 15 at Knox church. This is the fall show of Georgetown Horticultural Society.

Mrs. D. Smith

Lillian Howard, beloved wife of Dan Smith of R.R. 3, Campbellville, and a resident of the Campbellville area most of her life, passed away suddenly at her residence on September 2, 1965, in her 69th year.

Mrs. Smith was a former member of Kilbride Women's Institute, a member of Kilbride United Church Women, and a past president of Capreol Rebekah Lodge. She took a great delight in her flowers and garden, and in doing many small things for others, looking for nothing in return. She was an ardent baseball fan.

Surviving are her husband Dan, one son Norman Smith of R.R. 3, Campbellville, and four grandchildren Peggy Anne, Brian, Danny and Linda Smith.

Surviving brothers and sisters are Mrs. William Miller (Elizabeth) of Williamstown, W. Virginia, Mrs. Joseph McLean (Daisy) of Milton; Nelson Howard, R.R. 2 Campbellville; Matthew Howard, R.R. 3, Campbellville; Thomas Howard of Galt; Robert Howard of Clifton Forge, W. Virginia; David Howard of R.R. 2, Campbellville; and Brock Howard of R.R. 2, Hamilton.

She was predeceased by eight sisters and brothers, Mrs. Jack Ingles (Mary) of Moffat, Mrs. Clarence Hill (Annie) of Milton, Jack of Campbellville, Timothy of Toronto, Edward of Neopawa, Man, William of Acton, Wilfred and Dennis of Campbellville.

Born at R.R. 1 Campbellville in 1896, she had lived at her present home for 49 years.

Funeral services were held at the Kitching Funeral Home, Waterloo, on Sept. 4 with Rev. C. Wragg of Kilbride United Church conducting, assisted by Rev. W. Miller and Rev. L. Howard. Interment followed at Carlisle Cemetery.

Palibearers were nephews Russell and Charles Ingles, Tom and Bill Howard, Donald McLean and James Malto.

PRIZE WINNING babies proudly hold their ribbons after being picked by a panel of three judges. Top left is Donald Thornhill and mother. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thornhill. Top right is Heather Ann Knapp and mother. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knapp. Lower photo left to right are judges Mrs. Barbara Wehrle and Mrs. Fran Jamieson, Tracey Diane Jordan and mother and judge Mrs. Dorothy Small.

Plans for Picnic, Bazaar Made at Women's Meeting

Rockwood — The September meeting of the Rockwood and Oustic Catholic Women's League was held at the home of Mrs. W. Gillillan with 19 members and two visitors present. Calling the meeting to order Mrs. Gillillan led in the League Prayer. Roll was called by giving the name of one's favorite book. The treasurer's report was given and minutes of the last meeting read. It was agreed to hold the October 3rd meeting at the home of Mrs. V. Synnott.

Presentation of Rosaries to the grade eight students will be made on Sunday, October 17. Picnic plans were made with Mrs. R. Dupuis in charge of prizes. A message from Father McCougan, the League director, was given illustrating the importance of the "silent hall" in Parish activities.

Both conveners reported on progress made in outfitting booths for the forthcoming bazaar. Mrs. P. Buczek and Mrs.

Morris will look after the refreshment booth and Mrs. A. Stockman the children's booth. The parcel post booth will be supervised by Mrs. H. Saunders. Arrangements were made for the revivification of the rosary for the late Mrs. Beath. A spiritual reading was given by Mrs. P. Dales, the poem entitled "Your Little Church".

The money maker for the evening was a cent per day since the August meeting. Father Callaghan spoke briefly for a combined effort for a successful bazaar. The meeting was then adjourned by Mrs. J. Synnott.

Mrs. Gillillan introduced the guest, Mrs. Robert McPherson, who graciously entertained with slides of her recent world tour. A presentation expressing the gratitude of the members was made to Mrs. McPherson by Mrs. H. Saunders.

The hostess and her committee then served a most delicious lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

V.O.N. Nurse Gives Talk On Service in Wellington

Rockwood — Mrs. Harry Bonner was hostess for the September meeting of Rockalong Women's Institute recently. An invitation was read from the Wellington County Home for the aged to attend their September tea at Ferguson. A number of Rockalong members hope to be able to accept the invitation. The October meeting will feature a sale of bulbs and perennials, the proceeds to be sent to the Mysore Project for Food in India.

Mrs. Ken Spence and Mrs. Huttenham Sr. were appointed delegates at the Institute Convention to be held in Memorial Hall on October 12 and 13th. Mrs. Wilbert Guild was asked to send a history of Rockalong Institute to the Mercury Club. Two members volunteered as leaders for the coming 4th Club season. Miss Helen Bayne, the Citizenship Convener will be in charge of the October meeting.

Miss P. Wingrove of Guelph from the Wellington County Branch of the V.O.N. was present and gave a most interesting talk on the extended services available in this county. Wellington is the first County in Ontario to have this service. A contest was held on the human anatomy.

An excellent collection of aprons was on display, a number of which will be sent to Acton Fall Fair for their display "aprons for every occasion". Mrs. Harvey Bayne extended thanks to Miss Wingrove for her fine talk and

OBITUARY

Mrs. H. L. Bennie Buried Was Former Resident Here

A former Acton resident for 20 years, Mrs. Leta Nelvine Bennie passed away in Peel Memorial Hospital Saturday, September 11 as the result of a two-car collision the previous Tuesday.

Well known as an ardent church worker, she was the wife of the late Rev. H. L. Bennie, minister at Knox Presbyterian Church in Acton for many years. She is survived by daughters, Jean (Mrs. Robert Footitt), Terra Cotta, Joyce (Mrs. Robert Adams) Acton and one son Douglas, of Terra Cotta. She also leaves to mourn her loss one sister in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Mrs. P. McInish and six grandchildren.

During her residence in Acton she was always known to help others in any way possible and was an active worker with the Knox Women's Missionary Society. She also was an ardent weaver and found time in her busy life to enjoy arts and crafts as well as oil painting. She was quite active in all these lines of pleasure until the time of her accident.

Born in Toronto in 1894 she was in her 71st year at the time of her death. She was the daughter of the late James and Hannah Heverton. In 1916 she was married in Waterloo, Ontario.

While in Acton she was a member of Knox Presbyterian church and since moving to Terra Cotta she attended Union Presbyterian church there.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, September 14 at Knox church in Acton with Rev. A. H. McKenzie, Acton, Rev. E. A. Thompson, Toronto and Rev. R. Armstrong of Hamilton officiating at the service.

OSPREY

Visitors, Accident, Weddings Of Interest In District News

A large crowd attended the corn roast at the Grundy farm on Saturday evening. A program of western music and dancing was enjoyed.

Friends are pleased to learn Mr. K. Klooster is better, after being confined to bed for several days with an infection.

Congratulations to Beverly Bruce, runner-up in the Miss Acton contest.

Several from here attended the anniversary services on Sunday at Everton Christian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. George and family of Guelph visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Norman McKenzie and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart and family spent Sunday at Belwood Lake.

Mr. William McHugh of Oshawa, father of Mrs. Stan Fuller met with an unfortunate accident on Thursday evening, while in the Fuller barn. He slipped, and broke his leg in two places. At the X-rays, the leg was put in a cast and he is a patient at Guelph hospital. He and Mrs. McHugh were visiting with his son-in-law and daughter at the time of the mishap.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Archibald are on a motor trip to the west. During their absence, their son Don and Mrs. Archibald and children of Acton are staying at the farm.

Miss Sharon Buck, nurse-in-training at St. Joseph's hospital, Guelph, and who is presently at Hamilton hospital for part of her training, spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Len Buck.

Miss Diane Cooke is spending a few days holiday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Cooke, prior to leaving for Belleville where she teaches at Albert College.

Mrs. Thomas Fines and Doris, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson, Linda and Gary attended the wedding of the former's granddaughter Evelyn Henderson to Bryson Redwood at Belwood United Church on Saturday.

The combined Communion service of Burns Church, Erin and Egou Church, here, will be held in the local church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock with the minister, Rev. D. Herbison in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Griffin of Mishawaka, Indiana, are visiting with relatives in the community and also attended the Redwood Henderson wedding on Saturday.

Pet Stock

In the pet stock class at the late Clarence McCready won a first with a pair of bantam chickens and a pair of rabbits. Gordon Frank took a second with a pair of bantams, and D. R. Allan won second with his pair of rabbits.

Mary Jancar won a first and third with her pair of matched kittens with Bobby Toth getting second in this class.

CHURCHILL

Pins, Certificates Awarded at Church

A number of Sunday School pupils received their enrolment pins and a few received their promotion certificates on Sunday at church.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hall of Guelph (nee Margaret Saunders) on the gift of a daughter.

Mrs. Sari Vanatter of Fencelon Falls visited at the home of her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kerr.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lashby of St. Peterburg Florida visited with their cousin Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davidson and other friends.

Mrs. Alfred Saunders spent the weekend at the home of her daughter Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hall at Guelph.

Congratulations to the winners in the community who took prizes at Acton Fair.

Mr. Ed Dugan of Toronto visited with a number of friends on the fifth line.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Griffin of Mishawaka Indiana, Mrs. Treva Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Griffin of Erin, also Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Sprout of Acton visited with Mr. and Mrs. William H. Thompson.

Bowlers Active

Rockwood — The Rockwood and District Bowlers are starting another season. The first bowling season will be on Tuesday evening, September 28 at 9 p.m. There are 44 regulars registered and approximately 20 spares. Good luck for another successful season.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

ANNOUNCES

120th ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1965

11 A.M. and 7 P.M.

SOCIAL HOUR FOLLOWING EVENING SERVICE

GUEST PREACHER

REV. ELDRIDGE A. CUREY, B.A., B.D.

Mr. Curey is a former minister to our congregation who is now serving at Wellington St. church in London. All are cordially invited to share in these services and to join in our evening social hour.

This is part of Waterloo Ontario

36 apartment buildings are all gas heated.

... of approximately 300 homes built in this area, 95% are gas heated.

(4 industrial locations in this area are all Gas Heated).

More than 1,000,000 people in Ontario enjoy the benefits of clean dependable gas heating. Why not move up to economical gas heating now. Call your heating contractor, department store, or gas company soon.

UNITED GAS COMPANY

Heat a Happy Home — Gas makes the big difference

MILTON ROXY 878-3272

THURS.-FRI.-SAT. SEPT. 23-24-25

"Girl Happy" in color
ELVIS PRESLEY — SHELLEY FABARES
FLY THROUGH THE AIR
CARTOON — "FUEDY CAT"
Matinee Cancelled Saturday

MON.-TUES.-WED. SEPT. 27-28-29

"Code 7, Victim 5" - in color
LEX BARKER
ADULT ENTERTAINMENT
"QUICK GUN" - In Color
AUDIE MURPHY — MERRY ANDERS

THURS.-FRI.-SAT. SEPT. 30, OCT. 1-2

"Ski Party" - in color
FRANKIE AVALON — DEBORAH VALLEY
WATER DWELLERS
Cartoon — Magoo's Cruise

SHOW TIMES
MONDAY THROUGH THURSDAY — One Complete program each evening at 8 p.m.
FRIDAY and SATURDAY at 7 and 9 p.m.
SATURDAY MATINEE — 2 P.M.