

Spilling Five Pins at Acton Bowling Lanes

by Ken Hulford

Beardmore
Sept. 20. Rockers with a three game win from Buffers took over top spot. "Big Ben" Cruick with 686, "Rocky" Cruick with 682, "Duck" Harris with 682 and Lyle Cripps with a 214 single were Buffers' best. After losing the first to Dog Bones by 7 pins, Trimmers took the next two and totals with Ed Parent 710 (330), Roger Murray 227 and Jerry Poiré 228 trailing and singling. Jake Vanderkooft with 615 headed up the Bones' roll. With Phil Le Sueur 643 triple and Al Doley 203-255 along with John Robinson's 232-201 singles, Rolling Room lashed up the Hush Puppies by winning all games. Billy Fahaan 203 and Helen Vaternan 205 had the Hush Puppies' singles.
League standing: Rockers 12, Buffers 7, Trimmers 7, Rolling Room 7, Hush Puppies 5, Dog Bones 4.

Legion Ladies
Sept. 20. It was a shut-out night for the girls of the Legion. Saphires took 'em all from Emeralds, Pearls shut out the Rubies and Diamonds certainly weren't Opals' best friends when they handed said Opals a zero count. On the triple plateau were Phil Angell 686 and Helen Jacque 641. Making with the top singles were Helen Fowler 200, Louise Toth 234, Doris Angell 219, Irene Grant 230 and Eva Williams 208.
League Standing: Saphires 7, Pearls 7, Diamonds 7, Rubies 0, Opals 0, Emeralds 0.

Blue Springs Nursery
Sept. 21. Tulips came up with a three game win at Pansies' expense with Rheta Goodwin's 617 triple pacing the win. Mary Anderson's 203 single was tops for Pansies. Lois Norton's 207 single along with Linda Gordon's 201 set up the Glads' triple win from Lady Slippers. Despite no high scores, Violets and Roses had three close games. Roses won the first by 22 pins, the second by 15 then Violets won the third by a 15 pin margin. The odd total point went to Rose. The odd total point went to Rose.
League Standing: Tulips 7, Glads 7, Roses 2, Violets 2, Pansies 0, Lady Slippers 0.

Micro Plastic
Sept. 21. The singles of Fred Curlls 225, Bob Cathcart 226-211, Norah Buschmever 218 and John McGiloway 223 proved the winning edge in the first game from Hillbillies. Hillbillies went over the hills and far away in their efforts to win but forgot to come back. Hot Dogs were a little too hot for Hurricanes and came out best in a 52 pin. Irene Breen 625, Earl Walker 205-238, Gino DeBartolo 200 hit the mentionables for Hot Dogs. Weather Ellis 202, Allan Hall 214 and Hector Daigle 204 blow up the singles for Hurricanes. High Risers took the first two from Bald Eagles with Jack Johnston 618, Jim Keenan 202 and Jack Kneuzly 205 getting the triples and singles so close. Bob Agnew with 716 and Jens Laysten with 200 in the triple and single score gave the Eagles the edge for the odd total point.

League standing: Road Runners 7, Hot Dogs 5, High Risers 4, Bald Eagles 3, Hurricanes 2, Hillbillies 0.

Industrial-Commercial
Sept. 22. Orfuns were off and running in the start of the new season with a three game win from Ridley Cartage. L. McGillo was 706, Jeff Fryer 705 and Bob Agnew 603 were Orfuns' top trio. Ridley's had stripped gears or something, no triples were forthcoming. Masson Motors were coming on all eight and took the new Mason Knit shirt into town for a three game win. Lorne Norton 707 and Phil LeSueur 628 were wheeling for Massons. Gino DeBartolo managed to stick up a 629 knockout for Mason Knit. A batched up IGA outfit pulled a surprise and won two games from Blow Press when Martin Oshlich and "Smitty" Pietranelli checked in with 634 and 601 in that order. Paul Wilson's 665 paced the Blow outfit to a total pinfall win and they snagged the odd point.
League standing: Masson Motors 7, Orfuns 7, Ledger's IGA 4, Blow Press 1, Ridley Cartage 0, Mason Knit 0.

Thursday Toppers
Sept. 23. In a reversal of form, Saphires won all games from Rinky Dinks. The Rinkies made a bid to win the finale but missed it by 2 pins. Louise Toth 520 (212) and Jean Harris 403 (152) fired up the Spitties win. Ada Peal 486 (225) and Lila Atkinson 452 (159) were tops for Rinky Dinks. Cool Checks got cooled by Juggies in the first but won the second and won the third game by 2 pins and grabbed totals by 14. Ivy Martin 681 (248) and Kate Turkov 403 (145) paced the win. Rose Winter 490 (180) and Eleanor Gov 446 (174) were tops for Juggies. Go-Gos weren't going anywhere in the first but won the next two. They fell shy of taking totals by 15 pins. Norma Robinson 552 (201) and Fay Gaw 431 (160) were going for Go-Gos with Joan Knight 599 (216) and Hot and Harry Zullerons singled. Footnotes: Ken Moore's first inning homer was not only his first home run of the season but was his 300th hit in senior ball with Campbellville as he joined Stan Henderson, Al Wingrove and Earl Cairns in this select group.

Late in the game, Campbellville substituted liberally as their whole roster saw action with the exception of Harry Hamilton, who had pitched the previous day. Ray Grisold ran for Henderson and scored a run. Larry McPhail took over at third for the veteran Campbellville slugger, Harry Zullerons singled for Elliot in the eighth, Art Brooke popped out for King and George Chester took over at second in the ninth with John Nicholson in right and Peter Andrews catching.
Campbellville played errorless ball with Stu King coming up with eight assists and one put out. Elmer Dredge pulled the fielding gem of the day as he went far into the hole to his right to throw out Shannon in the fourth.
Campbellville must now pick up their series with Hamilton for the county championship. They are one game down in the best-of-five series.

Tenth Title Villagers Take 'C' Crown

Campbellville won their fourth Intermediate "C" Championship and their tenth Ontario Intermediate title in 13 years as they overwhelmed Thornton by a 141 score in Campbellville on Sunday. The weather was cold and raw, but the villagers' bats were red hot as they pounded out 15 hits including a home run and four doubles.
Roberts Goes Distance
Jack Roberts went all the way for the Champions, allowing one run off four hits. He walked one and struck out eight. Thornton used Wardle and Shannon on the mound and as well as allowing 15 hits, they walked two and hit a batter.
The first inning set the pattern for the game. Roberts struck out the side and then Dredge led off for Campbellville by striking out. Ken Moore tied into the first ball thrown to him and drove a line drive home run over the right field fence. Wingrove then doubled. Henderson was safe on an error. Wingrove stole third. Henderson stole second, and Cairns doubled in both runners to give Campbellville a 3-0 lead.
With Tope out in the second, Roberts walked Johnston on four straight pitches. This was to be the only walk of the series issued by Campbellville pitchers and turned out to be the only run scored by Thornton as singles by Laycock and Patterson loaded the bases and Johnston scored on an infield out.
Wingrove was safe on an error in the third and Henderson singled him to third and then stole second. Cairns' single drove in one run and Don Joyce's long sacrifice fly drove in another to make it 5-1 for Campbellville.
Stretch's Lead
The fifth saw Campbellville stretch their lead to 10-1 as they scored five times on a walk. Henderson's single, a hit batter, another long sacrifice fly by Joyce as the sticky catcher for a second time in the game, just missed a homer. Elliott's single and double by King and Dredge. Campbellville kept up the every other inning pattern as they completed their scoring with four more tallies in the sev-

Major
Sept. 23: Adam's Gold Stripe punctured Canadian Tire for a three game loss with Ed McGiloway 691, Bob Agnew 672 and Leo McGiloway 651 being top trio for Adams. Bob Martin 741 and Bert Fowler 659 hit the triple plateau for C.T. Acton Lanes set back Dominion Hotel in the first two but took a back seat to the "Wasowies Wallpapers" in the third. Carl DeForest 720, Jim Bullock 719 and Ken Hulford 707 were the Janes' top trio. Phil LeSueur 795, Al Norrie 736 (300) and Howie Jank 684 were the counter-part for Dominion. Reliable Taxi won the first from Norm's Barber Shop but couldn't find any pockets in their new bustling strides the second. They made a bid for the third game but the "Barbers" clipped them by one pin. The "350510" boys found a spot for the odd total point. Bill Shanahan and Terry Churchill both tucked up 654 for the "Barbers" along with Frank Morton's 631. Andy Williams was the only one to get the message for Reliable with 701.
League standing: Acton Lanes 12, Adam's Gold Stripe 12, Dominion Hotel 9, Norm's Barber Shop 6, Reliable Taxi 3, Canadian Tire 0.

Acton Friends
Sept. 22. Falcons were on the win wing on this their opening night against Eagles. They won all games. Harley Coles 608 and Dottie McGiloway 226 tripling and singling. Harry Martin 211 and Lloyd Schmidt 210 singled for Eagles. Parrots pulled the feathers from the Hawks and tucked away a triple win with Ray Toth 776, Syd Lamb 612 and Ed Jank tripling and singling. Ed McGiloway 761 (310) was Hawk's high flier. "Oooh the Ravens never more" after winning the first game from Vultures and it was the "birds of prey" winning the next two and totals with John Chapman 684, Ken Papillon 682, Doris Townsley 211 getting the triples and single. Merv Harness 607 and Orv Chapman 222-224 were on the triple and single plateau for Ravens.
League standing: Falcons 7, Parrots 7, Vultures 5, Ravens 2, Hawks 0, Eagles 0.

Acton Mixed

This Saturday the youngsters will be played on teams and the season's schedule will be under way.

Oust Omagh

and D. Gillies got one apiece for Omagh.
Same story Saturday in Omagh with Leybourne sitting in the driver's seat again. Omagh could not score a run while the grocers raced over the plate six times. At the end of nine the series was tied up.
Tension was high Sunday as the teams met for the seventh and final game of the series. Harry Lawson elected to go along with Carl Leybourne for his third straight game in as many days while John Willmott was nominated to win it all for Omagh.
After 20 "scoreless" innings Omagh finally scored one in the third when Adamson singled and hits while Leybourne yielded 10 hits and struck out five.

Only You Can Help Us in Our Constant Fight Against Fire by Observing the Theme of Fire Prevention Week:

THINK ABOUT FIRE WHEREVER YOU ARE

TODAY - TOMORROW - ANY DAY

OCTOBER 3rd to 9th

HAS BEEN PROCLAIMED NATIONAL FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

FIRE PREVENTION is up to YOU

FIRE IS A MENACE . . . a menace to the lives of those you hold dear . . . a menace to your home and to your business. Fire lurks in litter and rubbish, in oily, painty rags, in unchecked electrical systems, in dirty, cracked chimneys, in overheated furnaces. Whenever there is carelessness, fire threatens. Fighting fire starts with prevention . . . and that's your job. Next week and every week do your part to prevent fires . . . remember a little care can save a lot of damage.

During 1964 the Acton Volunteer Fire Department answered 55 calls in Acton and Surrounding Townships - Representing a Loss of Property Totalling $48,000 in the Townships and $7,500 in the Town of Acton. No Persons Were Killed and One Family was left Homeless. The Acton Volunteer Fire Department also Answered 1 Mutual Aid Call During the Year.

Tri-County Schedule Starts in November
More than 50 teams from 11 communities will again be taking part in Tri-County minor hockey action this season. At an executive meeting on Sunday in Milton it was indicated that once again teams from Milton, Acton, Brampton, Burlington, Fergus, Georgetown, Guelph, Hespeler, Oakville, Orangeville and Preston will be vying for Tri-County championship.
It was indicated the season would probably get underway in early November and it was announced that all the Tri-County teams from one town would play their home games on the same night.
