CAMPBELLVILLE

Surprise Anniversary Party Given Mr., Mrs. William Revell

A 40th wedding anniversary party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. William Revell, R.R. 2, Campbellville on Saturday evening when relatives, friends and neighbours gathered at their home to await them on their return from dinner at the Ponderosa, Burlington with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Revell Jr. of Newmarket. The other children, three daughters, (Alice) Mrs. Ernest Ellis of Westover, Miss Betty Revell at home, and (Barbara) Mrs. Elmer Dredge of R.R. 2, Campbellville, received the guests as they gathered to surprise the newlyweds of 40 year ago.

Charles Bryant, in a few well chosen words, assisted by Mrs. John Bell presented an heirloom bedspread on behalf of many neighbours and relatives. Other relatives presented a satin bound woollen blanket, and the family, with their son Bill as spokesman, presented their wonderful parents with a bridge table and four chairs.

Progressive euchre was enjoyed and a bountiful buffet lunch was served by the family, including a three tier wedding cake made by Mrs. Ernie Ellis. Many other cards were received and good wishes were extended the happy couple, wishing them many more years of happily married life.

FALLEN SINNER

A clergyman and one of his elderly parishioners were walking home from church one frosty day when the old gentleman slipped and fell flat on his back. The minister looked at him a moment, and being assured that he was not much hurt said to him Friend, sinners stand on slippery places.

The old gentleman looked up as if to assure himself of the fact and said: I see they do; but I can't.
