Wedding in Guelph Of District Interest

A beautiful mantilla of Brussels rose point lace was worn by Mary Eleanor van Gooven as part of her wedding costume, when she became the bride of William David McCready in St. George's Anglican Church in Guelph.

White gladioli, flamingo pink gladioli, pink carnations and lighted candles formed the background as Archdeacon S. A. Kirk officiated, with Ralph Kidd providing music for the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dirk C. van Gooven and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David B. McCready.

Long Gown

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of heirloom satin with rounded neckline, long lily-point sleeves and a bodice with jacket effect, edged with a delicate border of venise lace. A chapel train trimmed with lace flowed from the waistline. Her headdress was a mantilla and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Five Attendants

The maid of honor was Miss M. Eleanor McAlpine of R. R. 2, Campbellville, and the bridesmaids were Miss Diane Swackhamer of Acton; Mrs. Barry Jenkins and Miss Lois McCready, sister of the groom. The flower girl was Miss Terrie Lynn Thompson of Brampton.

The bridesmaids were gowned alike in floor length sheaths, having flamingo pink bodices with an overlay of white lace, white crepe skirts, a band of pink peau de soie at the empire waistline, with a bow at the back. The flower girl wore a gown of similar lines, having a full skirt in matching colors.

They wore flamingo pink peau de soie pillboxes and carried cascade bouquets of deep pink carnations accented with white satin ribbon leaves and net.

The best man was John A. Miller and the ushers were John A. Williams of Kitchener, John D. van Gooven, brother of the bride, and Barry Jenkins.

Reception

At the reception, the bride's mother received her guests wearing a blush pink chiffon sheath gown, white feather hat with blush pink petals, matching accessories and a corsage of white feathered carnations and stephanotis. The groom's mother was in a sea turquoise chiffon dress. She wore a tulle chiffon hat in matching color, matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink sweetheart roses.

For a honeymoon trip, the bride wore a sky blue wool crepe suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

"Carol" originally meant a song accompanied by dancing.
