In Memoriam

BAXTER—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Harold Whitney Baxter, who passed away October 22 1964

As long as we live we will cherish his name.
In memory we see him ever the same.
Still in our hearts he is living yet,
For we loved him too dearly to ever forget
A beautiful memory, dearer than gold.
Of a husband and father whose worth can never be told.
Alive and unseen, he stands by our side,
And whispers "Don't grieve, death cannot divide".

Sadly missed by his loving wife Louise and children Barbara-Joan, Donald and Roy.
a-17-1319

LINDSAY—In loving memory of our mother, Mrs. Hattie Lindsay, who passed away October 23, 1959.

We have only a memory.
To keep our whole life through.
But the sweetness will linger forever,
As we treasure the image of you
Ever remembered by her family and grandchildren.

Local Topics

—Youngsters were out in their shorts again this week.

—The fine weekend weather encouraged people to go back outdoors again to put up the storm windows, rake and burn leaves.

—I.O.D.E. chapters are being asked to reply to questions which might result in the chapter having a "more modern look." A change from the traditional name, with its outdated terminology, is suggested.

—Indian summer this week! Enjoy it while it lasts.

—Warm weather over the weekend must have attracted quite a number of camera enthusiasts to search for fall colors. One local merchant reported Monday he had completely sold out of color film.

Sunday's bright, warm weather drew motorists out on the highways. Roads were packed with cars as everyone enjoyed the good weather. Not many were walking even in town.

C.N.I.B. canvassers have begun collecting door-to-door.

The local P.C. association had a sound truck making the rounds Monday evening announcing the opportunity to meet candidate Al Fair, Monday evening.

Late candidate Henry Tan never says he's not running to come out. Meet The Candidates night here November 1. That'll make four speakers.

Liquor, wine, beer and cocktail lounges were turned down in Milton voting Monday. A slim majority favored them, but 60 per cent of those eligible to vote are required. Just about 50 per cent of those eligible voted.

First day for lady curlers is Monday afternoon, November 1. Mrs. Earl Exact Sr. is president.

Brampton Bulldozers nine held its house-wives whose tug-of-war team defeated the Malton team which subsequently defeated an Acton team at Acton fair, went on to Las Vegas and eked out a narrow win over chorus girls from the Folies Bergeres show. They've set their sights on the Calgary Stampede next year.

Mayor Looks Ahead To Centennial Year

I urge you all to really help when the time for Acton to celebrate the centennial comes", Mayor Les Duby urged members of both chapters of the I.O.D.E. at their joint meeting Thursday. He said he had been asked to explain developments for Acton's observances, and would also be addressing the Golden Age Club.

He reviewed the first formation of a representative committee to investigate the five submitted projects and then decision on a much needed library. "We have received consent to proceed with the best holes", he said, bringing his listeners up to date. "We hope to have it built and in use by 1967."

Will Co-Ordinate

A centennial planning committee has been set up to coordinate events of that year. R. R. Parker is chairman. Brendan Aherne secretary with Mr. Duby, Jack Carpenter, Dave Dills and G. W. McKenzie as committee members.

1973 is Acton's centennial, too", the mayor added.

Quoting an address given by Mayor Beth Nielson of Woodside at a conference he attended, he said "One of the saddest things is our lack of heritage," she had said that when it comes to spending money, "women know best". She pointed out three million dollars goes from Canada in a year for the Save the Children Fund and Foster Parents Plan. The I.O.D.E. spends $50,000 on educational projects.

The W.I. has already begun the type of projects wanted for centennial with their Tweedsmuir histories.

Films and speakers on centennial subjects will be available. The planning committee will be able to arrange these things and will dovetail activities of this special year, the mayor explained, for every hamlet will be having celebrations.
