Commission Has Brief Meeting

Acton Hydro Commission in a brief meeting Thursday evening of last week discussed the proposed new hydro building, approved accounts and heard a report from the hydro superintendent.

Vice-chairman Doug Dawkins wondered if any word had been received from architect Donald Skinner on revised plans for the hydro buildings and members agreed to postpone further discussion until secretary-treasurer Mrs. Audrey Urquhart returns from vacation. She will be instructed to contact the architect for further information.

Earlier bids for the proposed building had been excessive and commissioners instructed the architect to investigate possible revisions in plans. To date, no word has been received and further investigation will be conducted.

Superintendent Doug Mason reviewed the towing of three hydro poles on Mill Street West to make way for paving work.

He also reported an additional pole had been moved at the request of the town near the corner of Mill and Main Street.

Accounts totalling $19,101.83 were approved for payment.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Damash, Heather Ann and Teddy, were in Kitchener on Sunday where they attended the St. Mary's High School graduation exercises. Mr. Damash's niece, Miss Pat Fisher was one of the graduates and she received the Hon. by King Memorial Medal for French. Pat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fisher of St. Agathe, entertained at dinner after the exercises.
