Autumn Ceremony

Stapleton-Cunningham Vows At St. Alban's on Oct. 9th

In a double-ring ceremony at St. Alban's Church Saturday afternoon, October 9, Sandra Lynne Cunningham and Barry Anthony Stapleton were married by the Rev. Ritchie McMurray. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Cunningham, 95 Poplar Ave., Acton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stapleton, 60 Churchill Rd. S., Acton.

White shasta chrysanthemums decorated the church, with white satin bows on the pews. Mrs. F. Oakes played the organ and appropriate hymns were sung.

Carries Roses

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown, of Chantilly lace over taffeta, was styled with a basque waist, square neckline and long high-punt sleeves. The floor-length bouffant skirt featured a panel of lace with a tiered back and sequin trim. Her elbow-length veil was held by a headpiece of crystal and pearls. Her cascade bouquet was of miniature red roses and ivy with rosettes of tulle.

Attendants in Blue

Miss Margaret Tyler, Georgetown, a cousin of the groom, was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. William McEachern, Belloumount, a friend, Mrs. Garry McFadden, Acton, a cousin and the junior bridesmaid Miss Kathleen McFadden, Acton, a cousin.

The bridal attendants all wore floor-length gowns of chiffon over taffeta in marina blue with overskirts of chiffon attached to the Empire waistline with two bows, rounded necklines and elbow-length sleeves. Their head-dresses were chiffon roses with short veils. Their shoes matched their gowns, and they wore long white gloves.

The senior attendants carried cascade bouquets of blue and white carnations with ivy and chilton roses and the junior bridesmaid carried a nosegay of blue and white carnations and fern.

The groomsmen were William McEachern of Belloumount, a friend, and the ushers were Garry McFadden, cousin of the bride, Acton, and Michael Tyler, cousin of the groom, of Georgetown.

Reception in Hall

The reception after the ceremony was held in Layton Memorial Hall, attended by guests from Acton, Brampton, Georgetown, Erin, Rockwood, Kenilworth, Burlington, London, Toronto, Guelph, Grimsby, Terra Cotta, Belloumount, Aldershot and Hamilton.

The bride's mother chose a champagne lace suit with gold brocade accessories and an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore teal blue lace with matching coat, black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Telegrams from U.S.

Among the guests was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. W. Smith. The groom's uncle, George Tyler, was master of ceremonies and read telegrams from Mr. and Mrs. M. Tyler, Phoenix, Arizona, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Tyler, Simi, California.

The couple left on a trip to Haliburton, eastern Ontario and Quebec, the bride wearing a teal blue wool boucle suit with cranberry accessories and a corsage of miniature sweetheart roses. They are living at 45 Maria St., Acton.

Former foremen at Baxter Laboratories enjoyed their annual weekend together at Anthony Hufnagel's cottage on Lake Simcoe. Among his guests were Stan Norton, Clarence and Gordon Rognvaldson, Bill Benson and Charlie Davidson. Eddie Landsborough, who is ill in hospital, was unable to attend.

After being away from home for nine weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cutts returned Sunday by train from Montreal. They travelled both ways across the Atlantic on the ship, Tasmania, from Montreal to Southampton. Mr. Cutts, whose comic abilities have endeared him to all who know him, was asked to entertain the passengers on the way over, was soon recognized on the return trip and asked to speak again. He did so when the ship was in the St. Lawrence, and was the first to welcome 400 immigrants to Canada. During their seven weeks in England, the couple visited relatives and friends. Mrs. Cutts saw a sister and brother she had not seen for about 45 years. Hops were just being picked at her brother's farm in Sussex, and the visitors found this very interesting. Her sister lives at Rye, Sussex. Friends drove them through Kent, where Mrs. Cutts was born and went to school. Her son Dr. Doug Marpleton, who was on his way back to New Jersey from a business trip in Switzerland, met them in London and they had a day together. They had only three days of rain the whole time they were there, and they took many pictures. They found the gardens especially beautiful. The well-known couple are welcomed back.

The new Canadian flags have been purchased with the help of the Scout and Guide Mothers and Group Committee Sunday will see a dedication of the new flag and the retiring of the Union Jack in St. Alban's Church.

New Flag Pole Bazaar's Goal

Saturday last was a busy time for the Guides and Brownies. A rummage sale was held in St. Alban's parish hall from 10.30 in the morning till late afternoon.

Brownies lent a hand by being sandwich men and walking downtown advertising the sale. This brought lots of mothers along and helped make the sale a success. Some very helpful mothers joined in as salesladies and found it could be fun working with these young folk.

The rummage sale was organized to pay for a new steel flag pole outside the scout hall and also a cabinet to hold parade flags in the hall.

New Curriculum For Girl Guides

Mrs. D. Ward, Mrs. I. Carmichael and Mrs. H. Lowrie, Girl Guide district commissioners for Georgetown South, Credit Valley and Acton district, attended a special training session at Cookville on October 13.

This was given by Mrs. P. M. Howard, White Oaks community center, to familiarize leaders with the new training program. It was stressed that while changes have been made, the aim is the same as it has always been, to teach girls to become good citizens, to think for themselves, have a sense of responsibility and respect the feelings and opinions of others.

The final result is a girl who can take her proper place in society and realize her responsibility to her community.

Acton Firefighters made their shortest run Tuesday evening. When the siren sounded and enough volunteers arrived at the hall and climbed aboard the truck, they only got outdoors when a phone call was received the fire was out. It was a grease fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Malcolm, Tideoy Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mackay of Toronto visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Anna Smith and her other sister, Mrs. Frank Day of Rockwood recently.

Mrs. James Wilds and Mrs. W. Allan spent the weekend in Toronto visiting Mrs. Boomer and Mr. and Mrs. Vic Mossey of Maple, and also attended the banquet and decoration of Chivalry of the Rebekahs, at Bloor St. Collegiate.

Mrs. Roy Knapton raised "lateral money" at a pleasant afternoon tea in her home, attended by about 20. Mrs. H. Beven, a member of the Georgetown Arts and Crafts group, brought some of her dolls which had been on display at the recent show at the Riviera, and sold some of them.

Suggested plans for celebrating Canada's centennial were discussed by a group of about 550 attending a centennial workshop in Galt on Saturday. Government representatives spoke to the group who would be helping co-ordinate activities in their own home towns. Attending from Acton were R. R. Parker, Jack Carpenter, Brevdan Alvarino and David Dills, and they have decided to call a public meeting here November 24.

Miss Jean Buckner took some of her slightly more advanced pupils in oral French to see the children's play in French, Le Lion Dittigue, at the Museum Theatre in Toronto Saturday afternoon. They had already seen the same play with her, in English, in Guelph last Easter.

Attending the workshop at Upper Canada Village, sponsored by the Ontario Historical Association on the weekend, were Halton museum board chairman Lester Whiting, vice-chairman Ralph Wakely and secretary Jim Andrews. Warden and Mrs. Herb Merry were also there for some of the sessions. The delegates were told a new museum is formed in Canada every 15 days.

Retired Missionary Speaker At Knox W.M.S. Thankoffering

Guest speaker for the Fall Thankoffering meeting of the auxiliary, W.M.S. of Knox Church, was Miss Gould of Guelph. Miss Gould has just retired after 41 years of missionary service in Formosa. She presented a picture of the thrilling experience of being present at the Centenary Celebrations there held from June 16 to June 22 of this year, when as many as 90,000 people were in attendance at the service.

Miss Fred Anderson, president of the meeting was held in the church sanctuary, with Mrs. M. McCullough at the organ.

Witnessing was the theme for an impressive worship service led by Miss J. Anderson, assisted by Miss R. Clark and Mrs. Kennedy. Tribute was paid by the members of the late Mrs. H. L. Bennie, who for many years had been a tower of strength to all branches of the society.

Miss Roszell accompanied by Mrs. Moran contributed a solo prayer of Thanksgiving. Guests were present from Limehouse Eden Mills and from the Baptist Mission Circle and U.E.W. of Acton United Church.
