Poppy Sale

Poppies go on sale in Acton during a house-to-house canvass Friday, November 5 and again the following day when Legionnaires will be on the streets.
Everyone is asked to wear a poppy in remembrance of dead servicemen who gave their lives in the wars. Proceeds from the sale of poppies are used to help needy veterans and families both in and out of hospital.
School pupils will be receiving their poppies free again this year. Poppy chairman Alec (Pat) Walker has his campaign well under way and hopes for the co-operation of everyone.
Legion Ladies' Auxiliary members will canvass industries on the Friday and Legionnaires will conduct the door-to-door canvass Friday evening and be on the streets with boxes of poppies Saturday.
