Ninety-First Year.-No. 26.

Halton Candidates Together First Time Monday Voters, Hecklers Hear Speeches, Fire Questions

THEY'D RAYHER FIGHT than switch! Halton candidates for the answer questions from the audience. Ready to square off for federal election November 8 take a prize fighter stance as they the election November 8 left to right are present member Dr.

uphold their individual platforms. Monday night, the four Harry Harley, Liberal candidate; Allan Masson, Progressive Con-candidates appeared together for the first time at a "Meet the servative candidate; Henry Timmins, Independent Conservative

Both Liberal and Progressive! Acton Progressive Conservative ton election day and again in the every window in the main sec-ion of Roy Goodwin and callers as he rides through town in an al Association members moved in the event he gains a victory.

Candidates Night" in Acton to present their platforms and and Murray Kernighan, NDP candidate.

Liberal, PC Headquarters Will

four personalities.

federal candidates and their be should be preserved liefs at the first Meet the Candi date mucht in Halton county for ant campaign

The interested crowd in the Ro | quickly bert Little school auditorium Monday - including a small band of out-of town hecklers - listen ed thoughtfulls, then fired a ser going?" les of written powers at the quar tette of candidates, who answered them deftly, factually and with adians. We can't withdraw foreign spender of money in the history ences sitting in a minority gov Reviewed Tommy Douglas' quali-Bood hunes

Happy With Turacut

Complete satisfaction with the venture was solded by Chamber of Commerce organizers, who had in fact expected a small crowd to attend While the meeting started at eight, individuals kept coming till 9.10 following other meetings and the first night of regular curling. Extra chairs had to be set up

A welcome to the group was extended by Chamber retail section chairman Paul Nichen who termed the evening a "public ser vice" With him at the base of the platform were co-chairman Ted Pratt and Dak Jol of the Guelph Toustmasters' Club, who blinked lights and sounded a rau cous burrer to indicate time lim-

Three reporters sat at a specially provided table, two more were in the audience. Pictures were taken throughout the program for out-of-town papers

Pirst Time Tagether On the platform were the four candidates; it was the first time Henry Tunnins had joined the others in a public appearance. With them was chairman John Ruddy of the Toastmasters' Club who introduced them, read quest tions and once or twice asked the hecklers to postpone their interrupting remarks. Order in which the candidates snoke was determined by a draw for names from a natty snaphrim tedora - provided by Mr Nielsen. Each man intruduced himself and told his biography, given in brief on page 86 of this presentation Free Press issue. Trace Victory Next Door Monday. Some excerpts from the ten Some excerpts from the ten minute speeches:

is one of the smallest set wealthingters will post election results as cavalcade Saturday afternoon as through Halton winding up at the ing the town had been blitzed. est counties in Canada . . . a part fast as they come in from Acton well as a victory parade through Oakville headquarters. of the golden horseshoe . . . with polling subdivisions. Special tele- Halton Monday in the event their andustry and good agriculture phones have been installed to candidate, Allan M. Masson, gains | Local campaign headquarters. Liberal candidate for Halton Di Itis all tabulated on Standard Halton needs progressive and age keep abreast of results through a victory. pressive representation . . . I out Halton. expect if elected to have a post. The Liberal headquarters now tion cavalcade will tour Halton ters spring up through town as definite plans have been made, it day before - November 8 - elecrecord in Ottawa . . . I am con tocated in the former post office and Acton supporters will be out workers placed posters on trees. Is expected he will return in the tion day - and her 21st birthday!

LANGUAGE CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF THE PART

Election Results Monday Night Only TELEPHONE

LIBERAL HEADQUARTERS

8 5.3. 1.6 3 0

Near 150 learned to know the ism is increasing Confederation we need it.

On hunesty in government.

the entire slate during the pre dal can happen to any govern King and St Laurent surrounded tices only expedience." On assistance where needed - ed with the arrival of Dietenbak Inke guy (Applause) "We don't Main planks of his platform not porkburrel giveaways "Where er, "one of Canada's loudest need nice guys - we need (blank continued economic expansion is the backbone of this nation Prime Ministers". He surmunded cty blanks) who'll step on some, social progress such as the pen-! himself with good men but didn't buts's time" .

eign policy and on the N.D.P. for deal was accomplished in spite HENRY TIMMINS, Independ domestic policy ... in short it of the minority povernment

On Pearson's indecision Scan ent Conservative: Mackenzie has no policy of its own and prac! The Canada Pension Plan is found a separatist set. On ment but has to be dealt with themselves with the best brains. People say they are going to ment with the U.S. is especially pensions and free University Life in the country . . . This all chang vote for Harley because he is a important for Halton

On aggressive salesmanship and take their advice "Now Pearson" DR HARRY HARLEY, present quaturity for all in education development of Canada for Can with his gang" ... "the biggest Liberal member. On his expert MURRAY KERNIGHAN, N.D.P.

Four candidates, four biogra-[cerned with the way the country capital tomorrow. At first the of Canada" . . . is surrounded by emment "It Just'does not work to it me we have 225 candidates phies, four platforms . . . and is run and trankly I don't like it U.S. was maintained by British mediocrity - and he takes then effectively" . . the government and could form a good govern On national unity, sectional (capital, Whether we like it or not advice" "The government relies had a great deal of trouble get ment and do a great job with on Time and the U.N. for its for thing legislation passed but a great half of that not a handout, the auto agree bundeman Medicare retirement!

ston plan. Medicare, equal op-

In Quality he never meation were CCL pledge years

The Liberal's promised Medicare in 1945 and 1949 and we still haven't got it . will we! "We aim not to be the third or see and party but the government therause we can do the job."

During a brief period for rebuttals Dr. Harky explained to Mr. Kernighan Medicare had been

(Continued on Page Live)

Youngest Voter

Old English Law, Standard Time Give Right to Vote at Age 20

unique circumstances allows her to cast a hellot in Monday's election.

they're servicemen, must be 21. I for him

But by a strange set of encumstances, Barbara alone will be all doesn't know set. Not expecting young man consulted with the lowed to cast her first halfot on to be able to, she explains she ishiel electoral officer in Ottawa, Monday, November 8 is a day didn't really study the issues land a spokesman said he could before her 21st birthday on Tues. She's doing that now day, November 9

She gets her legal, precedent making vote for two reasons

(Nd Law Under Linglish common law a, YMCA gym Monday person is deemed to be 21 the day before the anniversary of his i birthday, not on the actual day of his both as most people beheve The Nortons read in a daily newspaper of a young man, born the same day as Barbara, who!

has claimed his right to vote. But there's another reason, too, why Barbara is eligible to vote The daughter of Mr. and Mrs Stan Norton, she was born during World War II at 1220 am -just after midnight. But those were the years when the country ALLAN MASSON, P.C.: Halton Conservative campaign headquar. Association plans a pre-election evening as part of his rounds tion of the building and by morn | staved on Davlight Saving Time as part of the war effort. But the with posters appearing on almost Election. Act apparently doesn't take DST into consideration have been buzzing with activity: Harry Harley plans to be in Acton Time. So, as far as the Act is Saturday alternoon, a pre-clee, and Tuesday night campaign post on election day and although no concerned. Barbara was born the on Mill St., is under the supervise to greet Mr. Masson at 12.30 p.m. Tuesday evening the local liber- evening for a victory parade in Official O.K.

agrees Barbara is eligible. She was not put on the voters' early first vote. the votery list. But a rural area, the proposed building.

Againgest voter in Acton next as Acton is classified, is different, third year arts, student of the Monday will be pert and pivity. It is legal to vote here if an eligibility of Loronto, who learn-Harbara Norton. She is just 20 gible person brings someone who led about the common law from years of age and voters, unless is on the voters' list to youch a reporter when he complained jahunt his had lock in missing

How will Barbara vote? She the election by just one day. The

Watson to york's to the at the at its next session

Where It Started

Delighted with the prospect of cut from voting. The spokesman her imexpected builded pitt vote. Said no one had ever raised the she will probably take her pay point before, and Parliament ents or next door neighbor. Tom would be asked to clarify the law Acton's precedent-setting voter, a former Acton high school stud-The news article in a Toronto ent, works with Co-Operators In-see nothing to prevent the stud-paper which first raised the pos-[surance Association in Guelph. sibility for the young Acton wo She lives with her parents and man told of Donald McAlpine, a pet budgie at 50 Church St.

Will Call Tenders Again For New Hydro Building

try, try again."

of the Acton Hydro Commission! in its decision to call again for bids on & proposed new hydro, building on Alice Street.

costs by defetions in proposed ter the opening of original ten building plans and omitting a ders, architect Donald Skinner Halton Returning Officer Rich penalty clause in the contract and West has talked to the family, which is suspected of adding at was asked to investigate possibiliabout their unique case and least 15 per cent to the overall, ties of cutting costs without re-

Tender Deadline

list, since the family didn't real [Tenders are to be in by Thurs] ize these surprising implications day. November 18, which is their. Thursday evening of last week that have come to light since. It next meeting night for the local was devoted to a review and diswas a neighbor, bringing over an commission. This action was ap-cussion of the proposed changes farticle in a Toronto paper, who proved Thursday evening of last which, it is hoped, will enable put them on the trail of the day, week after architect Donald Skin-; the building project to proceed ner reviewed plans showing cer- Mr. Skinner told the commission Barbara would have been incli- tain deletions which, combined most contractors are still quite gible to vote in an urban area with a winter works program, busy and urged members to pro-

"If at first you don't succeed,! Original tenders submitted by contractors ranged anywhere This appears to be the motto from $100,000 to $150,000 which proved exhorbitant to commis-'sion members. Original estimates by the architect and commission This time, it is hoped to cut tanged from $58,000 to $60,000. Afducing the purpose of the proposed building. Review Building

since her name was omitted from are hoped to reduce the cost of feed immediately in order to apply for a winter works program.

Drug store and is in charge of Few Tricks, Mostly Treats Tom Watson. Election results can also be obtained there by call-

The Progressive Conservative candidate also plans to be in Ac.: Posters appeared immediately on ville.

can obtain up-to-date results by open convertible.

phoning 853-1630.

ing 853-0021

campaign headquarters is right

next door in the former Baxter

Expect Crowds

to be crowded election night as

Both headquarters are expected

Police Patrols on Hallowe'en UNICEF Collection Best Ever

than ever with parties arranged from malicious pranks. tor older youngsters.

UNICEF Best Yet Collections for UNICEF this year totalled higher than any previous years. Children toting door collected over $253 Saturday night. Last year's total was under $200. Over 300 public school child Monday. usual treats, received pennies the school creek. Vote at 62 Gymn.

rom willing donors. year and were assisted by volun- Main Street, to the town's west Y.M.C.A. cloakroom. teers in counting and wrapping limits. Vote at Knox Presbyterian. No. 29: Comprising that portion the coins.

Treat Later best costumes to allow children Chambers.

McCallum's Texaco Station.

Police Patrols ed in patrol of the town by Aux- south and west of the town limits. race.

The Progressive Conservative the former post office on Mill St. Liberal party plans a party at Oak

Even the usual tossing-of eggs on doors for treats, while a few and balloons tilled with water

Plenty bt fun with few prob- iliary police members Leo Rie was curtailed slightly by the lems characterized. Hallowe'en mer and Elmer Roszell. Milton active police patrol. Damage to night Saturday evening. Child O.P.P. detachment had several tences and buildings was at a ten roumed the streets happily for police cruisers scouting through- minimum as well. several hours and then the use out the rural area. The lact that District O.P.P. officers also reual evening quiet prevailed police were very much in evid ported few pranks. There were more callers at doors ence perhaps deterred some Many adults accompanied their children as they knocked [ to new campaign headquarters in On Saturday, November 13, the

UNICEF boxes from door to List Acton Polling Places

dren obtained the boxes at Polling subdivision No. 22; come of the Town of Acton, south of schools Friday on a voluntary bas prising that portion of the town Mill St., west of Beardinore Creek

Guelph St. Returns from the collection will No. 23; Comprising that portion of the Town of Acton, south of assist needy children in foreign of the town of Acton, north of Mill St., cast of Main St. and J countries. Acton Y's Men's Club Beardmore Creek and Mill Street, north of Beardmore Creek and sponsored the project again this south of Fairy Lake and west of west of Frederick St. Vote at · Church. Each child who participated of the town of Acton north of Mill north of Beardmore Creek, and will be treated to a movie at a Street, south of Fairy Lake and west of C.N.R. Main Line. Vote later date. This year, the club the school creek and west of the at 7 Frederick St. S. dispensed with the usual cos C.N.R. and east of Main St. Poll- No. 30: Comprising that portion were Sandy McIsaac's garage, of Wellington St., and south of the at 50 Roseford Terrace. Bill Toth's Shell Service and Jack flown's north limits. Vote at 191. No. 31: Comprising that portion Mill St. E.

Here's where you vote in Acton Vote at 43 Young St. No. 27: Comprising that portion sis and as well as collecting the of Acton, north of Fairy Lake and to town limits. Vote at Y.M.C.A.

(Continued on Page Five)

No. 28: Comprising that portion of the Town of Acton, south of No. 24: Comprising that portion: Mill St., east of Frederick St., and tume judging and awards for ing station at Acton. Council of the Town of Acton. South of Queen St., east of C.N.R. Main to return to the beat, picking No. 25: Comprising that portion Line, north and west side of Roseof the Town of Acton, north of ford Terrace, north of Wescott Depots for UNICEF collections Queen St., east of C.N.R., west Road to east limits of town. Vote of the Town of Acton, south of No. 26: Comprising that portion Wescott Road, south and east of Police officers Constables of the Town of Acton, north Roseford Terrace, east of Main Bruce McArthur, Bruce Kressler, of Queen St., east of Wellington Line of C.N.R., and west of eastern and Mervin Harness were assist. St., south of the school creek and Limits. Vote at 79 Roseford Ter-

-Biatt Photos

THE UNION JACK was retired by the Girl Guides and Brownies Sunday morning during a special ceremony at St. Alban's Anglican church. The new Canadian flag with the red Maple Leaf. was dedicated and will now be the official flag flown. The Union Jack will be sent to Acton, England as a gift by the girl guides. Taking part in the service left to right were Ellen Wissenz, Barbara Nicolak, Rev. Ritchie McMurray and Betty Ginger.

ST. JOHN AMBULANCE BRIGADE received a $25 donation from Acton Y's Men's Club Thursday of last week during the monthly club meeting. Receiving the cheque from Y's Man Bill Mainprize is Area Superintendent Robert Hart. A total of $1,040 was presented during the meeting by the club to various organizations including the Y Board.