Many Songs

Mr. Mason, convener, had aranged a delightful program. Mr. and Mrs. Bill DeVries sang many ongs, in solo and duet with Mr. DeVries on the guitar. They please ed their audience so well that they were called back again and again. They sang Gone Home, My Adobe Hacienda, The Waltz You Saved for Me, Lonesome Memories and others. Mrs. McCutcheon gave a couple of nice readings.

Charlie Cutts told one of his stories, then sang He Trod on the Tail of My Coat and was brought back for an encore. Mrs. Frank Oakes accompanied him on the piano then led in a rousing sing-
