

... Spilling Five Pins at Acton Bowling Lanes

by Ken Hulford

High School

Nov. 29: Stoned Bones took the league-leading Blue Angels for two games, but the Angels' margin of victory in the second game gave them the single-pin for total. Ray Saita 315 (200) and Jim Cassidy 477 (181) paced the Bones. Terry Churchill 613 (245) and Bob Brower 525 (262) were Anger's top duo. Headpins win the first from Untouchables by eight pins, the second by 11, then fell off the pace and Untouchables' clattered them for 185 win and the odd pins for totals. Bob Turbow 500 (211) and Larry Ruden 426 (170) were tops for head pins with Harvey Taylor 605 (210) and Jack Palmer 561 (215) being Untouchables' best.

League

League standing: Blue Angels 30, Untouchables 29, Headpins 21, Stoned Bones 21.

Boardwalk

Nov. 29: Trimmers with a triple win from Rockers made their third win in a little more than a week. Rockers made a bid to win the middle game but missed it by four pins. Ed Parr 661, Charlie Hubbard 612, Roger Murray 503, Jerry Post 512-300 and John Fabian 211 were on the triple and single plaques for Trimmers. Top Rockers: Dave Shanley 583, Dave Shanley 583, Hugh Pappas 501, the first to dig Bones then made sure of the next two and total: Junior Mascal 688, Helen LeSar 500, 206-218, Dennis Balthugh 214, Rex Fontana 219, Helen Yemman 344, triple and single pins. ## Blue Springs Nursery

Nov. 30: The big news in the "flowerful league" was Violets forsaking their shy and modest role and winning all games from Roses. Violets won the first by 22 pins, the second by nine, then took the finale by five. Bob Curtis 461 (163), Joanne Emerson 394 (141) and Otti Vliestra 391 (162) paced the win. Top trio for Roses were Flora Barber 457 (173), Jean Balthugh 444 (191) and Pat Morse 382 (179). Gladys won all games from Lady Slippers who made a bid for the middle game but missed it by 31 pins. Lois Norton 561 (189), Berna White 542 (221) and Ada Vliestra 450 (159) sparked the win. Top duo in Lady Slippers' efforts were Betty Hardie 446 (169), Lil Wagner 390 (162) and Donna Hrenik 345 (135). Tulips won the first from Pansies by five pins, then made sure of the next two by plenty, for the triple win. Sylvia Mayes 650 (252), Adele Nolan 619 (288) and Rheta Goodwin 478 (185) were Tulips' top trio. Tops in Pansies' losing cause were Diane Matheson 423 (183), Bev Sell 422 (183) and June Lawrence 341 (177).

League standing: Gladys 55, Tulips 52, Lady Slippers 41, Roses 36, Pansies 33, Violets 11.

Micro Plastic

Nov. 30: Road Runners met up with the top spot Hillbillies and won all games, to take over first place. Bob Cathcart 757 (346), Grand McKinon 623, Fred Curtis 608 came up with the triples to cement the win. John Burchmeyer 634, Joan Knight 213 tripled and singled for the losers. Despite the banishment to the town of Kild Ireland's favorite was Pat Dick. Bold Eagles made a bid for the triple win from High Rise who failed to rise to the occasion. Mary Misset singled 278 for Eagles. Dave McMillan 218 and Jim Kelman 222 singled for the Rivers. Hot Dogs won two games from Hurricanes, but Hurricanes blew up a storm to win the middle game by enough and won totals. Earl of Walker 600, Gene De Bartolo 248, Bob Price 209 and Bill Hight 215 were on the triple and single plaques for Hot Dogs. Nancy Parramag 110, Heather Ellis 210 and Bill Wilson 229 made it for Hurricanes.

League standing: Road Run 44, Hillbillies 43, Hurricanes 33, High Rise 34.

Industrial-Commercial

Nov. 30: Masses Monks were on the GAC plan (yet monks' antics) and made with a triple win from Masses. Knit who were slightly uninvited. Wheeling for Masses Monks were Phil LeSar 667, Tom Masaki 694 and Tom Masaki 692. Masses Knit dropped 18 strikes. Triplewise Rinkys cartage had one of their best nights and handed Offens a very sound. Handy Andy Williams 503, Bob Martin 692 and Ed Patten were Rinkys' top duo. Willy Patten 692 was a knitter for Leggers' top duo. Leggers IGA got a triple and a single for Leggers' top duo. Leggers IGA 661 and Ed Patten 692 were IGA's top duo with Eric Swift 584 (269), Bea Anderson 421 (197) and June Crook 410 (180) being under way. ## Acton Mixed

Dec. 3: Puffs retained their hold on first place by winning two games from Tiger Cats, who had a big first winning game, to take totals. Frank Daley 640 and Fred Landry 216 tripled and singled for Puffs. Getting the TC's singles were Grace Roberts 213, Jerry Martin 201 and Hec Daigle 203. Bees were a bunch of pin-buzzin' cousins with a three game win from Spots. Mary Daley 608 (apparently trying to keep up to Frank), Ray Lantette 204 paced the win. Bill Mamppeze's 223 was a luxury for Spots. Bees beat out Mascots in the first by four pins, took the second handily, then lost out in the third by 28 pins, to take a two and total decision. Bert Robertson 209 and Fred Curtis 204 singled for Bees with Joe Parramag 221 for Mascots.

Headpin Hittes

Joev March 692 and the A.B. Supermarket had a 2-0-0 triple and single win from Tiger Cats and Eric Swift 584 (269) single and a 2-0-0 triple for Tiger Cats.

Big Four

Dec. 3: Rough Riders took two from the first place Abonites but missed out for totals when Abonites punched out a big win in the second. Third game was close. Rough Riders took it by eight pins. Rene Vorkamp 604 (254), Joe Holstole 546 (205) and Jake Kukken 480 (200) were Rough Riders' top trio. Rink Vliestra 631 (249), Nellis Van Arragon 505 (180) and Harry Ensing 452 (180) were Abonites' best. Argonauts grabbed two and total from Tiger Cats who won the middle chucker. Jake Van

Acton Friends

Dec. 2: Parrots three game win from Hawks put them on the top rung in the league standing. Rae West 240, Keith Andrews 202, Ann Thomson 251 and Ray Toth 245-211 sparked the win with singles. Someone must've clipped the Hawks' wings — no singles topped from the top spot when Ravens handed 'em a zero count of Lorna Besses 664, Ory Chapman 215 and Mery Harness 219. Tripled and singled in the win John Chapman 302 and Tony Darrin 301 solved for Vultures. Falcons won two games from Eagles with Eagles taking the single-pin for totals by 12 pins. Eagles dropped a toughie in the third — five pins decided it. Marilyn McArthur 288, George Williamson 206 and Don DeLoist 622 singled and tripled for Eagles. Hart Cooke's 216 solo was a loner for Falcons.

Just a few of the gifts you'll receive when you give her an Automatic Gas Range or Dryer for Christmas. You know the gifts you always get anyway: five pairs of insufferable socks, a troupe of tattooed ties, at least one unsporting sports shirt, and a pair of pink and purple polka-dot pyjamas... this Christmas, why not get a year-full of gifts you'll really appreciate? Gifts like: Thick, juicy steaks cooked under the smokeless flame broiler of the gas range. Soft, fluffy towels wadded gently dry in the gas dryer. Vegetables still tasty and hot even though you got home from the office two hours late. (They've been temperature controlled by the gas range's 'Burned With a Brain' Wash in Wears shirts, dry and wrinkle-free after just minutes in the automatic gas dryer. These are just a few of the gifts you will get when you give her an automatic gas range or dryer for Christmas. But don't breathe a word to your own 'Mrs. Claus.' Visit your gas appliance dealer, department store or gas company showroom and arrange for delivery of a new automatic gas range or dryer. (We might even be able to get it down the chimney.)
