Headpin Hilites
If we haven't pulled a rock, here are the weekly award winners. For the AAB Supermarket voucher, Joanne Duval with a triple of 704. For the Ledger's IGA Foodliner voucher, Nancy Jensen with a single of 317. For the Nielsen's Clothing socks, Jeff Fryer with a single of 380. This was rough on Jim Kelman — James was pitched there with a 378 till the Fryer lad got hot in the Industrial - Commercial league. With the kids on Saturday morning, it was Jamie Ellerby, Joey Marshall, Jane Fabian and Sharon Ellerby winning the bottled beverages of Coca-Cola, Reinharts and Seven-Up.

The December winners of the Labatt mugs were Leo McGilloway in the Major league, so 'bring 'em along, Stan Haenael, the boys can use 'em.

With Jim Bullough (it's a habit) failing to show — he was competing in Georgetown for the Eastern Canadian championships — Jeff Fryer was performed without a partner and the champs defaulted in the weekend Double championship. So from the House Round came challengers Bill Shannon and Bob Turkoz with a three game pinfall of 1437. Jim Kelman and Bob Agnew with a total of 1331 and Frank Marston and Bob Skidgemore with a total of 1145.

In the championship roll, Shannon and Turkoz nosed out Kelman and Agnew with 1348 to 1314. Skidgemore and Morton trailed with 1243. Championship director Bob Agnew plans a switch for next week — figures on drawing for partners instead of picking your own. He feels this might give the average bowler a better chance of pairing up with a better bowler and a better chance of winning, rather than having a favored few make the championship round all the time.

Don't know whether the late Robert Ripley would rate this in "Believe It or Not" — don't even know if it's a record — but it's one for the book, anyhow. Henry Harbers, bowling in the Big Four league, came up with nine spares in a row. Started off with a blow, then went for nine spares plus five pins on his last spare in the tenth. But here's the odd part — in every frame, Henry took out the right hand 3-2 first including his last five pin count, and as Ripley would say, "believe it or not". That "winds it up, my friendlies, so adios, amigos, and good-night, Daly City.

Holiday Visitors Prominent Vandalism Mars Decorations

(Intended for last week) Eden Mills was a picture this Christmas when more families decorated their homes, but vandalism entered the scene when a decorated tree had some lights broken and partly torn off and disconnected. It is believed the culprits were disturbed in their act.

The first meeting of 1966 Eden Mills and District Community Club was held in the hall on Tuesday evening and plans for the winter months got underway. The Eden Mills Cub pack and their leaders went around the village singing carols on Wednesday evening prior to Christmas. A new skating rink has been made for the benefit of skaters and was well patronized during the holidays.

Spending the holidays in Eden Mills with their mother, Mrs. Kaye Stevenson, were John Stevenson, Regina; Dan Stevenson, University of Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stevenson, Hamilton, Martha and Eva Stephenson returned with them to Hamilton to spend the rest of the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Wardle and family were in Brantford over the holidays.
