By Gwen Lander
 Last Friday night in the high school gym that was effectively decorated by the Art Club, the Valentine's Dance was held. The Sparrow, dressed in the latest Village garb, filled the auditorium with their exciting brand of music. As a feature of the evening, the group played their new record "Can't Judge A Book", which has just recently been released. As another highlight, two Go-Go dancers performed on tables adjacent to the stage.
 At the dance, Alan McNabb and Trudy Morris were crowned King and Queen of Hearts. They were each presented with a corsage and given a colorful paper hat to wear.
 This dance was a complete success and we would again like to thank the chaperones for being such good sports. The next dance will be held in March to the music of The Shaws.
 Mrs. Orr's home economics students modeled Simplicity's "New Shapemakers" last Monday. At the fashion show, the new Spring look was featured.
 Intra-mural girls' basketball began last week. The teams play every noon hour and the winners will compete in the playoffs for the intra-mural championship.
 Last Thursday, both girls' inter-school basketball teams played in Acton. The Juniors were defeated 24-9, but the Seniors were victorious with a final score of 21-13.
 This Friday is the Teachers' Convention. The day is a holiday for students.

Legion Ladies Visit Manor

The Legion Ladies' Auxiliary held their February meeting in the Legion Hall with president Mrs. D. Rogers in the chair. Comrade Mrs. B. Fowler was presented with her past second vice-president's medal.
 There is to be a social evening in Streetsville on March 17. Members wishing to go, please contact Mrs. Lloyd Masales. The women are making another trip to Sunnybrook hospital on March 16.
 Members of the auxiliary went to Halton Centennial Manor in Milton last Thursday evening with gifts for the ladies and men of the Acton district. They spent an enjoyable evening playing bingo and Mrs. M. McCullough entertained with music on the piano and a sing-song.
 Two gentlemen received gifts for their birthdays in February and a former Actonian, Al Leishman received a gift for being the youngest gentleman of 85. Following this, a lovely lunch of sandwiches, fancy tarts and a large decorated Valentine cake was served.
 Members are looking forward to another trip down in the near future.

Any way you figure it...
