World Day of Prayer Service In Christian Reformed Church

Requests for special prayers have come from many lands this year as final arrangements are made for the observance of the World Day of Prayer. As has been customary in recent years, the first Friday of Lent, February 25, has been set aside for services which will unite Christian women in 150 countries and areas.

Locally services will be held in the Christian Reformed Church, Peel St. and No. 7 Highway, at 2:30 p.m.

Groups from all Protestant churches in Acton will again participate.

In preparing the service to be followed this year the committee composed of Scottish Women in Edinburgh have kept in mind the needs of churches around the world.

Offerings made by those who attend the World Day of Prayer services are divided among a number of Christian projects in the world.

Bake Sale, Draw For Church Group

The two ladies' societies of the Christian Reformed Church held a bake sale in the Simpson Sears order office on Friday, February 11.

Proceeds, which amounted to $102.30, are for retarded children. A draw for tapestry was also held and Mrs. H. Venema, Agnes St., was the winner.
