Headpin Hilites

Continuing her hot streak, Joan Knight clicked again for a double award. Her 748 triple, which included a 306 single, was both the A-B Supermarket and Ledger's IGA vouchers. Jeff Fryer's 336 single won the Happy Feet from Nielsen's Clothing. With the Teen-N-Unders winning the refreshing refreshers of Seven-Up, Coca-Cola, Reinhardt's and Coca-Cola were Carol Grant, Melanie Hardie, Debbie Storey, Frank Buschmeyer and Robbie Ellerby.

Steve Elliott was bowling with the Micro shift workers a week ago Tuesday and was on six from the beginning and received a standing ovation from his fellow bowlers in the seventh when his first ball took out the counter-pin. The kicker being — the six straight Steve was on were not strikes but blows!

And that, my friendlies, winds it up once again, so adios, amigos and goodnight, Daly City.

Near 50 Attend Valentine Dance

Valentine decorations dotted the Robert Little school auditorium Wednesday evening of last week as square dancers held their Valentine dance.

A total of six squares (24 couples) enjoyed dancing to recorded music as instructor Norman Wilcox from Bramalca called the dances. Dancing ceased at 10:30 p.m. and everyone enjoyed coffee and doughnuts served by the ladies.

Ten couples from the Guelph club and one couple from St. Catharines joined with local members.

Several Acton dancers journeyed to Guelph Saturday, February 5, to participate in the Guelph Club's benefit dance held for members of a United States dance club-killed during a blast. Next week the local club will choose a name from a list of 24 names submitted by the membership.

DIAL ZERO

Children can't be expected to remember phone numbers. But you can teach them one rule: dial zero; tell the lady what is wrong and she will help you. Be sure they know their home address. Telephone operators, trained to handle emergencies, may save your child's life in an emergency. So teach your child to dial zero.
