Mrs. G. Sprowl W.M.S. Hostess

On March 10 the Afternoon Auxiliary W.M.S. of Knox Church, Acton, met at the home of Mrs. G. Sprowl when the president, Mrs. F. Anderson, opened the meeting with a short poem, the singing of a hymn and prayer.

Following this the worship service and study for the month were taken by Mrs. H. Allison and her committee, Mrs. F. Cole, Miss J. McGregor and helpers, Mrs. O. Moran, Mrs. A. J. Buchanan and Mrs. R. M. MacDonald.

Mrs. Allison noted the theme for the meeting, "Called to the Ministry of Reconciliation". They were to think how they as individuals can make the love of God in work and deed real for those we meet every day.

The Scripture carrying the theme II Corinthians 5, 4 to 21 and Ephesians 2, 11 to 22, was read in unison with Mrs. O. Moran leading.

Mrs. A. J. Buchanan read a letter from Miss Margaret Ramsay of British Guiana telling the good news that the country, after years of strife, had become more settled and the mission workers had made much progress in helping the people and interesting them in Christian teachings.

Ten very successful projects had been carried through and the three races seemed to be trying to work in harmony.

Mrs. F. Cole told of the medical work being carried on in the missions abroad where hospital training, mothers' help, care of the ill requires many workers. She finished by telling of the happy experience Miss Whale had, when on a visit to the mission fields. She was present when 800 leprosy patients were handed certificates stating their freedom from the disease. What joy she witnessed.

Mrs. R. M. MacDonald closed this service with prayer.

All were interested when Mrs. Anderson said the Rev. A. H. McKenzie had taken five officers from the missionary family to the inaugural meeting of the new Brampton Presbyterian. This was a new experience to all and a very successful one as all officers were filled and the first meeting scheduled for March 23.

Arrangements were made for the Easter Thank Offering when Miss Athalie Read is to be the guest speaker.

The ladies decided to attend the Holy Week Services in a body on April 3.

The President thanked the hostess and helpers before closing the meeting with the Mizpah Benediction.

Careful Drivers
In spite of bad weather conditions with driving hampered by ice and fog during the weekend, Acton O.P.P. Detachment report no accidents in town.

Milton O.P.P. Detachment investigated 22 accidents throughout Halton mainly due to poor driving conditions.

The volunteers phoning to urge everyone to attend the blood donor clinic reported a fairly good response.

Many from Acton thoroughly enjoyed seeing "Photosec Canada" a presentation on film, tape and by narrator at Ross Hall, Guelph, Wednesday of last week. Drawing card for Agonomians was the narrator, Ted Footitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Footitt. He had also taken some of the excellent shots in the 30-minute show.

The show was produced by Canadian Kodak. Highlights were pictures taken of a Minor Sports hockey game in the arena here when Jim Casburn was recreation director. Steve Goy was shown refereeing. Presented on three adjoining screens, Photosec Canada employs three slide projectors, a movie projector and taped sound, to spread the majestic panorama of color. It is being shown across the continent.

Free Rabies Vaccinè Given

To Many Pets in Town Hall

ROCKWOOD - All sizes and colors of pets, ranging from a super sized St. Bernard to pint sized Chihuahuas, cats big and small, and often giving vocal disapproval, also pet rabbits, made their way escorted by their owners to Rockwood town hall recently. Once there, each received the free rabies vaccine.

Many larger dogs objected to the slippery floor and occasionally exchanged a one dog to another bark, but everything went smoothly.

The veterinarians in charge were Dr. P. F. Hanlon of Guelph and Dr. J. H. Shillinglaw of Kitchener.

Several local ladies and school students took care of the vaccine certificate given to each owner.

There was a very good response to the clinic with people becoming increasingly aware of its benefit.

With the snow melted, the new roads in Lakeview are being tested by drivers and walkers interested in seeing the sites of new homes.

She was an active member of the Women's Auxiliary of the church, the Acton branch of the Women's Institute and the Golden Age Club; representatives of these organizations attended the funeral.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Masales, she was born in Glen Williams on March 26, 1892. She and Mr. Kingsmill were married at Chaplin, Saskatchewan, on June 2, 1915, and celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at a happy family gathering last year. Since then, they had attended 25th wedding anniversaries for their two daughters in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsmill moved to Acton 25 years ago, after living in Saskatchewan and Glen Williams.

She is survived by her husband Fred Kingsmill, daughters May Drysdale, Chaplain, Sask.; twins Florence James, Chaplin, Sask. and Flora James, South Ste. Marie; son Charles W. R. Kingsmill, R.R. 4, Rockwood; 15 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren; and a brother Albert Masales of Royal Oak, Mich.

She was predeceased by her parents, Stephen W. Masales in 1924 and mother Ida May Masales in 1934 in Saskatchewan; brother William Masales of British Columbia and sisters who died in infancy.
