

Holy Week Services To Conclude Tonight

The first of the Holy Week services for the community on Sunday evening was attended by about 200. A good number of town groups attended together, including about 30 from the Golden Age Club.

All the services are in Knox church.

A fine address was given by Rev. Lyndon Smith, M.A., professor of church history at Trinity College, Toronto. The Rev. Ritchie McMurray conducted the service, assisted by theology student Laurence Doby; the choir of the Anglican church sang and Mrs. Frank Oakes played the organ.

Tuesday Service
Tuesday evening Rev. S. Gammon conducted the service assisted by the Rev. A. H. McKenzie. The Legion Chorales filled the choir loft. Ted Hansen played the organ.

Speaker was Dr. Harold Stibbard of Brantford.

Tonight's Service
Thursday evening (tonight) George Elliott will direct a large service.

Order Trees

The town office has received orders for 22 maple trees so far, and orders are still being taken. The cost is shared by the town and the home owner on a 50-50 basis. It's a repeat offer of trees.

Sugar and Spice...

ice age has left, and I go out and see them there, it's like meeting old friends. Rusty and ravaged, but familiar and dear.

Signs of spring everywhere. Sixty black squirrels, moved out of my attic, seeking acorns they missed last fall. Lady next door, who has four little ones, hanging out washing with a fifth imminent.

Endless chant of kids skipping. Moose bellow of impatient steamers in the bay, waiting for breakup. Fire sirens saluting the annual epidemic of grass fires.

Bitter lines around mouths turning to smiles. Overcoats and boots hauled into closets. Paint pots broken out. Teen-agers standing on corners, bunting like young calves. Women's hats — goofy, exotic, irreverent, awful. Old ladies tippy-toeing about, first time out since November. Kids up to their ears in mud.

Anglers and golfers bragging, speculating about the great new season. Housewives, coatless, shouting nothings to neighbors. Teachers cursing as they mark Easter exams.

Perhaps you can, but I can't imagine living in a country where the cycle of the seasons is almost unnoticeable. I like to be where the action is. I like spring to come like a shot of adrenalin, not a lukewarm cup of tea.

It is little wonder that myth and legend, poetry and painting and music, not to mention religion, celebrate the theme of regeneration in the spring. If there is such a thing as the indomitable spirit of man, which I firmly believe, it would be impossible without spring.

Think of it. A year in which the days did not lengthen, the sun did not warm, the green did not appear, the soul did not expand. We would be lining up at the ends of docks, clamoring for six-shooters, and packing the subway stations for hurling under-trains-purposes, by the first of June.

Two Accidents Last Saturday

Constable Nick Farion of the Acton O.P.P. Detachment investigated two accidents Saturday when damage to four cars involved was estimated around $500.

The first accident on cemetery hill (Main St. S.) involved a car driven by David Vinall, Georgetown, and one driven by Terrance Wilson, Acton. Damage to the Wilson car was estimated at $200 and the car driven by Vinall around $150. The Georgetown driver was charged.

The second accident, which happened at the corner of Church and Main Sts., involved a car driven by Michael Churchill which received an estimated $125 damage. Both drivers are from town. Donald Crane was charged with failing to stop at a stop sign.

Delighting the audience were guests from Milton, clowns Trevor Houston and Steve Gervais and soloist Joanne McCuaig.

Luckily just two girls were ill and unable to take part.

St. John's Ambulance Brigade members Mr. and Mrs. Hargrave were in attendance.

Proud of her young charges, Mrs. Skuce said they did "a terrific job".

There's to be a skating party for the figure skaters and their parents next Saturday morning from 10 until 12.

—Students in all grades at the high school are writing Easter exams this week. There are no classes. Last exams are Thursday, and then the relief of a week's holiday.

—One weary upper school student, hearing grade 13 exams are to be done away with by 1968, said to a lower grader, "That just added ten years to your life!"

—Some Robert Little students were moved out of their classrooms Tuesday to make room for the music festival competitors. They went to the stone school and parish hall, trailing along behind their teachers and carrying their day's work.

Raise $770

Over $770 has been received by Acton Rotary Club in the annual Easter Seal campaign, chairman Fred Gordon was pleased to announce this week. The amount is up slightly from last year.

Anyone who has neglected to respond to the club's annual appeal for funds may still do so. Contributions may be left at the Bank of Montreal or with Mr. Gordon at Gordon's Hardware Store.

He stresses that local children are helped directly as a result of this drive. Treatment and summer camps have been provided regularly when needed. Several cases are being looked after right now.

Rotarians would like to hear of any local cases of crippled children, so they may ask if assistance would be welcome.

Poet's Corner

EASTER SONG

Lord, give me strength to walk the Calvary road,
With dignity, though crushed beneath my load,
Knowing the end is not Gethsemane,
For, in the gloom, an angel waits for me.

O angel voice, that bids my sorrow cease,
O holy calm, that brings my soul release,
I lay aside the vestments of the night,
And hail the Easter dawn's glad morning light.

—Isobel Anderson.

Of Actonians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and of Visitors in Acton Homes

Phone the names of Easter visitors to the Free Press and let us know about holiday trips. It is items like these that give a weekly paper its special appeal.

Mrs. Mary Graham is a patient in Guelph General Hospital.

Friends are glad to learn Miss Margaret Slaven is home from hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGeachie and family have moved from Arthur St. to the Jeffrey Ave., Lakeview, home formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harris Roe and family.

Mrs. Fred Parsons of Boston and daughter Joan visited over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Pringle, Blue Springs Road. Mr. Don Pringle, Vancouver, was also home for a short visit.

Members of the public school safety patrol will enjoy a Junior "A" hockey game in Kitchener this Saturday evening. Each year the public school board treats the youngsters for a good job well done.

Late Styles

The fashion show being arranged by Guide Commissioner Lowrie has had to be postponed, since spring clothing has not been delivered because of the truckers' strike.
