

Load Shifted Truck Tipped

A truck driver from Virgil, Ont., Ronald Herbert Burse, was injured Monday evening when the load of paper on his tractor-trailer shifted and the truck toppled over into a ditch on Highway 7 at the Seventh Line.

Police estimated $6,000 damage to the truck. The driver received a slight concussion and possible fractured ribs and was treated at Georgetown Hospital.

Three Acton and district residents were involved in two other crashes in the North Halton area covered by Milton O.P.P. this week. Damage totalled $275 when cars driven by Robert Kenneth Davidson of R.R. 1 and Clarence Denny of R.R. 2, collided on the Town Line at the Fourth Line Esplanade Friday afternoon.

Sunday cars driven by Eligio Bilocco of 11 Scene St., Acton and Douglas F. Pycar of R.R. 3 Frankford received $350 total damage in an accident on Highway 7 at the First Line intersection.
