

Annual U.C.W. Paper Drive Farewell to Two Reported

A reminder — Churchill U.C.W. annual paper drive. Please leave what you have at the home of Mr. Wallace Swackhamer on Monday, April 18. Rags, old iron, corrugated paper boxes, broken up, news papers and what you have to get rid of.

U.C.W. Meeting
The Churchill U.C.W. regular monthly meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Swackhamer on Wednesday afternoon, April 6. The president, Mrs. W. Thompson, opened the meeting with all repeating the Lord's Prayer.

In the absence of Mrs. L. Swackhamer who was to take the devotional period a few Easter hymns were sung. Mrs. R. Denny read a chapter of the study book and dealt with its messages. The roll call was answered by naming a favorite hymn. Some Bazaar items were handed in.

At this time the meeting was in the form of a farewell to two of the valued members who have moved away. Mrs. Ralph Denny read a card and expressed a few words of appreciation to Mrs. Alfred Thompson and Mrs. W. Swackhamer presented her with a cup and saucer.

Mrs. W. Thompson read an address and card to Mrs. William Butler for her untiring help at all times and Mrs. B. Leitch presented her with a cup and saucer. Both ladies replied thanking everyone. The president closed the meeting with prayer.

The hostess, Mrs. W. Swackhamer, also Mrs. D. Williamson and Mrs. F. Freeman served a hearty lunch. Mrs. G. Stephen, courtesy convener, thanked Mrs. Swackhamer for the use of her home and hospitality.

Extend Sympathy
The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Clinton Swackhamer in the death of her sister Mrs. Robert Shaw last week also to Mr. and Mrs. W. Swackhamer and family.

Everyone will be sorry to hear Mr. R. L. Davidson is in Guelph.

EDEN MILLS
Missionary Speaks At Easter Service
The Silver Belles were hosted on Monday afternoon by Mrs. J. Gilbertson and winners were Mrs. Catherine Gilbertson, Mrs. Sada Gilbertson, Mrs. E. Jennings and Mrs. R. Wright.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Anna Wilson were Mrs. E. Val Tilton and daughter Isabell, Kitchener, also Mrs. Morrison of Sudbury.

Mrs. Anna Coulson spent the Easter holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reilly, Moore Field.

The sympathy of Eden Mills and community goes out to Mrs. Jack Milne in the loss of a sister, Mrs. Blanch Field.

Guest speaker at the Easter service at Eden Mills Presbyterian Church was Rev. Sutherland, a missionary from Formosa.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Smith of Hanover was visiting their daughters and families for Easter. Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Abram and Mr. and Mrs. Norm Marshall Jr.

Miss Pat Wright left Sunday for the holidays for London, guest of Miss Heather Shaw.

Mrs. Mochrie had her family home for Easter, Marie Lambert, Acton; Mr. Allan Mochrie, Port Credit; Linda Miller, Orangeville; Wayne Mochrie, Orangeville; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Quarric, Guelph; Mr. Andrew Welch, Guelph.

Social Evening At Knox Church

On Wednesday night, March 30, the congregation of Knox Church held a "get-together" social evening.

A bountiful pot-luck supper, arranged by the Ladies' Aid, and a varied program which followed were much enjoyed.

An organ solo, "Largo" was played by Ted Hansen and piano solos by Bonnie McKenzie, Diane Frank and Mrs. Clarence Coles.

A vocal solo, "Lullaby" was sung by Carol Patterson, followed by a duet by Carol and her aunt, Bella-Maye Roszell.

Mrs. A. H. McKenzie sang, "April Showers" and "It's a Grand Night for Singing". Mrs. John Davidson's vocal offering was "An Old-Fashioned House".

A vocal duet, "I Passed By Your Window", was sung by Valerie Coles and Jessie Ann Davidson, with "I Heard You Go By", as an encore.

Ellie Toebes gave an accordion selection, Bella-Maye Roszell and Mrs. John Toebes sang, "The Old Rugged Cross", as a duet. Mrs. Robert Algie played a medley of Irish songs on her mandolin, accompanied by Mrs. O. J. Moran, on the piano.

Isabel Anderson read a number of her poems and told a couple of humorous anecdotes.

Rev. A. H. McKenzie was an efficient master of ceremonies.

Hot Cross Buns Girls' Project

The girls, who took over the project from the Scouts this year with some misgivings, were delighted with the results. They sold 348 packages of dozens, and 143 packages of eight buns each — that's 5,320 buns. Actonians marked Good Friday with more than one bun apiece for the entire population.

Girls were assigned certain streets to canvass. The buns were delicious, and some customers phoned back to order more. By then all the order was allotted and extras weren't available for sale.

The money will be used toward new stove for the scout hall.

Change Time Church Service

Services at Limehouse Presbyterian Church will be held at 9:45 a.m. on April 17 only.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Chalkin and Mr. Richard Chalkin of Richmond Hill spent the holiday weekend with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. David Batten.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. K. M. Bourne spent a few days with Major and Mrs. P. Bourne and family at Petawawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Venstra of Cornwall have spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Verboon here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Maltby and Mr. John Maltby of Shelburne and Mr. and Mrs. Gadd and Mr. Roger Gadd of Georgetown visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Maltby.

Mrs. Burt and family from near Montreal visited her sister, Mrs. Monroe on the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Swinkles and family visited his brother at Seaforth over Easter.

Mrs. Robert Lane returned with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Norton on Sunday after being away for several months.

Holiday Camp
"A day at camp" was enjoyed right at home Wednesday by Brownies of the 3rd Acton Pack. They spent the entire day at the scout hall with leader Mrs. T. S. Newton, paralleling a day at camp as far as they were able. Breakfast began the program which was followed by text work, games and the cooking of meals.

Guiders Train
Three guiders will be taking the latest St John course in the town hall. The course "Nursing Care in the Home" begins this Thursday. The Guiders are Mrs. Ginger, Mrs. Van Der Kooy, and Mrs. Lowrie.

Planting Rockery at School Will Be Centennial Project

Limehouse Women's Institute held their annual meeting in the Memorial Hall on Thursday afternoon, April 7, with a small attendance. Mrs. Gishby presiding. The meeting opened by repeating the Mary Stewart Collect. Roll Call was payment of fees.

Secretary-treasurer Mrs. Turner read reports showing a fair balance in the bank and made one realize the amount of work achieved during the year. It has been the custom each year to give a silver fork to each club girl for completing the two projects. It was decided to give two forks, one for each club. It was voted to change the meeting to the first Wednesday of every month.

The annual birthday party at Milton Manor was discussed. There are 16 April birthdays.

Centennial Project
Centennial project is beautifying the natural rock formation in front of the school by making a rockery, planting flowers and shrubs.

Mrs. Frank Brown sent a fall report of the district directors' meeting plans for district annual in May and area convention in the fall.

President Reports
For the president's report she said "Looking back over the past year, one thing that stands out is co-operation. It has been a year of changes, either sickness or weather forcing us to change plans. We were always able to adjust to circumstances."

"Our education night was very helpful to many people. Talks by Mr. Balkind, principal of the school, also Mrs. Preston and Mr. Jackson of Stewarttown school were most informative."

"Our visits to the Manor, and our gifts for shut-ins were a tribute to the older people, as were our membership in the Retarded Children, Children's Aid, music festival and the sponsoring of the Teens' Club."

"The hat making project was enjoyed by all those taking part. "So I think 'service' could sum up our year's work."

"Looking head, the rockery will mean a lot of hard work. Nothing worthwhile is accomplished without work, so it's up to us to put

Final Service Of Holy Week

The final service of the three of Holy Week was a most well-attended last Thursday. The speaker was the Rev. Harry Fought, and the massed choir of five churches sang, directed by George Elliott at the organ.

Holy Week services under the Ministerial Association were all held at Knox Church a week ago Sunday, Tuesday and last Thursday.

Trip to Bahamas For IGA Managers

Sustained support of their customers and a record of good service to their community earned Mr. and Mrs. Harold Manes of Ledger's IGA, Acton an expense-paid trip to the Grand Bahama Hotel in the Bahamas Islands.

They were among more than 150 IGA dealers and their wives who have returned home from the six-day conference on operational efficiency and customer service. The conference was sponsored by Oshawa Wholesale Limited, Toronto, IGA supplier in Central Ontario.

They were flown on three chartered Pan American jets to Grand Bahama Island where they participated in a series of sessions conducted by consulting psychologist, Dr. J. Clayton Lafferty, of Detroit Michigan, as well as a varied program of recreational activities.

Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Manes of Erin and Mr. and Mrs. Vic Masters of Lindsay.

Credit cards. To each his own. Things are so bad on the coast even the tide isn't coming back.
