Business included approval of buildings, an evangelism project and the possible change in board dates at this end of the Presbytery.

As it is the custom to have a hymn take the devotions, Bob Hart took part in the service.

Mrs. Eaton, who has just returned to his home in Acton with his wife after many months in India, spoke on his experiences there. He and Mrs. Eaton went to help their son, who is a missionary. They found a desperate shortage of water and became involved in the drilling of a well. A 1,000 bed hospital in Indore had only running water for one hour a day. The city's flow was in-
