

Spilling Five Pins at Acton Bowling Lanes

Beardmore

April 25: Bring out the olive wreath and slap 'em on the sweaty brows of the bowlers of the Rolling Room team because the doughy leggers steamed, prayed and betwines did a spot of bowling to win the Beardmore league championship. In the final roll between the Rollers and the Rockers, it was Rolling Room, paced by Phil LeSueur 692, Al Daley 644, Harry Lawson 617, Ed Hubbell 272 and Lyle Broughton 242 who tripled and singled the way to the championship. Not that Rockers didn't give them a run for their money. Doug Draycott's 740, Arlie White's 205, Timmie Masales' 215 and Dave Shannon's 204-217 gave Rockers something to worry about.

The first game saw Rollers with 1121 to Rockers' 1053. The second game had both teams dropping off the pace but Rollers picked up two pins—955 to 953. The third game was the thriller. Rockers started to cut down the Rolling Room but the Rollers came up with the payoff shots in the tenth and final frame, to make it 1955 to 1013, and it was a Rolling Room victory with a total pinfall of 3129 to Rockers' 3019.

If this were National League hockey, there would be three stars given out. Come to think of it, they haven't patented the three stars, so we'll give 'em. First, to Doug Draycott for his big 40 triple which kept the Rockers in contention and with a little more support, could have won the title. Second, to Al Daley of the Rolling Room. Al, just an average bowler during the season but a conscientious one, came up with a 644 tripart in the playoff to give his team a big lift. Third, to Harry Lawson, not so much for his 617 triple (this was overshadowed by Al and Phil LeSueur) but for his verbal encouragement when his team mates faltered, his faith in himself and his team, even to the extent of risking currency of the realm on the result.

So here it is, three stars, a championship to the Rolling Room and congratulations for a well fought series. No penalties.

Legion Ladies

April 25: Winding up the regular schedule saw Sapphires winning two and totals from Rubies. Deanna Bullough 623 (262) and Phyllis Angell 520 (197) paced the win. Rubies failed to make with the mercurials. Emeralds won two and totals from Opals, who won the middle chukker. Helen Joque 572 (210), Stef Pechcha 556 (199) and Kay James 505 (174) were top trio for Emeralds. Top trio for Opals were Joyce Buchanan 597 (234), Grace Robertson 535 (202) and Lois Gordon 437 (213). Pearls lost the first to Diamonds, then won the next two plus totals. Pacing the Pearls were Mary Cooney 560 (234), Jean Harris 533 (210) and Eva Williams 509 (186). Top Diamond trio were Louise Toth 629 (246), Doris Angell 512 (226) and Shirley Turkov 496 (193).

Final league standing: Sapphires 120, Emeralds 109, Diamonds 108, Opals 105, Pearls 102, Rubies 66.

Blue Springs Nursery

April 26: In the first three games of the playoffs for Blue Springs, Tulips ran up a string of 740-819-705 for a total of 2264, to take a commanding lead over the second place Roses, who went 652-682-699 for 2033. Glads hold down third spot with a run of 626-672-642 for 1940. Violets couldn't find the range and trail with 504-690-551 for 1749. For Tulips, Adele Nolan 705 (258) and Mary Jones 662 (251) were the big shooters. Betty Hardie 560 (210) and Mary Cooney 535 (216) were tops for Roses. Top duo for Glads showed up in Lois Norton 557 (236) and Jackie Palmer 489 (165). Violets' efforts were headed up by Mae Curtiss 574 (223) and Lulu Sinclair 499 (205).

Micro Plastic

April 26: Hillbillies grabbed the lead in the first three games of the six game playoff, total pins to count when they rolled up a total of 2950. The Hillbillies' win was paced by Joan Knight 818 (323), George Tilcox 260 and Wayne Eason 218. Hot Dogs, with Earl Middleton 622, Bill Ingles 603, Marj Agnew 224 and Gino de Bartolo 228, tripling and singling, hold down second place with 2795. High Risers are in the show position with 2733. The singles of Al Cloutier 202-205, Jim Kellan 242 and John McGilloy 201, helped the Riser cause. Hurricanes are hurrying along in fourth place with a pinfall of 2681. J. Bullough's 634 triple featured the Hurricanes' roll. Road Runners ran with Gord McKinnon 662, Bob Cathcart 659 (308) and Warren Fernough 247, to run their pinfall up to 2675 and fifth place. Bold Eagles trail or the nonce with 2509. Dee DeForest 616 was the only Eagle flying in the triple zone.

Industrial-Commercial

April 27: The Industrial-Commercial final between Orfuns and Masson-Motors was a thriller with Orfuns grabbing the championship by 30 pins. Masson took the lead in the first, 1238 to 1199. Orfuns bounced back in the second, paced by Fryer's 388, 1306 to 1271, for a slim six pin lead. They went into a 107 pin lead in the third, rolling 3679 as against Masson Motors' 3572. Orfuns appeared to have the title on ice when they rolled 4780 to Masson's 4572 and a 204 pin lead. Came the fifth and last game and Orfuns ran into trouble but good. They groggily came up with a lovely 982 and Masson's fired up by Len Annette's 308 game, barreled a 1156, but alas and alack, they were 30 pins short of making the grade. 'Twas a good one to win for the Orfuns and a tough one for Masson's to lose. Ironically enough, Phil LeSueur, head-off man for Masson's, punched a headpin in the last frame and Terry Masales, bowling in the anchor spot, did the same thing, and Masson's hopes of the championship went out the window.

Acton Ladies

April 27: In the first three games of the six game rolloff, total pins to count, Credit Union took the lead by 42 pins when they rolled 1987 as against the second place Cameos' 1945. Top trio in the Credit Union roll were Emmy Fryters 493 (202), Verna Arbie 491 (175) and Irene Lavoie 483 (191). The second place Cameos' top trinders were Helen LeSueur 574 (210), Bea Anderson 512 (191) and Sally Whibley 428 (158). Ledger's IGA went into the third slot with a pinfall of 1896. Ina Mellon 581 (244), Donna Manes 519 (186) and Audrey Lawrence 405 (152) were top trio for IGA. Holding down the fourth spot is Acton Jersey Dairy with a pinfall of 1741. The Dairy roll was paced by Verna McEachern 485 (199), Vivian Nightingale 454 (197) and Annette St. Pierre 443 (168). Rachlin Jewellers are a close fifth with a pinfall of 1730. Lillian Herensberger 491 (220), Jean Moltsac 431 (192) and Eleanor Goy 415 (155) topped the Jewellers' roll. Nielsen's Clothing trail the field with 1707 but they cannot be sold short with another three games to go. The Nielsen effort was paced by Isabel Moore 439 (184), Eileen Taylor 434 (174) and Cora Walters 432 (189).

Thursday Toppers

April 28: With a six game, total pins to count, rolloff for the championship, Spitfires were in the lead by 96 pins after the first three games, with Mary Skirraw 556 (216), Louise Toth 549 (227) and Mary Hiscocock 495 (189) heading up Spitfires' three game roll of 2440. Cool Chick's pinfall of 2344 has them in second place. Ivy Martin 700 (266), Marnie Allen 521 (223) and Phyllis Winters 4655 (199) were Chicks' top trinders. Rolling Stones came up with a 2275 roll, to hang onto the third slot. Marion Elliott 523 (235), Helen Bittorf 448 (164) and Joan Knight 464 (199) were top trio. Rinky Dinks trail with a pinfall of 2072. Lila Atkinson 560 (246), Eva Williams 438 (189) and June Shaffi 374 (155) were Rinky Dinks' best.

Acton Friends

April 28: Falcons quickly wiped out the 29 pin lead Ravens had going into the last three game

by Ken Hulford

block of the six game roll, total pins to count, when they rolled a 1039 in their fourth game. They came up with a 1104 in the fifth and although they fell off to a 865, in the sixth and final game, their total pinfall of 5667 was plenty good enough by 303 pins to win the championship. Singles played a big roll in Falcons' win with Dodie McGilloyway 282, Don Archibald 222-204, Jackie Papillon 235, Jim Milne 253-238 and Joyce Blundell 245 getting 'em. Hawks made a belated bid with a final roll of 2789, to go with their previous roll of 2555, but it was not good enough. Pacing the Hawks' last roll were Ed Janks 5710 (300), Bob Skidmore 634, Joanne Duval 234 and Alma Schmidt 218, who tripled and singled. Ravens dropped with a 2574 roll, to add to their previous 2668 pinfall, which gave them a total of 5242. Merv Harness 245, Ory Chapman 241-200, Bonnie Baxter 200 and Lorna Bessey 203 came up with singles. Eagles bettered their previous roll of 2592 with a 2646, but their total of 5238 was far from being a winning one. As a farewell shot, Don DeForest 611, George Williamson 663 and Marilyn McArthur 216, tripled and singled.

Acton Mixed

April 29: Tiger Cats took no chances of losing top spot. They won all games from Bees. Hee, Daigle's 723 and Ivy Martin's 679 triples, headed up the Tiger Cat win. Maxine Hurst with 658 was a loner for Bees. Beatles made with a two and totals win from Puffs, who almost got zeroed but won the last game by 15 pins. Art Nightingale 629, Bert Robertson 213 and Verna Arbie 210, tripled and singled for Beatles. Fred Landry 618 and Rose Winter 206 were on the triple and single plateaus for Puffs. Mascots won the first from Spees, but then the Spees speeded up and made with a two and totals win with Nancy Jensen 233 and Jon Hurst 230 getting singles. For Mascots, Clint Taylor 632, Andy Conway 609 and Joe Pierangeli 220, tripled and singled.

Teen 'n' Under

April 30: Iroquois came up with a double win at the Sloux' expense as did Mohawks against Senecas. Blackie and Hurons won a game apiece with Blackie taking the odd point for totals. Making the Top Ten this week were Steve Manrey 297-158 (365), Dave Pink 227-105 (332), Bob McCallum 148 - 165 (313), John Churchill 136-176 (312), Gary Price 166-145 (311), Frank Buschmever 169-117 (286), Bev Moore 138-144 (282), Joan Janear 151-129 (280), Gord Morris 200-75 (275), John Roszell 129-127 (256).

League standing: Tiger Cats 114, Puffs 104, Beatles 103, Bees 99, Mascots 95, Spees 94.

Big Four

April 29: In the second round of the playoffs, Rough Riders came up with a three game total of 2578, to boost their pinfall to 5302 and take the lead. Argonauts who were in first place, dropped in the second spot when their pinfall of 2548, coupled with the first night's 2661, gave them a total of 5209. Alouettes gained a little with a 2605 roll, making their total 5174. Tiger Cats are still trailing — their 2555 roll gives them a total of 5087. Rough Riders' top trio were Jake Kuitken 662 (247), Linda Ensing 550 (213) and Renie Voskamp 534 (217). Argonauts' best were Jake Vanderkooy 629 (255), Ali Lawson 543 (204) and Doll Van Arragon 455 (172). Top triplers for Alouettes were Rink Vlietstra 664 (302), Harry Ensing 593 (293) and Henry Kroes 554 (226). Ti-

Headpin Hilltes

Winning the weekly awards this week were Joan Knight, who scored a double with an 818 triple and a 323 single, to pick up both the Ledger's IGA and A-B Supermarket vouchers. Jeff Fryer, with a 388 single, won the Happy Fouts from Nielsen's Clothing. The bottled beverages of Reinhart's, Seven-Up and Coca-Cola were won by Teen-N-Under. Steve Manrey, Dave Pink, Joan Janear and Cathy Roach for bowling best over their averages.

That winds it up for this week, my friendlies, except to remind you hotshot bowlers that the deadline for entries to the O'Connor Open close Tuesday, May 10. So adios, amigos, and goodnight Daily City.
