

OBITUARY

James Anderson

A young Georgetown man, Joseph Anderson died May 2, 1966, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Clapham, after an illness of 15 months.

Mr. Anderson was born April 30, 1936 in East York, the only son of Mac and Violet Anderson, R.R. 1 Campbellville.

The family moved to Nassagaweya from Toronto in 1951, and has resided there since.

Mr. Anderson married Joyce Elaine Turnbull in Georgetown November 16, 1963, and the couple lived at 39 McIntyre Crescent in Georgetown since their marriage. He enjoyed hunting and fishing and owned a model "H" railroad.

He is survived by his parents, two sisters, Doris (Mrs. Glen Scott) of Limehouse, and Betty (Mrs. George Wheeler) of Hillsburg.

Mr. Anderson attended Second Public School in Toronto and Acton and Milton High Schools. He was employed at Provincial Paper Mills, Georgetown for 12 years was secretary of the Triangle Car Club, and a member of Acton Junior Farmers.

Funeral service was May 5 from Harold C. McClure Funeral Home in Georgetown with Rev. I. Fleming officiating.

Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown, with pallbearers Wayne Turnbull, brother-in-law, Georgetown; Gordon Anderson and Bryan Anderson of Toronto, cousins; David and John Craik of Streetsville, cousins and Gordon Bremner of Toronto, long-time public school friend.

John B. Nelson Raised in Acton

Relatives in this district received the sad news that the body of John B. Nelson of Amesdale, who had been missing for two weeks, had been found in the bush. He had started to Richan to get groceries when his car bogged down with a flat tire. He walked to Richan, got his supplies and started to walk home. For some unknown reason he got lost or wading through the snow was too much for him, as he was a man of 72 years. He lived alone.

Funeral service was held on Monday. He leaves two sons, Jim of Dryden and Don of Winnipeg. One son, J. D., predeceased him in 1952 and his wife, Ella McEneaney, formerly of Ballinafad, also predeceased him in 1959. Four grandchildren and three sisters, Mrs. J. R. MacArthur, Georgetown; Miss Ruth Nelson of B.C. and Mrs. Thompson, London, also survive.

He was born and raised in Acton.

Piano Recital
In City School

Pupils of Arthur Dale Wood A.R.C.T. presented their annual recital at Rosethorn public school auditorium, Toronto, Saturday evening. Master of ceremonies was Arthur Gibson of Eden Mills.

The first part of the program was a series of piano solos by Mr. Wood's students. The second part was a presentation of "The Sound of Music", with Anne Shortliff of Acton singing the part of Maria, the governess.

Acton, Rockwood and Eden Mills piano students who took part in the interesting program were Jeff Lubb, Wendy Knappton, Jim Knappton, Mary Watson, Jane Watson, Anne Watson, Paul Youngblut, Dianne Frank, Sharon White and Linda Perry of Acton; Grant Gibson, Janice Gibson, Nancy Gibson and Cameron Gibson of Eden Mills; Coline McGilivray, Mary Anne Waddell and Jack McDonald of Rockwood.

Many from Acton were in the audience.

Circuit Assembly
Jehovah's Witnesses

Jehovah's Witnesses held a three-day circuit assembly in the M. M. Robinson high school in Burlington the past weekend. A capacity audience of 1,020 filled the main auditorium and overflowed into smaller seating areas where special audio equipment had been installed so that all could hear the public address.

"Does God have influence in this 20th century?" Clara Stettin, district supervisor of the Witnesses, asked.

Saturday evening, 878 delegates were urged to continue pressing on in their public service of free home Bible study. In conducting a model study of the official Witness journal, "The Watchtower," Blair Weller of Burlington emphasized the overall convention theme, "Make Disciples of People of all Nations."

Attending to their disciplining work was the ordination of six new ministers on Saturday afternoon. These included two teenagers.
