Switching tires from one position to another on the car prolongs tire life. Tire switching saves tires by equalizing wear and "exercising" the spare. By switching your tires every 5,000 miles and using the spare, you can drive 25,000 miles and put only 20,000 miles of wear on each of the tires.

Pros join amateurs for Lions Round Up

Acton Lions will present their second annual Round Up Saturday at the community centre using professional talent for the first time as part of the show.

The Lions feel they were fortunate in booking The Rhythm Pals, an aggregation which has been drawing raves as part of the Tommy Hunter show on both TV and radio, to headline Round Up '66. The Pals have a wide repertoire with something for every taste. They play and sing favorites in the western field, pop music and have many of the latest Beate songs to choose from.

The Rhythm Pals have been playing to capacity audiences wherever they appear and the Lions hope they'll be playing to a full house again Saturday here. Advance ticket sales have been fairly good for the reserved seats but the rush seats were just put into circulation this week. The Lions are conducting a house to house canvass so everyone will have a chance to see the show.

Along with the Rhythm Pals the show will feature Chuck Ford a banjo virtuoso who's been called the Maurice Bolyer of Canada. Then there's inimitable Vince Mountford to emcee the show. Vince needs no introduction to folks in these parts where he's entertained for shows and fair crowds of every description.

The array of local talent which will be part of this year's Round Up includes the Chorales who have been one of the highlights of any show here. The 30 male voices under the direction of George Musselle sing four part harmony with the ease of professionals but with the enthusiasm of amateurs.

Then there's Joyce Carpenter's dancers, the hoofers who were such a hit in last year's production. The young ladies can really belt out a song in addition to dancing up a storm.

To put a real country western flavor in the show the Pairs and Squares, Acton's square dance group will entertain with caller Norm Wilcox from Brampton.

Modern square dancing is a streamlined version of the brand popular in another era.

Mayor Les Doby, a pleasing baritone who can strum a guitar and vodel with the best western entertainers will appear on the show as well. Les' solos were a highlight of last year's Lion's show.
