Life membership for Mrs. Bulmer

The June meeting of the Baptist Mission Circle was held on Monday evening in the church with the newly-elected president, Jessie Coles, in charge. During the business session plans were made for another food parcel to be sent to the Rudds in India, consisting mainly of high-protein foods. Also glasses are to be collected to send to India and felt hats for handiwork at Ohsweken Indian Reserve.

Mrs. C. Baillie gave devotions based on Hebrew 12th Chapter. Prayer was given for India by Mrs. Coles. A letter from Mrs. Feltham and the home mission work by Mrs. Landsborough. The president gave a report on the work at Eastwood Centre, Hamilton, and read a thank you note for clothes recently sent there. She also gave an interesting report on the work of Dr. Coppull, a great Indian doctor who has performed over 40,000 cataract operations in India.

A duet by Mrs. Baillie and Mrs. Feltham. More About Jesus was very much enjoyed.

During the social hour presentation of a life membership pin was made to Mrs. Helen Bulmer, a former treasurer who will be shortly moving to Fergus with her family. Alice Pakinton read the address in verse form and Mrs. Landsborough presented the pin.

The June meeting will be the 10th of a series at the home of Mrs. H. D. Vane.

Women of India guest's topic at United Church women's meet

Unit. W. of India Unit. ce. "Share met in the ladies' parlour on Tuesday June 7 with Mrs. Vardaan presiding.

Our programme was very interesting as we were invited by a deceased member, Mrs. Dorothy Innes. Then all repeated the Lord's Prayer.

A new member and also an old member were welcomed back — Mrs. Laiton and Mrs. Landsay who has been ill for some months.

The secretary's report was given and approved. The treasurer's report was also given.

Mrs. Shields and Mrs. Veldhuis spent a day in Toronto recently at the Overseas Mission Building and Mrs. Veldhuis explained how they sort, clean and pack bales for overseas.

On May 30 bales were packed for the Fred Victor Mission and for the Overseas Mission, which weighed about 300 lbs and were valued at $260.

There was a very successful bake sale in May.

Mrs. Shoemaker gave her report on the sick and shut-ins, also birthdays, not just for the one group but for the whole church.

This being the last meeting of the season, it was decided to forgo a picnic and to meet again in the fall with a pot luck supper. Visits were recorded and also visitors were welcomed.

Mrs. Shoemaker's group was in charge of devotions and hymn 137 was sung.

Mrs. Little read the Indian version of the 23rd Psalm and Mrs. Shoemaker read several versions of other Scriptures.

Seminarians to provide information on missions

Next week 24 students for the Roman Catholic missionary priesthood will be visiting Acton homes. Their object is to acquaint the Roman Catholics and any others interested in the work of the Scarborough Foreign Mission Society.

The two dozen young men are spending their summer this year away from their provinces, with carry sleeping gear and cook their own meals. Transportation is by motor bike and car. They stay in parish halls, schools or any other available accommodation. On their tour are Hamilton, Ottawa, Timmins, Port Arthur, Fort William, Montreal, Kingston and the surrounding areas.

The Scarborough Foreign Mission Society was founded by North America's first Roman Catholic missionary to China, Monsignor John Fraser, a native of Toronto, in 1918. Now numbering 160, Scarborough Fathers work in seven lands, Japan, the Philippines, British Guiana, the Bahamas, Windward Islands, Brazil and the Dominican Republic. They maintain parishes, establish schools, credit unions, dispensaries, agricultural centres and develop lands.

The students of the Scarborough Foreign Mission Society take Liberal Arts followed by theology at St. Francis Xavier seminary at Scarborough. There are over 90 seminarians enrolled in various stages of the eight year course. They do much field work.

The student who came to Acton this week said the group would return to do their calling one day next week, perhaps on Wednesday or Thursday the 22nd or 23rd. They expect to obtain a list of names of Roman Catholics from Rev. V. J. Morgan. They have folders and photographs prepared to show the work of the society.

First Jackson reunion held in Ariss June 12

The first Jackson reunion picnic was held on June 12 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Van Norman of Ariss, Ont.

The Jacksons were early settlers at Everton, Ont. in Eramosa Township. Richard Jackson came to this country from Ireland and the farm land that is presently owned by his great grandson, William Jackson, and the farm has been in the Jackson name for over 100 years.

Three of the four aunts of the present William Jackson, who were born and raised on the farm, were present for the occasion — Mrs. Hattie McCutcheon, Acton; Mrs. Margaret Hall, Lucknow; and Mrs. Minnie McDaniel, Toronto.

The oldest person attending was Mrs. Hattie McCutcheon of Acton; the youngest was Leanne Friesen, granddaughter of Mrs. Murray Johnson, Toronto; and the persons coming the farthest were Mr. and Mrs. W. Cumming (Mrs. Jack Hall's daughter, Eileen) from Owen Sound.

Relatives attending were from Guelph, Acton, Oshinga, Rockwood, Moffat, Preston, Lucknow, Owen Sound, Toronto and Weston. Attending from Acton were Mr. and Mrs. W. Struthers, Mrs. Stewart Sinclair, Miss Sandra Sinclair, Mrs. Allan Holmes, Larry and Vicki.

Mrs. G. Johnston auxiliary hostess

The annual Home Helpers' meeting of the Afternoon Auxiliary W.M.S. of Knox Presbyterian Church was held in the country at the home of Mrs. Gordon Johnston when she and her mother, Mrs. H. Sayers, were hostesses.

June 9 was a rainy day but it did not dampen the enthusiasm of the 40 members and friends who gathered for an enjoyable afternoon of "Christian fellowship."

Mrs. F. Anderson presided and Mrs. C. Hansen was convener of the program, assisted by Mrs. F. McCutcheon and Miss I. Anderson.

The service of worship was led by Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. McCutcheon, with Miss Rossell and Mrs. Toebes of Knox choir rendering a duet.

Miss Anderson read a delightful story entitled "The Last Argument" which exemplified the fact that real happiness comes from a simple life and faith.

Mrs. O. Moran, a member on the executive of the newly organized Presbyterial of Brampton, gave a report on the recent meeting in Brampton, which she attended as a representative of Knox W.M.S., and announced a fall rally to be held in Union Church.

The president conveyed to Mrs. M. M. Coles, on behalf of the members, sincerest greetings on the occasion of the 50th wedding anniversary to be celebrated soon by Mr. and Mrs. Coles.

A bounteous buffet supper was the climax of this delightful afternoon.

The Legion Ladies' Auxiliary held their last meeting till September in the Legion Hall with president Mrs. D. Rogers in the chair. The auxiliary initiated and welcomed a new member, Mrs. R. Dalton.

Mrs. Leo Synnot and Mrs. E. Lazenby were the lucky winners of two boxes of chocolates.

Two donations of $50 each were passed for the Salvation Army and the Retarded Children. Plans are being made for the mystery trip on September 10.

The Legion "A" bowling team will go to Barrie for provincial playoffs on June 25. Anyone wishing to go on the bus, please get in touch with Mrs. Lois Gordon by June 18. The bus will leave the Legion Hall at 9 a.m.

After the meeting, a delicious lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.

Two $50 donations made by auxiliary

Final arrangements for the bus trip to Lowville Park for the Zone Picnic on June 7 were discussed. Mrs. Winn was elected as representative to the Council of Women. Several members were reported on the sick list.

More than a bus load had gone to Guelph on Tuesday afternoon to join with the Golden Age Club there and reported a wonderful time spent. Mrs. R. L. Davidson, Mrs. Wedge and Mrs. Reed all had June birth dates and were saluted with the "Happy Birthday Song".

Seventy tickets to the Lions "Round Up '66" were given out

Reception follows christening Sunday

At St. Alban's Anglican Church on Sunday, June 12, Rev. Ritchie McMurray officiated at the christening of Robert Douglas Banks, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Banks. Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Coats of Acton and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Panchon of Acton.

A reception was held afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Banks. Guests included the Godparents, Master Steven Banks, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bray and sons Paul and Mark of Acton; Mr. and Mrs. M. Skibinski, St. Thomas, (aunt and uncle); Mrs. Norma Holt of Gravenhurst, (grandmother); Mrs. H. W. Banks of Beamsville, (grandmother); Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Porteous of Dundas (great-aunt and uncle); and Miss Elizabeth Porteous of London.
