

To change hours of church services

When members of the official boards of Acton United Church and Churchill United Church held a joint meeting at Churchill, a schedule of services was agreed upon. Churchill church is now to be served from Acton, according to a recent decision of Presbytery.

Beginning in September, services will be held at 10 a.m. in Acton and 11.15 at Churchill.

It was felt that those from either congregation who prefer a specific hour could attend services at either church, quite easily since the country church is quite near town.

The Rev. Dwight Engel will assume the duties of minister of the Churchill congregation as well as Acton.

Previously, Churchill and Balinad churches were associated and were generally served by a student minister.

Teen dance draws 150

About 150 enjoyed The Shavnes and Go-Go girls at the Teen dance at the community centre Friday evening.

The dancers, who have appeared at the Riviera, Norval, had a variety of unique costumes and they changed them frequently. The music was the kind the young people enjoy, and while recreation director Howard Pearce had hoped for a larger crowd, the dance was quite successful.

The Shavnes, who organized their dance band two years ago, still have three of the original players: Gerald Week on drums, Bernie Frazier on the electric organ, and Lloyd McInyre on bass guitar. Bill McInyre has been with the band for a year, playing lead guitar.

Terry Churchill has been vocalist for the past six months.

Lloyd McInyre's father, Harold McInyre, acts as business manager for the popular group.

List Esquating facts from 1862

Hudson County 1862, seen through the eyes of Robert Warlock, common school teacher, is the subject of a dated browsing book owned by Addison Woodley of Millis district.

Not much is available on the county at that early date, and the teacher's efforts are long after history in his own mind.

The booklet is essentially a list of property owners, but it also includes other facts and figures.

Only three towns existed in the county in 1862 but there were 25 villages, 27 post offices, two grammar schools and 55 common schools.

The assessed value of property in Hudson county in 1861 was $6,702,985 with a population of 27,000. Today's assessment of $27,194,555 and a population of 140,000.

Under Esquating were listed such familiar names as Georgetown, Acton, Upper Hornby, Stewarttown, Silver Creek, Balinad, Glen Williams, Ashgrove and Norval. The township boasted six flour mills, seven steam saw mills, 24 water saw mills, five tanneries, a brewery, a foundry, two pump factories, six common schools and 10 post offices.
