

EDEN MILLS

Near-drowning on Tuesday
three-year-old in hospital

A near drowning took place at Eden Mills dam on Tuesday noon when the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. McGilvary was pulled from the water. Rockwood fire department was called and the child is now resting in hospital.

Marlene McPherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McPherson, was united in wedlock to John Smit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Smit, Guelph, on Saturday at the Church of Our Lady, Guelph.

The Cardette Club held their final euchre for the season with Fran Tolton as hostess. Winners were Lela Campbell, Donna Clifford and Betty Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings were in Port Perry Sunday visiting relatives.

Mr. Harry McIntosh left on Wednesday to enter the Wellington County home for the aged in Fergus.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barden were in Detroit over the weekend attending a wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson attended the wedding of a nephew, Ray Flewelling and Elizabeth McEachern, in Harrison Saturday evening.

The June meeting of the Eden Mills U.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. Wilk Wilson. Mrs. Harold Tomlinson took the devotional period and read a poem on the laymen of the church.

Mrs. Milson was in charge of the business period. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Ralph Thompson and adopted. The treasurer's report showed a satisfactory balance after the tea and bake sale.

It was moved that we send donations to the Caravan Project and to India. The church service on July 10 in charge of the U.C.W. was planned. Members answered the roll call by repeating a Bible verse containing the word "prayer".

After the meeting adjourned, refreshments were served by Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Vos and a social hour was spent.

A surprise party was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gibson on Sunday in honor of Mrs. Gibson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed

Mrs. D. Moffat
Institute hostess

Mrs. Duncan Moffat, Nassagaweya, was hostess for the regular monthly meeting of Dublin Women's Institute last Thursday evening. Mrs. C. Britton, president, presided over the opening exercises. Mrs. E. Norton, the secretary, looked after the business. Roll call was answered with "a suggestion for good public relations" and many helpful methods were given.

Mrs. W. Britton again turned in a nice donation to the treasury from the auction sale held at the Stewarttown Sales Barns recently.

A splendid report of the Halton District Annual held recently in Ballinafad was given by Mrs. Moffat. Courses on "vegetables with a flair" and "color in your home" have been chosen for this year.

Honor has again come to Dublin W.I. In the baking competition, Mrs. E. Wilson received first prize on her rolls, and Mrs. W. Britton received third prize on her pie. Congratulations were extended to them both by Mrs. Moffat.

Following up the roll call, Mrs. E. Wilson gave a splendid talk on Public Relations, and especially how Institute members could create a good feeling in their own neighborhood. Hymn of All Nations was sung.

The ladies were pleased to welcome as their guest speaker, Mrs. William Webb, of Campbellville, the newly appointed president of the Halton County Women's Institutes. She gave a thought-provoking talk which was quite interesting. Courtesy convener was Mrs. H. Blith.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Moffat, assisted by Mrs. W. Frank and Mrs. J. O'Gorman.

"Hi neighbour"

Mrs. Laura E. Dittrich, Acton's "Hi Neighbour" welcome service hostess, has just returned from Toronto where she attended the provincial meeting of "Hi Neighbour" welcome service representatives at the Royal York Hotel.

Mrs. Dittrich's theme, "Hi Neighbour Comes First in Acton" was enthusiastically endorsed, and Centennial plans were made for promoting the area this year and especially in 1967. Mrs. Dittrich reported excellent and enthusiastic co-operation from Acton's leading businesses and was agreeably surprised to learn that so many of Acton's newcomers have taken time to write to "Hi Neighbour's" head office in grateful appreciation of her friendly assistance.

Manse sold, auction furniture
Rev. Johnson new minister

The manse at Ballinafad has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Snyder of Ballinafad.

Our minister, also Mr. and Mrs. Snyder to Ballinafad. Mrs. Robert McEnery enjoyed the bus trip to Ottawa with Hannonburn and Dublin W.I.s. Farmers in this district have started haying and report a good crop.

Master Ricky Humbruff had the misfortune to fall from a beam in his grandfather, Mr. Lloyd Marshall's barn, fracturing his thigh bone. Sorry, Ricky, and just at holiday time!

Mrs. Kay McEnery spent the weekend in Hamilton with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Alger.

Mrs. Joe Matthews has been quite ill in Toronto Hospital but we are pleased to say she was able to return home.

Mrs. Wilfred Harding passed away on Thursday afternoon in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, after a lengthy illness. Sympathy goes out to her husband and daughter (Doris) Mrs. Donald Lindsay and family. Funeral service was held on Saturday from the Rumley - Shoemaker Funeral Home. Interment was in Linthouse Cemetery.

Mrs. Sanderson's sale was a good success; the house will be rented.

Congratulations to all who passed their exams, also to any who tried hard but couldn't

50th wedding anniversary
for Mr. Mrs. George McPhail

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George McPhail celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the home of their son Mr. and Mrs. Kerwin McPhail, R.R. 3, Acton. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mathison, quite make it, better luck next time.
