

Free Press personals

Miss Eleanor Heard is working at Tally-Ho Inn, Huntsville, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Slaven of Scotland are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. T. Slaven, R.R. 4.

Miss Gwen Lauder is working for the summer at Patterson-Kaye Lodge, Bracebridge.

Miss Janice Leyland and Miss Susan Radford are working at Hospitality Inn, Haliburton, for the summer.

Miss Vicky Newton is working for the summer at Crestwood Motel and Restaurant, Port Carling.

Mrs. John Lambert visited with Sgt. and Mrs. F. W. Bowles at Camp Borden over the weekend holiday.

Mrs. Stan Norton of Acton and Miss Mary Chalmers of Toronto attended the funeral of their uncle, Robert Chalmers, at Owen Sound on Monday.

Miss Sandra Johnson of Lincolnshire, England, is visiting with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Johnson and family for three weeks.

Miss Rilla Thomas of Vancouver, B.C., is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McCullough and other friends in Acton and district.

Miss Vivian Smith, Miss Kathryn McKenzie and Miss Nancy Rognvaldson are working for the summer at Winckeo House Lodge, Sparrow Lake.

Spending the holiday near Whitney were Terry Wilson, John McNabb, Jim McDonald, Andy Williams, David Papillon and Brian McCristall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Robinson and family are holidaying at the East Coast and will visit Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart and family in New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Niel of Sarnia spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rognvaldson prior to flying on Friday to the International Y's Men's convention in Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McIsaac have returned home recently from an enjoyable trip to see their daughter, Mrs. Harry Brewster, Dr. Brewster and family, in Chilliwack, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Jules Fryters and Mrs. Cornelius Snoeke leave this weekend by plane for a three and a half week visit to their homeland in Holland. The trip has been planned for some time and all are looking forward to visiting with relatives they haven't seen for some years.

Mr. and Mrs. John Constantine of Manchester, England, are spending a three month vacation with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Constantine. They had their first glimpse of Niagara Falls over the weekend and think it is marvellous.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner and son of Bothwell visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lemon and family for the July 1st weekend. Mrs. L. Massie and Scott, Edith and John Hopkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frank spent the holiday weekend at Four Seasons Camp, Sauble Beach.

Gail Barbeau, daughter of former mayor George Barbeau and Mrs. Barbeau, now living in Islington, has graduated from Burnhamthorpe Collegiate, having passed Grade 12 and a one-year Special Secretarial Course. She is now employed as a stenographer by the Royal Bank of Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cutts have returned from a week's visit with Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Maplesden, Neshaie Station, New Jersey. Dr. Maplesden drove up to Acton to take his mother and Mr. Cutts back with him for their visit. On their return, Dr. Maplesden drove them to Kennedy Airport, where they caught a plane for home.

Many Acton residents were guests at the recent Phee-Johnson wedding held in St. George's Church, Georgetown, uniting in marriage Bettysue Eileen Johnson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson, 14 Churchill Cres., Georgetown, and Mr. Arnold James Phee, son of Mrs. John McCallum, 129 Longfield Rd., Acton, and the late Mr. Lester Phee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Storey and two daughters of St. John's, Newfoundland, have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. G. Stanley Matthews and other relatives in Acton and vicinity. Mr. Storey has been superintendent of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind in Newfoundland for 13 years and has now been transferred to Winnipeg to be superintendent for the province of Manitoba. Mr. Storey has left for his new position and will return around August 1 to join his family in motoring back to the home which they recently purchased in Winnipeg.

High school teachers will be busy this summer some taking courses — J. R. Bray, marking papers and taking a summer course in Toronto; W. D. Coats, marking papers in Toronto; E. G. Curtis, type A in agriculture at Guelph; Mrs. E. T. Laszlo, intermediate course in guidance in Toronto; J. A. Holmes, summer course in Toronto; R. K. McCann, specialist in physical education, Toronto; I. H. McGowan, Ontario College of Education, Toronto; P. W. Sullivan, Waterloo Lutheran University, economics and business; Mrs. K. R. Walker, O.C.E. in Toronto.

Robert Buckner has arrived at the Bant School of Fine Arts, Alberta, where he will spend the summer taking a course in Art and Fundamental Design. Robert completed his Grade 12 in June at St. Andrew's School, Aurora. He won his father's cup and the Crooke Medal for swimming and was a member of the swimming team. Dr. and Mrs. Buckner attended the June Ball sponsored by the Ladies' Guild of the school. Scottish dancing to the pipes and drums of the 4th Highlanders and ballroom dancing to Mary Kenney's band was enjoyed on the lawn in perfect weather. A buffet supper was served in the Great Hall.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Norton, Church St., attended the funeral of Mrs. Norton's father, Mr. Mills, at Shelburne on Monday. Mrs. Norton is spending a few days with her mother.

Recent visitors with Dr. Robert Buckner and family were his nephew, Dr. Ian Gregory and his wife, Dr. Gregory is Professor of Psychiatry in Columbus, Ohio.

Friends are sorry to learn that Mrs. Annie Frank is in Guelph General Hospital suffering a broken hip.

A report from the Robert Little public school this week indicates what teachers will be doing this summer. Some will be returning to the staff in September, while others will be teaching in other centres — John Lewis, Queen's University, Kingston, geography course; Ross Farrelly, Waterloo University, economics and history; Mrs. Rosemary Black, summer school in Kitchener, art; Mr. and Mrs. Doug Copeland, two weeks' holiday, fly to San Francisco, Hawaii and Las Vegas; Miss Donna Riseborough, University of British Columbia, Canadian history; Miss Elaine Ellis, summer school in Toronto, auxiliary education; Miss Joy Osby, summer school in Timmins, audio-visual aids; Miss Mary Golem, summer school in Guelph, physical education; Miss Mary Beth Elliott, summer school in Toronto, primary methods, part I; (Miss Elliott and Miss Golem are flying to Puerto Rico for three weeks in August); Miss Verity McIntosh, two month tour, the U.S.A. and Mexico; flying in Boston, Washington, New Orleans, Mexico City, Las Vegas, west coast of U.S.A., meeting Donna Riseborough in Vancouver.

M. Z. Bennett public school teachers are planning many things for the summer — Miss Gayle Hanna, University of Waterloo, psychology course, Petawawa in September; Mrs. V. Alger, exploring British Columbia, returning in fall; Miss Jean McDonald, French course at El-Iott Lake, returning; Miss Donna Farrelly, University of Waterloo, psychology, returning; Miss Fern Small, recuperating at Elora, returning; Mrs. A. Benton, muscle development course at Benton Acres, R.R. 4, Acton, returning; Miss Doris Lerch, University of Guelph, physical education, returning; E. Lesterland, building supply dispenser at Caledon, returning; S. Cowan, University of Western Ontario, German and geology, student in September at University of Western Ontario; E. Bears, McMaster University, returning; W. Dubois, Port Sydney, returning; Mrs. R. Bruce, home, returning; W. D. E. Smith, gentleman farmer, returning.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis and three children, who have been living on Jeffrey Ave., expect to leave town this weekend. Mr. Lewis has taught industrial arts in the Robert Little public school here the past year. They expect to visit in Peterborough, their former home, until August 21, when they leave by train for Edmonton. From there, they fly to Fort Smith, North West Territories, for an orientation period of three days. Later they will go to Inuvik, North-West Territories, where Mr. Lewis has been engaged on the teaching staff, and will be teaching industrial arts in the Junior High School, Inuvik is 1,500 miles north of Edmonton and is within the Arctic Circle, with a population of 2,400. The school has an enrolment of 1,000 pupils, one-half of whom live in the town, and the other half are flown in by plane to attend the Inuvik school from outlying districts. The students will be composed of Eskimo, Indian and white children. Many friends here wish them success and happiness in their new venture, and Mr. Lewis will write occasionally and tell of the conditions in the northern country and his experiences there.

Three high school students attend Waterloo seminar

By Brenda McKeown, Nell Anderson, Gary Dobbie

Representatives from the United Nations Club of Acton District High School were delegates of India at the annual Waterloo Seminar held at the University of Waterloo.

The first few days were devoted to sessions of the General Assembly where many interesting speakers representing various countries of the United Nations presented their countries' policies on the recent world dilemmas. Then the topics were discussed in the 4 individual committees consisting of approximately 36 delegates.

Gary Dobbie was the Vice-Chairman of the first committee which dealt with the Viet Nam crises. The second committee discussed disarmament but unfortunately due to lack of sponsors India could not be represented. Brenda McKeown took a neutral stand on the existing Rhodesia problem in the third committee. Neil Anderson supported, with a speech, a resolution on the ever-demanding world population and food situation.

St. Alban's Guild entertains W. A.

The ladies of St. Alban's Guild met recently in the parish hall for their annual pot luck supper annual had as their guests, the W.A. The evening began with prayer by the Rev. R. McMurray.

After a delightful meal, topped off with lots of strawberry shortcake, Miss Debbie Bousfield entertained with two piano solos. Mrs. G. Currie presented her with a small gift.

Mrs. Kay Alger then showed lovely slides of a trip she had taken with friends through the U.S.A. and the Canadian West to Vancouver Island. Among the slides were pictures of North Dakota, Wyoming, Salt Lake City, Yellowstone Park and Stanley Park. She was thanked by Mrs. V. Bristow.

A card contest was then played and the winners were Mrs. C. Holmes, Mrs. C. Winn, Mrs. R. Anderson, Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. B. Bayliss.

Mrs. J. Creasey Sr. thanked the Guild for inviting the W.A. to share an enjoyable evening.

there is ONLY ONE

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

Use this coupon to let us know you're here.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Town: _____

() Please have the Welcome Wagon hostess call on me.

() I would like to subscribe to The Acton Free Press.

() I already subscribe to The Acton Free Press. Fill out coupon and mail to Circulation Dept., The Acton Free Press.

Phone 853-0945

First graduating class feted at Ospringe school

The new Ospringe public school auditorium was gaily decorated for the banquet and dance given the Grade 8 graduating class.

Those present were John Brouwer, Norman Buck, Ken Cole, David Cripps, Eugene Champagne, Mary DeLores, Darlene Fines, Ken Gates, Maria Gates, Mike Hurren, Norma Leslie, Carol Longstreet, Barry MacArthur, John McConnell, Alan McDonald, Kevin Mitchell, Tom O'Donnell, George Taylor, June Upshall, Tracy Vlietstra, Ivan Wheeler and Chris Zabler.

A turkey supper was served by the mothers of the graduating class, to which the teaching staff was invited. Grace was said by Kevin Mitchell.

Mrs. Rathbun, who had previously taught many of the Grade 8 students, was introduced by Alan McDonald. Mrs. Rathbun said they were making history by being the first to graduate from the new school. An interesting story about a 'froggie' was told which showed the class they must keep trying to succeed.

It was said that "education is what is left over when you subtract what you have forgotten from what you have learned". Tracy Vlietstra gave thanks for the guiding words.

For providing the excellent supper, the mothers were thanked by Ken Gates. A word of thanks to all the teachers was appropriately given by Norma Leslie.

Following the supper, the class spent a very pleasant evening dancing to the music provided by the Shaynes orchestra. To this were invited the community graduating class of 1965. On behalf of the class, at the close of the evening, Chris Zabler voiced the appreciation for the pleasant music provided.

List top ten in hay contest

Acton Fall Fair Board secretary Mrs. C. W. Swackhamer this week announced results of the hay competition sponsored by the board and judged recently by Jim Delaney, Erin. A total of 17 entries were judged with the following 10 chosen as prize winners.

George Wallace, 94 points; Alec McPhedran, 93½; Melvin McCullough, 93; R. M. Storey, 92½; Wallace Swackhamer, 86; Wallace Lasby, 85; Fyle Somerville, 83; and Howard Donnell, 82½ points.

Prize money is distributed immediately for this competition, although it is run in conjunction with the fall fair.

H. S. HOLDEN
OPTOMETRIST
36 Cork St. East
GUELPH
Phone TA 2-7150

ACTON RED & WHITE

SERVES YOU BEST

AUNT MARY'S BREAD	24-oz. LOAF	47 ^F / _O 9 ^R ¢
MIRACLE WHIP	16-oz. JAR
SALAD DRESSING		39¢
ASSORTED FLAVORS
JELLO POWDERS		10 ^F / _O 1 ^R
SAICO BRAND GRAPEFRUIT or ORANGE JUICE	48-oz. TIN	39 ^C / _O ¢
GAINESBURGER Dog Food	32-oz. PACK	79¢
MIR Liquid detergent	24-oz.	2 ^F / _O 79 ^R ¢
PALM GARDEN - 100 BAGS		69¢
WESTON OR SUNBEAM - 1 DOZ.		35¢
JAVEX - 128-oz.		79¢
SPECIALLY SELECTED
BLADE ROAST		49 ^C / _{lb}
SHORT RIB ROAST	53 ^C / _{lb}
GROUND CHUCK		59 ^C / _{lb}
FRESH PRODUCE
JUMBO SIZE
CANTALOUPE	39¢
PEACHES	39¢ qt.
IDEAL FOR BURGERS
MILD CURED, LEAN PEAMEAL BACON		89 ^C / _{lb}
BY THE PIECE
YOU SAVE WHEN YOU SHOP AT RED & WHITE

Roofing Problems?

LEAVE THEM TO

ISMOND ROOFING

ROOFING EXPERT

NO JOB TOO BIG OR TOO SMALL

- SHINGLES
- METAL ROOFING
- EAVESTROUGHING
- BARN ROOFS

Free Estimates - Guaranteed Workmanship
For Information - Phone 853-0553

MILTON ROXY 878-3272

WED.-THURS.-FRI.-SAT. JULY 6-7-8-9

"THUNDERBALL" - in color
SEAN CONNERY
CARTOON - "PINK PISTONS"
ADULT ENTERTAINMENT
Matinee Saturday at 2 p.m.

MON.-TUES.-W